Driver of Car That Killed Girl Is Found Guilty

Fritz Levi, 32, of 27 Lowe st., Quincy, was found guilty in the Newton court on Tuesday of driving a car so as to endanger the lives of the public. A charge of manslaughter was dismissed. Judge Allen fined Levi $100 and gave him a suspended 30 days' sentence to Middlesex County prison. Levi appealed. He was the driver of a car which on May 22nd hit Elinor Gaw, 12, on Cherry st., West Newton, as she was riding a bicycle. The girl died less than an hour later at the Newton Hospital. Levi claimed that the girl swerved her bicycle in front of his car. The prosecution testified that the bicycle was dragged 54 feet and that marks showed that the girl was riding on the extreme right of the road when hit.

Yesterday Levi came to the Newton court and withdrew his appeal. He was given until September 26 to pay the fine.

Girl Rescued From Drowning

Beatrice Carlans, 19, of Steadman rd., Brookline, was canoeing with a young man on Wednesday night in the Charles River at Auburndale when the canoe overturned. Her escort swam ashore, leaving the girl, who could not swim, clinging to the overturned canoe. Patrolman Maloney of the Metropolitan police heard the girl's cries and went to her rescue in the police launch.

Speeders Fined In Newton Court

Speeders fined $5 in the Newton court on Wednesday included David Morse, Brookline; Richard Kelly, Waltham; Bernard Yanow, Boston, and Louis Cohen of Dorchester. The latter two were driving parallel along Commonwealth ave. between 45 and 50 miles per hour when stopped by Patrolman Charlton. Joseph Mandile of 575 Boylston st., Newton Centre, was fined $3 for not stopping before entering a throughway.

Portable School Not To Be Used

The plan to use a portable school building as a temporary library on the lot at the corner of Walnut st. and Highland ave., Newtonville has been abandoned. A few months ago the Board of Aldermen appropriated $3,200, part of which was to defray the cost of moving the portable building from the Stearns School lot to Newtonville, and making it suitable for use as a branch library. Subsequently, among other objections, a legal technicality was raised. The quarters of the Newtonville branch library were moved last week from the Masonic Building to Dennison Hall in the Orr Building at Washington and Walnut sts. Mayor Childs has recommended to the Aldermen that the $3200 appropriation for the moving of the portable school and its alterations be rescinded, and that $2400 of this amount be appropriated for improvements at the Newton Highlands branch library in the Hyde School.

Woman Ordered to Quit Neighborhood

In the Newton court on Wednesday Judge Allen ordered Mrs. Helen Moreau, 29, of 11 Faxon st., Nonantum, to move away from that neighborhood or else serve two months in Middlesex County prison. Mrs. Moreau was found guilty of assault and battery on Mrs. Lawrence Panaggio, also of 11 Faxon st. The complainant testified that on June 22 Mrs. Moreau beat her until she fainted. The row was caused by an argument over the children of the two women. Mrs. Moreau testified that her year-old baby had been bitten and kicked by Mrs. Panaggio's small son, and that on the day of the assault Mrs. Panaggio had hit Mrs. Moreau's son, Francis, who is 12 years old. Mrs. Moreau appealed from Judge Allen's decision, but changed her mind as she was about to be taken to a cell.

Aged Auburndale Couple Suffocated

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Glazier of 227 Melrose st., Auburndale, were suffocated Monday night in their home by carbon monoxide fumes from a gas hot-water heater. The heater had absorbed the oxygen in the room where the aged couple were sitting while listening to a radio. Mr. Glazier, a retired Boston & Albany conductor, was 86 years old. His wife, who had been blind for several years, was 85.

Miss Anna Lowe of 231 Melrose st., who had noticed that the Glaziers' radio had been going all night, looked in the parlor window of the Glaziers' home on Tuesday morning and saw the old couple seated in chairs, apparently lifeless. As the doors of the house were locked, Miss Lowe phoned to Mrs. Clarence Glazier of 367 Walnut st., West Newton, a daughter-in-law, and the latter telephoned her son, Marshall Glazier of Worcester st., Wellesley. Marshall Glazier hastened to his grandparents' home, forced open the kitchen door and found the hot-water heater going. All the windows on the first floor were closed, but a window in a room on the second floor was open. Dr. Egon Kattwinkel was summoned and he pronounced the aged couple dead. Medical Examiner Gallagher reported that the hot-water heater had no vent and had used up the oxygen in the house.

Mr. Glazier was born in Brookline. Mrs. Glazier, whose maiden name was Helen M. Bruce, was a native of Saxtonville. They had been married 63 years. They are survived by a son, Dr. Clarence M. Glazier of West Newton; a grandson, Marshall A. Glazier of Wellesley, and a great-grandson, Dean Glazier. Their funeral service was held yesterday afternoon at Centenary M. E. Church, Auburndale. Rev. Mason W. Sharp officiated. Interment was at Saxonville.

Former Newton Man Robbed of $700

It was revealed in the Newton court on Monday that Benjamin Ward, Jr., formerly of West st., Nonantum, and now of New York City, was robbed of $700 bonus money last week in Boston. This information came out during the trial of Joseph Bennett, formerly of Nonantum and also more recently of New York. Ward met Bennett in New York after he had cashed his bonus bonds. Ward purchased two tickets for Boston and the pair started to visit relatives who reside in this city and Watertown. The two took a taxi when they reached Boston and Bennett was evicted from the taxi for allegedly using strong language. Ward was later arrested in Brighton for drunkenness and he later discovered that his new wealth had disappeared. Bennett was arrested in Newton last week by Inspector Feeley on a charge of vagrancy. In the Newton court on Monday no evidence was presented that Bennett was responsible for the loss of Ward's $700. The vagrancy charge against him was placed on file.

Newton Boy Scouts Going To Camp

Camp lockers have been packed and bed rolls strapped by a large number of Newton Scouts who will report at Camp Quinapoxet on Monday, July 6th. The camp is located at West Rindge, New Hampshire, in the White Mountains and is considered one of the scenic spots of the state. The Cambridge Council, Boy Scouts of America, has owned and operated the camp for some years and this year the Scouts from Norumbega are privileged to share it with Cambridge. Camping enthusiasm is high as is evidenced by the large enrollment from Newton and Wellesley in Camp Quinapoxet.

The Quinapoxet camp staff is divided between Norumbega and Cambridge councils and from our own council go the following leaders: Scoutmaster, William R. Spier, who has been assistant Scout Executive in Norumbega for five years and who is well known and popular with every Scout in the council; Health and Safety Director, Harry S. Colony, Eagle Scout of Norumbega and graduate of Brown University; Handicraft Director, Joseph Ferlazzo, assistant scoutmaster in Troop 4A of Newton Highlands, Eagle Scout and student in the School of Practical Arts in Boston; Pioneer Camp Director, Philip Trowbridge of Newton Highlands, Eagle Scout and graduate of the University of New Hampshire; Assistant Pioneer Camp Director, William Allison, Eagle Scout and senior patrol leader of Troop 2 of Wellesley Hills; Assistant to Scoutcraft Director, Ernest Gould, Life Scout in Troop 10 of Waban; Assistant to Handicraft Director, Elmer Ross, Life Scout in Troop 4A of Newton Highlands; Assistant to Health and Safety Director, Bradford Thompson, First Class Scout in Troop 4A of Newton Highlands and captain elect with his twin brother Allison of the Newton High School football team for the coming season.

These staff leaders were carefully picked by the combined camp committees of the Cambridge and Norumbega Councils and their presence at Camp Quinapoxet will go far toward making the camp interesting, enjoyable and healthful for the Scouts under their charge.

Camp enrollments for Quinapoxet from Norumbega Council (Newton and Wellesley) as of the opening date of camp are as follows. It is expected that this number will increase considerably during the next two weeks.

leading Congregationalist societies of the country, and he is considered one of the most able and distinguished preachers of this generation. He is at present a member of the board of trustees of Williams College, of Carlton College, of Andover Theological Seminary, and a member of the advisory committee of Chicago Theological Seminary. While in Minneapolis Dr. Dewey was president of the church federation, member of a state committee on interdenominational fellowship, member of the committee on reorganization of the missionary enterprises of the Congregational denomination, and he has been active in many other church and civic enterprises.

A fine musical program will be presented under the direction of William Lester Bates, organist and choirmaster of the Second Church, by a double quartette at each of the July services. While serving as guest preacher, Dr. Dewey will be available for a limited number of emergency calls in these six parishes.

One Day Library Drive $16,594

With $16,594 pledged in a one day campaign, the Newtonville Library Campaign Committee feels that they are well on their way toward the $40,000 goal according to Albert M. Lyon, General Chairman of the Committee. Newtonville has never before raised so large a sum in one day, it is pointed out.

"Despite the fact that a very large number, variously estimated from 30 to 40% of the people are away," said Mr. Lyon, "we made a very great forward step toward our goal. We are convinced that Newtonville citizens want this library and will give when they are solicited. I want to thank every solicitor and committee members for the splendid work done."

Nearly three hundred solicitors worked through the day and evening on Tuesday, June 30. The results of the canvassers are now being tabulated and analyzed at Campaign Headquarters in the Orr Building. As soon as this work is completed the committee will announce further plans.

Among those in active charge of solicitation were: Mr. Charles P. Slocum, Mr. Eugene Howell, Mr. F. C. Alexander, Mr. Rodney C. Eaton, Mr. Clinton W. Kyle, Mr. Carl F. Schipper, Mrs. Edwin P. Crawe, Mrs. Anton A. Wild, Mrs. Samuel Thurber, Mrs. Edward P. Hendrick, Mrs. Clarence A. Wentworth, Mrs. C. J. Trowbridge, and Mr. Charles R. Lynde.

Waltham Dump Nuisance Curbed

Mayor McDonald of Waltham has ordered that no more rubbish be burned on that part of the Wood ave. dump which is located within the limits of Newton. The dump which is owned by the City of Waltham is located on a filled-in swamp at the Newton-Waltham line. Residents of West Newton and Auburndale have been complaining because of smoke from the dump and Newton firemen have had to go to the dump several times to extinguish smoldering fires.

Boy Killed When Auto Hits Bicycle

One boy was killed and another critically injured when a bicycle which three boys were riding was hit Monday afternoon on California st., Nonantum, by an automobile driven by Lorenz F. Muther of 180 Elgin st., Newton Center. The boy killed was Clifford Carpentier, 12, of Graniteville. He was riding on the handlebar of a bicycle operated by his cousin Clifford DeWolfe, 12, of 246 California st., Nonantum. Young Carpentier received a fractured skull and died at the Newton Hospital at 8.26 Monday night, six hours after the accident. Dominic Pacitti, 14, of 42 Rustic st., Nonantum, who was riding on the frame of the bicycle, was critically injured. He also received a fractured skull and was taken to the Newton Hospital. Young DeWolfe escaped serious injury by jumping from the bicycle an instant before the crash. He stated he was hit by the side of the automobile and was taken to the Newton Hospital for examination. The bicycle was owned by young Pacitti. The Carpentier boy was visiting his aunt, Mrs. Harold DeWolfe.

Muther reported that he was driving along California st. at a reasonable rate of speed when the bicycle with the three boys on it suddenly crossed the road from Victory Field. He said he applied the brakes on his car as soon as he saw the bicycle, but was unable to avoid the collision.

Arrested On Serious Charge

Thomas A. Bowers, 45, of 203 Park Drive, Boston, a mechanical engineer, was arraigned in the Newton court yesterday on a charge of assault and battery on two little girls. Sergeant Marley and Patrolman Irwin of the Metropolitan police were the complainants. It is alleged that Bowers, while canoeing on the Charles at Auburndale, observed three girls, aged 13, 9 and 8, on the shore, gave them a ride in the canoe and made a date to meet the oldest of the children. He was released on $400 bail for a hearing on July 9.

THE STATE TAX SITUATION

With the legislative session now a matter of history and the fixing of a state tax of ten millions of dollars it is of moment to consider the claims already being made by Governor Curley of his "economical" administration. The Chief Executive of the Commonwealth intimates that the state tax is in reality but eight millions of dollars, the lowest but once in the past twenty-two years. The arithmetic used to prove this lies in the distribution to the cities and towns of two millions of dollars received from liquor taxes. Deducting this amount from the state tax assessment leaves but eight million to be paid into the state treasury by the various communities. The Governor, however, does not tell the public how he was able to spend nearly ten million dollars more than last year and still retain the state tax at the 1935 level of ten millions of dollars. This was accomplished by the diversion of various amounts from several funds. First $2,800,000 owed to the cities and towns toward reimbursement for old age assistance expenditures was transferred to the general fund after long and bitter battle in the legislature. Another $800,000 was transferred from a reserve fund which the state has heretofore been holding to meet claims upon funds and property left by persons with unknown heirs. Nearly four millions of dollars more were transferred from the gas tax receipts despite the plank in the State Democratic platform for 1936 loudly proclaiming that this money should be used for road purposes only. Estimated receipts were boosted in the past two weeks, despite any real justification for such action, to account for another one and one-half millions of dollars. Thus with these calculations the state tax is ten millions of dollars whereas without the transfers and on the basis of expenditures the right figure should be about $17,000,000, the highest in the history of the state.

MORE REPUBLICAN HARMONY

Former Mayor Sinclair Weeks of Newton has been chosen by the Republican State Committee as its chairman. The selection was made only after the seven candidates for state-wide offices had endorsed at the pre-primary convention two weeks ago had indicated their approval. Thus Mr. Weeks will play a most active part in promoting party harmony and party interests. With several years' service as Mayor and with many contacts throughout the state, Mr. Weeks also has youth, forcefulness, and the personality to accomplish much in his new position. There were many supporters of the former Mayor who desired to have him become a candidate for Congress from the ninth district. Having failed to receive the endorsement for the United States Senatorship his entrance into the Congressional race might well have been regarded unfavorably and that he would have been criticized as an "office seeker." As chairman of the State Committee there is everything to win and little to lose. Ordinarily the position is regarded as the grave of future political aspirations. The situation this year, however, is vastly different. With the Republican party holding but one major office in this state, that of Secretary of State, the recapture of other offices will reflect much credit upon the State Committee and its chairman. In the event of a Republican sweep in Massachusetts, which is not far beyond the realm of probability and which many claim is clearly evident, Mr. Weeks will be in a position to demand personal recognition as a major candidate a few years hence. Meanwhile the Republican party in Massachusetts moves forward in complete harmony.

The City of Newton has taken advantage of the opportunity to secure, without cost, a number of paintings and graphic art sketches produced by Massachusetts artists under the Federal Art Project.

Among the paintings acquired by Newton is "Edge of Provincetown" by Blanche Lazell, a particularly decorative and colorful print; a water color entitled "Landscape" by Arthur Thompson, especially commendable because of its richness in color and detail; a sketch by Burnham Hicken, "Leland's Sheds", which shows very able pencil technique, and numerous others. All show a high level of excellent work and have created considerable comment in recent exhibitions.

These paintings are just a few of the many available; cities and towns throughout the state can hardly afford to miss this excellent opportunity to enrich and beautify the atmosphere of their public institutions.

The Federal Art Project, a governmental undertaking, is under the supervision of Richard C. Morrison, Regional Director and Frank W. Sterner, State Director.

Newton was well represented in the delegation that left the North Station on Wednesday morning for the summer at Camp Anawan on Lake Winnepesaukee, Meredith, New Hampshire. The party was in charge of Mrs. A. W. Dickinson of Newtonville. She was assisted by Miss Janice M. Miner of Wellesley Hills. The following Newton girls are spending the summer at Anawan: Janice Bail, Louise Coleman, Virginia Coleman, Caroline Coleman, Merrick Farrar, Judith Favorite, Nancy Favorite, Gretchen Fuller, Maxine Gaddis, Barbara Haug, Doris Hayward, Jayne Jewett, Doris Mergendahl, Winifred Mergendahl, Gail Peterson, Jackie Stock, Barbara Swan, Dorotea Voliano, Catherine Warren, Virginia Warren, Virginia Whitcomb.

The party was greeted upon their arrival at Camp by the following Newton counselors: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swan, Miss Cynthia Steitz, Miss Betty Marvin, Miss Dorothy Davis, and Miss Carol Bettinger.

Charles S. Frary, Jr. of Newton Highlands and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Simons, of Newtonville, will be among the fifty members of the Massachusetts Audubon Society who under the leadership of Secretary Winthrop Packard, leave tomorrow for a two weeks' duck hunt in Maine. They go with bird glasses and notebooks, not guns. With headquarters at Captain Blake's Camp at Cape Rosier, groups will use specially adapted motor boats to search upper Penobscot Bay and its picturesque islands for elder ducks. These valuable Canadian birds hitherto rare in summer in New England have suddenly begun to nest in Penobscot Bay in large and increasing numbers and one study objective of the Society's Summer Camp at Cape Rosier will be to record the numbers and map the area being occupied by these birds. Elders produce the famous elder down of commerce and the down-collecting industry now beginning to flourish in Eastern Canada may thus come to Maine.

Among the pioneer graduates of Stoneleigh College for young women at Rye Beach, New Hampshire, was Miss Jane Kirby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Kirby of 60 Dolphin rd., Newton Centre. Miss Kirby received her diploma with honors at the first Stoneleigh College commencement held at Saint Andrews-by-the-Sea at Rye Beach on Monday morning.

Fig. June 29, with Governor H. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, as the principal speaker.

Miss Kirby registered at Stoneleigh with the first entering class in September 1934 and throughout her two years has been especially active in undergraduate activities.

One of the outstanding members of the camera club, organized at Stoneleigh a year ago, Miss Kirby did much of the photography for the 1936 year book. Her portraits and camera studies have been exhibited at the University Club in Boston as well as at the college.

Three young West Newton residents and students at the Newton High School have solved the difficulty of unemployment by entering into a business venture. They are the three Hurley brothers, John, Edward and Robert, of 100 Chestnut st., West Newton. On June 23rd they took over the Castle Rock Springs Co., of Saugus and are manufacturing a very high grade of ginger ale made from pure spring water. The business has been operating for eleven years and they are enthused over the future ahead of them. In these times when it is so difficult to obtain work the many friends of these three brothers wish them all kinds of success.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

Your issue of June 26th gives front page prominence to the termination of Richard Ellis as Director of Public Works, and prints a long statement from him as to the many things he has done for the city and to its taxpayers, for which he has been paid $500.00 a month.

I wish to express my appreciation of our new Mayor's efforts to reduce extravagance of this kind, and am quite sure we can struggle along with the present personnel of our Engineering and other Departments, which Mr. Ellis has so wonderfully directed.

I also hope that future Engineering contracts will be placed with due regard for other than personal reasons.

Yours truly,

W. G. STARKWEATHER.

Kiwanis Club

The weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club, held Tuesday, June 30, 1936, in charge of President J. Ernest Gibson, was devoted to a report of delegates to the International Convention, Washington, D. C.

The club was particularly enthusiastic in doing honor to its member, James P. Gallagher, elected an International Trustee at the convention. A signal honor has come to the Newton Club and this is realized with 1791 delegates present from all parts of the United States and Canada, with six of this number to be elected trustees, one of the six should be a member of the home club. Mr. Gallagher, familiarly known as "Jim", is a charter member of the Newton Club and one of its first presidents. He subsequently served as Lieutenant Governor of the Fifth Division, and during the year 1935 he held office of Governor of the New England District. Bringing to New England and Newton representation on the International Board of Trustees of such a far-flung organization speaks well for the character of the man and the judgment of his electors.

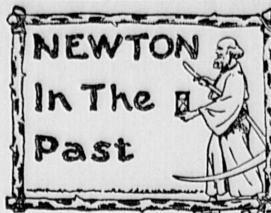

Along with paying honor to Trustee "Jim", the club listened with interest to reports of the convention by Dr. F. H. Paul and President J. Ernest Gibson. Dr. Paul has been a long and consistent advocate of Trustee "Jim's" fitness for Kiwanis honors, and his many friends have rejoiced with him and rejoice again as the upper rungs are reached.

60 YEARS AGO

Newton Republican, July 3, 1874

The new city ordinances which were adopted by the City Council some time since have already undergone considerable changes, and the enforcement of them shows the impracticability of others. They will probably be soon revised and placed before the public in some form for their information.

The latest July 4th novelty is a pistol for exploding parlor matches; it is harmless but noisy. Price 25 cents. Call and see it at the Newton Bazaar, corner of Washington and Centre sts. (Adv.)

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held on Monday afternoon. The city clerk was authorized to issue permits for fireworks at his discretion. The Aldermen in each ward was authorized to issue permits for use of fireworks on July 4th. The police petitioned for two weeks' vacation; their places to be filled by special officers. The Licenses Committee voted to grant a permit to H. O. Rider to collect bird's eggs.

The Mayor has issued orders to the police to put a stop to boys drawing swill carts along the sidewalks. One boy was arrested for doing this in Newton on Monday. Other boys should take warning.

General Tom Thumb and his troupe will exhibit at Nonantum Hall on Friday evening, June 10.

The Methodist Sunday schools of Newton had a most delightful picnic at the camp grounds in Framingham on last Tuesday. Everybody seemed full of the good things of heaven and earth. The singing under the direction of Dr. Tourgee was excellent. The several pastors, superintendents and others made happy speeches.

General Underwood in his remarks at the graduation exercises of the Biscot School last week said he hoped that some day to see an exhibition of the musical abilities of the schools of Newton under the direction of W. S. Tilden, the music teacher.

A case came before Judge Slocum this week which aroused more than usual interest. Monday night about 10 o'clock two teams were driven into Newton at a furious rate, the drivers hollering so loudly as to attract much attention and disturb many families nearby. Policemen Annetts and Chick were on Centre st. and sought the cause of the disturbance. The parties were found to be Samuel P. Whitman and Theodore Scates. Warrants were issued for their appearance in court. The case was closely fought but they were found guilty and fined $5 each. They appealed. The defence contended that they had done no more than others who had not been arrested.

Powers' Paragraphs

The fatal accident on California st., Nonantum, last Monday when a boy was killed, again calls attention to the fact that the continuation of the Metropolitan Parkway between Watertown and Newtonville should not be along California st. where many automobile accidents have occurred. The accident also calls attention to the dangerous practice of more than one boy riding on a bicycle. It is hazardous enough for one person to be on a bicycle in these days of swiftly moving automobiles. There should be a law to forbid boys (or girls) riding on the handlebar or frame of a bicycle operated by another person.

A number of persons have spoken to us about being approached personally, or solicited over the telephone, to purchase tickets for balls or other activities conducted to raise funds for such objects as defraying expenses to conventions or purchasing uniforms. Such asking of money from the public has been worked into a lucrative business by individuals who get a large cut from what they obtain from the easy marks. During such a period as this country has been through for the past seven or eight years, with millions of persons in want and on public relief, it seems that individuals or organizations seeking contributions for non-essentials or luxuries have little pride, or appreciation of the fitness of things.

The problem of providing parking facilities for the many cars owned by employees of the Raytheon Company at Nonantum is still unsolved. This company is one of the largest manufacturers of tubes for radio sets in the United States. For several years past it has been a valuable asset to Newton and vicinity by giving employment to hundreds of young women and girls. It is entitled to reasonable cooperation from the city. Parking of automobiles was stopped some time ago on both sides of Chapel st. Recently parking was stopped on California st., between Chapel and Bridge sts. One result has been that Dally st. is being used as a parking space by employees of the Raytheon Company. It is a narrow st., entirely residential and many small children reside on it. Dally st. people are properly protesting against this condition. Parking should be permitted on one side of Chapel st. and to a reasonable degree on California st., which is the widest highway in the vicinity. We have been informed that the owner of a large, vacant lot of land on Chapel st., opposite the factory, offered to rent parking space on this lot to the employees at a few cents a week, but that his offer was not accepted. The refusal to accept this opportunity to obtain parking facilities at practically no cost makes Nonantum residents less sympathetic for the owners of the parked cars which are cluttering Dally and other streets.

Once again the Massachusetts Legislature has voted to divert millions of dollars of the money raised by the tax on gasoline from the highway fund for which this tax was created, to the general fund. The vast army of automobile owners in Massachusetts certainly are docile. For several years past they have permitted the imposition of a heavy tax, ostensibly for construction and maintenance of highways, but which has been used in large part for other public expenses; much of these exis without foundation, as the gentlemen are on the best of terms, and the Mayor does not interfere with the Highway Committee.

On Tuesday the class of 1886 at Newton High School held its graduation exercises commencing at 10 a. m. Henry H. Haskell was the first speaker on the program. He delivered a Latin oration—"Salvete." Even those whose Latin had become rusty were able to understand much of the thoughts and sentiments expressed from the exceptionally good intonation of the speaker. Miss Nellie Morrison read an essay on "Shakespeare's Conception of Music," an attractive subject handled in an interesting manner. Stephen W. Moore delivered an oration on the "Relative Progress of Civilization and Invention" and acquitted himself with credit. Miss Annie Plummer rendered an impromptu by Maas upon the piano in an intelligent and graceful manner.

William Z. Ripley gave a declamation from Hamlet and showed that he had been carefully trained and was able to grasp the meaning of the words he recited. Henry Whitmore delivered an original and striking oration entitled "An Imaginary Speech in the Senate of the United States." The speaker uttered his sentiments as though he believed in them.

Newton Graphic, July 7, 1911

A public convenience station in Nonantum Square is still a necessity notwithstanding the inexcusable delay of the Newton Aldermen to realize this important fact. The personal whims of a few persons who might find themselves obliged to pass such a structure ought not to block its immediate consideration and erection.

While the fire department was answering an alarm at Upper Falls last Monday morning, one of the horses attached to the hose wagon of Engine 3, driven by Edward Henricks, dropped dead on Centre st., overcome by the terrific heat.

In common with other places, Newton has suffered greatly from the intense heat which began last Sunday and has continued through the week.

penses being the result of wasteful, political chiselling. Most owners of automobiles do not take the trouble to figure out what the gasoline tax costs them. A person owning a car which travels 15,000 miles per year and averages 12 miles to the gallon, pays $50 in gasoline taxes. An owner of a smaller car which averages 15 miles to the gallon, pays $40. Persons operating cars 20,000 miles per year pay $67 and $53 on the same basis. Owners of trucks are under far greater expense. Add to this form of taxation the stiff rates one must pay for compulsory liability insurance, plus property damage insurance, the excise tax on motor vehicles, license and registration fees, and the contributions automobile owners are forced to pay become some burden. It's about time the worms turned.

Now that both major political parties have held their conventions and promulgated platforms, we can expect to read and hear during the next several months odes about predatory wealth, monopolies, socialism, communism, the gold standard, inflation and the other things which are matters of controversy. It has been our personal belief through the years that changes should be made in our political and economic structures to synchronize with the changes which have occurred in our productive system and which caused new situations in modern civilization. The transition from hand labor to the machine age, the revolution in transportation, created new problems for which adequate provisions were not made. The world has been paying the penalty in the middle which has been experienced for the past seven years.

Changes from the old order of things have been made and more must be made. Millions of persons are without gainful employment and will continue to be. They must receive aid. But, the methods of applying public relief which have been in operation the past few years cannot continue much longer or this country will go into financial and moral bankruptcy. Much of the billions which have been spent through our Federal relief agencies have been wasted. We have seen men and women, willing to work, and with families dependent upon them, begging to receive the bare necessities of life. We have seen them trying to struggle along with limited food doles distributed by cities after the recipients had to submit to humiliating red-tape. We have seen deserving men attempting vainly to support their families on $12 weekly allotments from the ERA and the WPA. And we have seen youths and young women without anyone depending on them getting double this amount and more from these same agencies. We have seen men and women with political influence receiving larger salaries from Federal relief agencies than they ever obtained in private employment. This condition of things is fine for those who have been and are faring well at public expense. It is far from satisfactory to those on relief who are getting only the crusts. It is also far from satisfactory to those who are not on relief, or who do not draw good wages or salaries by holding government sinecures. Such people wonder how much longer they can carry the burden.

No one who has lived through the past few days will doubt that all records for heat were broken, and it seems as there never was such a thing as cold weather.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

NEWTON TWI LEAGUE

Our Lady's Alumni and Independents continue to be deadlocked for the lead each having won two games in the last week.

Auburndale furnished both leaders stiff opposition holding Our Lady's to a 5-5 tie and losing to Independents by a single run.

The Giants trounced Y. M. C. A. by a score of 19-1 to remain a single game back of the leaders.

Cabot met with its first reverse in the Junior Circuit losing to the Centre A. C. by forfeit because of inability to put nine uniformed players on the field at 6:30 o'clock.

Garden City advanced to a tie with Centre for second place by winning its last three games.

Players lists for July were adopted at a meeting held at the Newton Centre Recreation Building, Tuesday, June 30th.

An application for admission to the Junior Circuit was received from a group of Waban residents and their coach, Charles Doherty. This group are prepared to enter the League as a replacement for any team wishing to withdraw.

The coming week should be a big one for the leaders with Giants playing Independents on Wednesday, Our Lady's playing Cabot, Thursday, and Independents playing Our Lady's on Friday. "Porky" Murphy of Our Lady's has turned over his managerial responsibilities to Bill Thomas and is now just another pitcher.

"Connecticut Yankee" At Coolidge Corner Theatre

When America's most beloved comedian contributes his greatest performance to the filmization of a masterpiece of humor, the result is bound to be a picture that lingers long in your memory, one that you will want to see time and again. In other words, Will Rogers' "A Connecticut Yankee."

Reissued in response to public demand, the picture opens a week's run at the Coolidge Corner Theatre, Brookline, all during the holiday week of Friday, July 3rd, to bring back Rogers in the picturization of Mark Twain's great comedy, as the Yankee who put the finishing touches on King Arthur's court.

It is all a glorious medley of fact and fancy, tailored to Roger's lovable brand of humor. The story, which ties in neatly with present times, carries him back to somewhere in the sixteenth century, and the fun Rogers has in bamboozling and mystifying the knights of those days you will share in watching him. Myrna Loy and Maureen O'Sullivan play the female leads, with William Farnum and Frank Albertson heading the supporting cast of five thousand.

The co-feature is "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" in which the great character actor Conrad Veidt is starred. "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" was first produced as a stage play in London in 1908, and played 215 consecutive performances in New York, as well as touring America for two years. The story is of a group of people—loving, hating, struggling for existence under one roof, that of a London boarding house. Each individual typifies, in one form or another, the frailty of human nature. In short, the house of the story is the world in which we live. Its characters are ourselves. And into this troubled world comes a stranger who carries a while and then passes on to another destination, leaving the

Newton Highlights

At a recent meeting of the Tufts College Athletic Association Anthony W. Sabino, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sabino of 525 Lowell ave. in Newtonville, was awarded his numerals in freshman baseball.

Sabino graduated from the Huntingdon School in 1934 and will be a sophomore in the Tufts Liberal Arts School next fall. During the Harvard months he was a regular forward on the Frosh Basketball team. With spring he went out to the outfield and made the freshman team as regular leftfielder. He is therefore a two numerals man in his freshman year.

Stanley Johnson will compete in the National A. A. U. track and field championships tomorrow at Princeton, N. J. The lithe Tech track captain was fourth best in the hop-step-and-jump in the semi-final Olympic trials last fall. During the Harvard months he was a regular forward on the Frosh Basketball team. With spring he went out to the outfield and made the freshman team as regular leftfielder. He is therefore a two numerals man in his freshman year.

Also competing at Princeton is Milt Greene, Harvard track captain of the past season, who will probably forego the high hurdles for the broad jump. He has a mark of 24 ft. 11 in. in competition this spring, and if his legs are in shape again, he has a good chance of placing well. Both Greene and Johnson are strong possibilities for the Olympic final trials at Randall's Island Stadium, N. Y., July 11-12.

Elena Ciccone of Newton Centre won the girls' state singles tennis crown for the third consecutive year last Sunday, winning her final match from Polly Morrill of Dedham, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2, at the Longwood Cricket Club courts. Robert Decker of Florida and Waban, the second ranking boy junior in New England last year, won the junior title by beating Bill Harty of Allerton, 6-2, 9-7, 6-2. In another final played earlier in the week, Newton lost a championship as Albert P. Everts, Jr. defending his title in the younger boys division, was defeated in straight sets by Arthur Prochaska of Hartford, Conn. Elena Ciccone also won two doubles titles in her division, teaming with Baba Madden of Jamaica Plain in the girls and with John Palfrey of Brookline in the mixed doubles, while Sonny Everts retired the younger mixed doubles trophy with Kay Hubbell of Dedham.

Bob Decker of Waban, the new state junior boys tennis champion, shuttled back and forth between two tournaments last week, competing in three classes of state championship play at Longwood, then rushing out to Worcester to play in the Central Massachusetts open singles. After he had won his state junior title, for boys eighteen and under, he was defeated in the final of the Worcester tournament 6-1, 6-1, 6-0 by Samuel Hayes, Jr., of South Hadley, New England Public Parks champion.

Clinton Ferguson and Orville Forte of Waban are rowing with the strong Tabor Academy crew in the classic Henley Regatta in England. To date the Tabor eight, with Ferguson stroke and Forte captain and No. 4, has come through two heats with colors flying. Ferguson is less well known as an oarsman than as a speedboat driver, having driven his flying outboards to the national school championship and a series of remarkable records last summer.

boarders with a picture of their better selves that only the Stranger had ever seen. The cast in support of Conrad Veidt includes Rene Ray, Frank Cellier, Anna Lee and John Trumbull.

There will also be the latest Coolidge Corner Theatre Newreel, showing the latest news of the day both foreign and domestic.

The theatre is air-conditioned and comfortably cooled.

Fire Burns Barn Of N'ville Man

A fire that burned eight houses and barns at Greenfield, New Hampshire, on Tuesday afternoon started in the barn at the summer home of Dr. LeRoy Miner of Walnut st., Newtonville. The fire was caused by spontaneous combustion in hay in the barn loft. Before it was checked it burned four dwellings and several barns and caused damage estimated at $50,000. Aldin was summoned from Peterboro, Wilton, Milford and other towns in the Monadnock region and from Nashua and Manchester many miles distant. Passing motorists were enlisted to form bucket brigades which carried water from brooks and wells to save buildings where roofs had caught ablaze.

Arrest Auburndale Man In Waltham

Harvey Jensen of 481 Lexington st., Auburndale, was arrested in Waltham at 1 a. m. Thursday for drunkenness. A complaint for driving while under the influence of liquor was also made against him. It is alleged that a car driven by Jensen hit a car driven by Patrolman Hill of the Waltham police on Elm st., Waltham.

"Princess Comes Across" At Paramount Theatre

A story of mystery and romance on the Atlantic is unfolded by "The Princess Comes Across," which opens at the Newton Paramount for a four day run beginning Sunday, with Carole Lombard and Fred MacMurray in the stellar roles.

Miss Lombard appears as a charming American girl posing as a Swedish princess, en route to New York to land a film contract. Aboard the luxury liner "Mammoth," settling for the entire plot, she meets and falls in love with MacMurray, concertina-playing maestro of a "swing" band. Before the "Mammoth" has docked at New York, the romance of the supposed princess and the music "king" has wound through a plot involving a pair of murders, blackmail, sleuthing of five international detectives and a nick-of-time solution by MacMurray. An unusually varied supporting cast adds much to both comedy and mystery of the offering. Heading the list are the inimitable Alison Skipworth, lady-in-waiting to the Princess; William Frawley, manager for MacMurray's band; Douglas Dumbrille, Porter Hall and George Barbier. The co-feature on this program will be Herbert Marshall and Gertrude Michael united again in their latest dramatization, "Forgotten Faces."

Jack Oakie and Sally Eilers play the leading roles in "Florida Special," a story of love, fun and intrigue aboard a speeding express train, which plays Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Paramount Theatre. The story is crammed with excitement and comedy from the very moment the train leaves New York until it reaches Florida and provides plenty of entertainment every mile of the way and winding up to smash climax. The companion feature on this program will be the first dancing musical filmed entirely in the new process technicolor, "Dancing Pirates" which features in its cast Charles Collins, the new dancing sensation of the screen; the ever popular Frank Morgan; Steffi Duna, the girl of "La Cucaracha"; and a host of other supporting players.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"God" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 5.

The Golden Text is: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me" (Exodus 20:3).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he laid his hands on her; and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God" (Luke 13:11-13).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Truth, Life, and Love are a law of annihilation to everything unlike themselves, because they declare nothing except God, Sickness, sin, and death are not the fruits of life. They are inharmonies which Truth destroys" (p. 243).

Not Guilty of Stealing Metal

Richard Powers, 23, of Oakland ave., Everett, was found not guilty in the Newton court on Tuesday of stealing steel girders valued at $125 from the junk yard of Benjamin Feinberg at Dedham. The steel was from old railroad cars and Feinberg trailed a truck driven by Powers to Newton after he had seen a crew of men load it on the night of June 22. Powers testified that he was merely obeying orders of his employer, a Watertown truckman, when he drove the load of steel from the yard and supposed everything was all right.

Easy Pleasant Way To LOSE FAT

How would you like to lose 15 pounds of fat in a month and at the same time increase your energy and improve your health?
How would you like to lose your double chin and your too prominent hips and abdomen and at the same time make your skin so clean and clear that it will compel admiration?
Get on the scale to-day and see how much you weigh—then get a bottle of Kruschen Salts that costs next to nothing and which will last you 4 weeks. Take one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water in the morning—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—and when you have finished the contents of this first bottle weigh yourself again.
After that you'll want to walk around and say to your friends, "One bottle of Kruschen Salts is worth one hundred dollars of any fat person's money."
But refuse imitations—safeguard your health—you lose fat SAFELY the Kruschen way.
NOTE—Many people find that the only diet change necessary while taking Kruschen regularly is TO EAT LESS.

Boston Musical Guild Broadcasts

The Musical Guild of Boston is sponsoring a series of unusually fine concerts through the medium of radio station WHDH, beginning Monday evening, July 6th, at quarter before eight. The Musical Guild, an organization made up of professional and amateur musicians and laymen devoted to the cause of fine music, was started in Boston in 1928 by Mrs. Arthur Brattle Wells, who had previously founded similar clubs in Chicago and New York. The Boston branch now has a membership of over 200, among them such artists as Heinrich Gebhard, Charles Repper, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lamson, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Havens, Mme. Louis Mercier, Jean Whittingham Apsey, John Sturgis Codman, Mrs. Elizabeth Grant, and on the list of honorary members are Arthur Foote, Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, Mrs. Edward MacDowell and Mrs. Elizabeth Coolidge.

The aim and purpose of the Musical Guild is to "give a first members opportunity to be heard under sympathetic conditions, to secure for them intelligent criticism and appropriate publicity." Each year a scholarship is awarded, two programs are offered each month by junior and by senior members, debut concerts are sponsored, round-table discussions held bi-monthly, and occasional social affairs afford members opportunity to become acquainted.

Mrs. Florence Wood Russell is in charge of the weekly radio concerts, which will be opened with distinction by two eminent musicians, Mme. Gladys Avery Lebert, lyric soprano, and Mr. Heinrich Gebhard, composer and pianist. On the list of artists to be heard during the summer season are: Miss Jean Whittingham, Allan Scott Hoveness, Ruth Spencer, Helen Coates, Michael Powers, Nettie Rubin, pianists; Ruth Clemons, violinist; Ethel Watson, Gertrude Frazer, Rosemary McLaughlin, Rita Keating, Sylvia Prescott Russell, William McAlpine, vocalists, and several ensembles, both instrumental and vocal. A number of other prominent musicians may also be heard, if vacation plans permit. These include Oliver Daniel, Paul Bregor, Raymond Havens, Francoise Meriminska, Daniel Kahn, pianists; Elaine Elkertson, Velma Darling, Helen Geary, Fred Knutson, Amelia Tatoronis, Mrs. Dale Washburn, singers, and Miss Alma Lippi, cellists, Guido Antonelli and Angelo DiTullio, violinists.

Summer Institute For Social Progress at Wellesley

Dr. John W. Studebaker, United States Commissioner of Education, will represent the Administration as an evening forum speaker, Friday, July 17, at the fourth Summer Institute for Social Progress at Wellesley College. This is one of a series of evening forums which are open to the public.

Miss M. Louise Walworth, of Newton Centre, is chairman of the governing board of the Institute. Prof. Kirtley R. Mather, of 15 Channing rd., director of the Harvard University Summer School, and Lucius E. Thayer of 27 Estabrook rd., West Newton, are members of the board.

Dr. Studebaker is one of the three forum speakers who will answer the question, "What Are the Great Issues before the American Electorate?" from the point of view of the Government, labor and business. In view of the large attendance expected, Dr. Studebaker's address on "Safeguarding Democracy Through Public Discussion" will be given in Alumnae Hall instead of Billings. Two opposite viewpoints will be expressed by Frank L. Palmer, editor of the People's Press, and leader in the Typographical Workers' Union and the Radio Electrical Workers' Union, who will speak on Thursday evening, July 9, and George L. Burt, ex-president of the Associated Industries of Massachusetts, on Tuesday evening, July 14.

Burglaries Are Solved With Arrest Of Youth

Five burglaries and one attempted burglary at Newton Corner the past couple of weeks were solved early last Friday morning when Patrolman Thomas Whalen found a 13 year old boy asleep in an automobile parked outside a public garage on Hovey st. near Washington st., Newton. The boy formerly resided in Newton but his family now live in Watertown. Questioned by Patrolman Whalen and Halloran the boy admitted that he had recently broken into Rumble's Auto Service and the Gulf Gasoline Station at Park st., Newton; Socony Gas Station, 417 Washington st., Newton and Ralph's Auto Service, 216 Washington st., Newton. He also tried to enter the office of the Prudential Loan Company, 392 Centre st., Newton. The burglar, despite his age, had already served a term at the Lyman Reform School and was on parole from there. He was returned to that institution on Monday. He left his home about a week ago and had been sleeping out.

James Doherty, 74, of Webster st., Needham, fell on a sidewalk at 175 Woodward st., Newton Highlands, about 6 o'clock Monday evening. She injured her ankle and was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.

Mayor Recommends Promotion For Sergeant Cullen

Mayor Edwin O. Childs sent a communication to the Board of Aldermen on Monday night recommending that Sergeant Bart Cullen of the Newton police department be promoted to the rank of lieutenant. His recommendation met with the unanimous approval of the Aldermen. Following a long recess, the Board voted to accept the report of the Claims and Rules Committee that no action is necessary on this matter.

Sergeant Cullen was appointed to the police department on May 7, 1914. Several years after his appointment he was assigned to duty as a mechanic to care for the motor vehicles owned and used by the police department. On July 25, 1929, he was promoted to the rank of sergeant-mechanic, this (Continued on Page 8)

Scheinfain Caught In New Hampshire

Alfred Scheinfain, 37, was arrested on July 7 at Alexandria, N. H., by Sergeants Burke and King of the Newton police. He has been a fugitive from justice since last January because of his alleged relations with a 16-year-old girl who was taken into custody in an apartment on Park st., Newton, where Scheinfain had been living for a few weeks. He had been living in the remote New Hampshire town for several months under an assumed name, and had grown whiskers as a disguise. His capture was brought about by Everett Baker, a New Hampshire conservation officer, who recognized Scheinfain's wife from a picture of her printed in a Boston newspaper. Scheinfain was arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday and sent to East Cambridge jail to await trial in the Superior court. He was questioned at Newton police headquarters by Federal officers regarding alleged violations of the Mann Act and the narcotic laws.

Newtonville Man Killed By Auto On Washington St.

Injuries Fatal To Father of Six Children

James Robblee, 36, of 288 Newtonville ave., Newtonville, was fatally injured shortly before midnight on July 2nd, when he was hit while crossing Washington st. near Harvard st., Newtonville, by an automobile operated by Arnold B. Davis, 21, of 35 Pulisier st., Newtonville. Davis, a roddman employed by the Newton City Engineering Department, reported to the police that he was traveling at a speed of between 30 and 35 miles an hour and did not see Robblee until the car was only about 10 feet from the man. Robblee was hit with such force by the left side of the car that the headlight was broken and the hood of the car badly dented. Davis, assisted by Ralph Huston of Court st., Newtonville, and William Nourse, Jr., of Foster st., Brighton, placed Robblee in the car and rushed him to the Newton Hospital.

At the hospital it was found that Robblee had received a fractured skull, fractured right leg and internal injuries. The leg was so badly mangled that Dr. Lewis Pilcher had to amputate it. Dr. Pilcher asked police headquarters to get volunteers for blood transfusions and Patrolmen Con Dwyer, Lawrence O'Donnell and William Whelan went to the hospital and gave their blood in vain efforts to save Robblee who died at the hospital Saturday noon.

Robblee was born in West Newton, the son of William W. and Jennie (Hughes) Robblee. He was employed as a knitter at the Security Mills, Monroe st., Newtonville. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary (Busby) Robblee; six children, the oldest 15 and the youngest 8 years of age; his parents; three brothers, William J., Alfred J., and Harold F. Robblee, all of West Newton, and a sister, Mrs. Rose McDonald, of Cambridge. His funeral service was held at Our Lady's Church, Newton, on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

Davis was arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday morning before Judge Crafts of Waltham on charges of manslaughter and driving so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. On request of his counsel the case was continued to July 21. An examination of the car showed that the brakes were in good condition. Tire marks on the street showed that the car had traveled 94 feet after the brakes had been applied.

Second Victim of Bicycle and Auto Crash Dies

Dominic Pacitti, 13, of 42 Ristic st., Nonantum died at the Newton Hospital on Monday night of injuries received one week before when the bicycle on which he was riding was hit on California st., Nonantum by a car driven by Lorenz F. Muther of 189 Elgin st., Newton Centre.

Young Pacitti received a fractured skull and never regained consciousness. The accident occurred when the bicycle was propelled out of Victory Field playground across California st. Three boys were riding on the bicycle. Clifford DeWolfe, 12, of 246 California st., was on the saddle of the wheel; Clifford Carpenter, 12, of Graniteville, who was riding on the handlebars, received a fractured skull and died a few hours later. Young Pacitti was riding on the cross-bar of the bicycle.

The Pacitti boy had been a pupil at the Stearns School. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pacitti; two sisters and a brother. His funeral service was held at Our Lady's Church on Thursday morning and burial was in Calvary Cemetery.

Mr. Muther was arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday morning on charges of manslaughter and driving so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. By request of his counsel the case was continued until July 30.

Newton Youth Held In $10,000 Bail

John J. Keaveney, 21, of 299 Centre st., Newton, was held in $10,000 bail for the grand jury following a private hearing before Judge Cuniff in the Waltham court last Friday. Keaveney was charged with attempted criminal assault on Miss Alice Doherty, 22, of 18 Fayette st., Newton. The alleged assault occurred in a parked automobile on Trapelo rd., Waltham on the night of June 23. Miss Doherty told the police that when she resisted advances made by Keaveney she received a severe beating from him.

Lively Arguments Feature Aldermanic Hearing On Access to Buswell Land

Petitioner's Lawyer Quotes Old Statutes To Obtain Land By Eminent Domain

A hearing before the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night on the petition of Daniel F. Cetrone of 44 Clinton st. for the laying out and acceptance of a street leading from Centre st. about opposite Bennington st., Newton into back land at the rear of Franklin st., produced some acrimonious remarks by counsel on both sides and the injection of a letter by John Finelli, Arthur W. Blakemore, counsel for Cetrone, and a past president of the Newton Board of Aldermen quoted ancient statutes, one dating back to 1786.

Mr. Cetrone, who is a builder, desires to lay out a street which will afford access to land on which he desires to build a number of houses. It is proposed to call the short street Buswell Park. Mr. Blakemore explained that in 1865 George E. Alden, the then owner of the land, bought a 20 foot strip of land which led out to Centre st. for use as an entrance to the property. In 1889 the land, together with the right of way, was purchased by Charles H. Buswell of 292 Franklin st. The Buswell family had held the land for 40 years, paying taxes on $5000 assessed valuation. The land, Mr. Blakemore said, has been used by the children of the neighborhood as a playground. Last year it was purchased by Cetrone and he filed a petition in April, 1935 asking that the street be laid out and accepted. No attention was paid to this petition by the 1935 Board of Aldermen, according to Mr. Blakemore. Early this year the Planning Board was asked to recommend the acceptance of the proposed street on the contention that any private way laid out prior to 1875 could be accepted even though but 20 feet wide. In April of this year the Planning Board recommended the acceptance of the street, but specified that it should be 40 feet wide.

Mr. Blakemore told the Aldermen that he discovered a statute passed in 1786 and amended in 1913 which permits cities or towns to take by right of eminent domain land for the purpose of giving owners of back land a right of way to and from their property. He said that although the original law had specified that the city or town must assume the cost of the taking, the amendment permits the owner of the property desiring the right of way to pay the cost. He stated that Mr. Cetrone has the land on his hands, is paying taxes on it, and should be given the opportunity to develop it.

He stressed the fact that for more than a year after Cetrone had petitioned the City Government for the laying out of the street, no action had been taken on the petition. Mr. Blakemore said it has been suggested that a street be built from the property in question either to Franklin street or Hyde avenue. He said this is not practical because it would involve the tearing down of houses at prohibitive cost. He said every effort has been made to make an amicable adjustment with Thomas F. Murray of 584 Centre st., adjoining the private way from Centre st. to the Cetrone land, but that Murray (Continued on Page 8)

JOHN W. HAIGIS—A WORTHY CANDIDATE

Since the endorsement of John W. Haigis as the party candidate for Governor by the Republican pre-primary convention there has been a growing interest in the popular figure from the western part of the state. John Haigis was left an orphan in his early teens and by his own initiative and ingenuity became one of the most successful newspaper publishers of a small city in recent times. Starting as a newsboy he advanced through the various stages of a newspaper training to become the editor and publisher of a growing weekly publication. With the growth of his city he founded a daily which is regarded as one of the most successful in the state. As a young man, Mr. Haigis also became a town official, being elected town treasurer while in his early twenties. Subsequently he served in the Massachusetts Legislature and later as State Treasurer. From this latter office he retired at the end of his term upon his own volition and devoted his time to business interests. Two years ago he sought the office of Lieutenant Governor and was among those candidates who succumbed in the Democratic landslide. Although defeated he led all other Republican candidates for state-wide office, a fact which is due largely to his personal popularity. Our first contact with the Republican candidate for governor was some fifteen years ago and we have watched his career with interest and admiration. Oratorical ability has ever been regarded as one of the most essential assets of a political candidate but John Haigis more than makes up for his shortcomings in this respect by the warmth of his personality, the sincerity of his friendliness and the idealism of his purposes. It not only is a pleasure but a privilege for any high-minded person to support earnestly and to work diligently for the election of John W. Haigis as Governor of Massachusetts to the end that good government may prevail.

HARDWARE STORES LEAD THE WAY

Time was when retail merchants in the various Newtons did a considerable volume of business late Saturday afternoons and evenings. With the advent of the automobile and the increasing exodus of residents from the city upon week-end trips this source of revenue dwindled rapidly. Particularly was this situation true in the summer months. The announcement of the three hardware concerns at Newton Corner that they would close at six o'clock on Saturday evenings during July and August means the recognition of these conditions. It further means recognition of the services of the employees of these concerns whose leisure hours are few, as in most other retail stores. The Saturday evening closing will inconvenience the public but little and it will soon become an accepted fact. In the near future other retail merchants who are facing similar conditions will doubtless follow the example being set by the hardware concerns in Newton Corner.

NEWTON IN THE PAST

We received a telephone call this week from a member of an old Newton family telling us how much they enjoyed the column entitled "Newton In The Past", which has been a regular feature on this page for nearly a year. The column recalls old scenes and familiar incidents of long ago which have been forgotten in the present-day rush of events. For this reason it is particularly pleasing to long-time residents of the city. The column should be of nearly equal interest to newer residents of Newton. Although it cannot turn back the hands of time nor can it recall to mind faded pictures of Newton as it used to be to these people, it should acquaint them more fully with the traditions which are the background of any community. Upon these traditions the city of Newton has built a foundation which is the keystone of its standing among the cities of similar size in the state and in the nation.

60 YEARS AGO

Newton Republican, July 10, 1874
Not one arrest was made on July 4th in any part of the City of Newton. A good record for our law abiding city.

The time has come according to the Statutes of the Commonwealth which requires all dogs to be killed which are not licensed and collared. The executive warrant ordering this work to be done in Newton has been issued. Owners who have not already secured licenses may possibly save their dogs by immediate attention at the office of the City Clerk.

A prize of $100 has been contributed by a member of the Newton Horticultural Society desirous to see the improvement and adornment of the city, for the best essay on "How to improve and beautify the City of Newton." Papers presented will be judged more on the value of practical suggestions than literary merit. It won by a lady, the prize will be paid in gold. A sealed envelope containing the name of the writer should accompany each essay. Both should be deposited before December 1, 1874 with Mr. Henry Ross at the Newton Cemetery office.

Foreman Hyde and Charles Hill of Steamer 1 are visiting Portland, Augusta and Waterville, Maine this week making arrangements for the proposed excursion to those cities in September of the firemen of Steam Fire Engine 1 company.

As Policemen Hinds and Kennedy were cleaning a pistol at West Newton police station on Saturday the barrel slipped from the nippers held by Kennedy discharging the bullet into his arm. The ball entered the forearm and passed out near the shoulder, inflicting only a flesh wound.

Last Saturday as Willard K. Rice of Auburnville was drawing a pistol from his pocket, in some unknown manner it was discharged. The ball passed through the left forearm of Carl Cushing. The wound is not dangerous.

The Vermont railroad war was terminated Wednesday by the sale of the Vermont and Canada railroad to the Central Vermont railroad. Consolidation is the order of the day. Monopolies and corporations are getting the reins of the country in their own hands. At this rate the people will soon have little to say.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, July 10, 1886
Arthur W. Porter of this city won second prize in the one mile bicycle race for boys at Lynn on Monday; the prize was a silver medal.

Horace Crocker of Newton won the 1 mile race for tricycles at Boston Common on July 4th. His time was 3 minutes, 55 seconds. He also won the 3 mile race for amateurs; his time was 10:20.

Mount Ida presented a brilliant display on July 4th night. Much of the residences were illuminated and there were many displays of fireworks.

The youngest son of W. A. Wetherbee of Washington st. was badly burned by a premature explosion of a cannon on July 4th. One of his eyes was seriously injured but it is hoped he will not lose the sight of it.

The permanent employees of the fire department and the laborers in the street and water departments will be paid weekly instead of monthly under the new rule. Salaried officials will be paid monthly as before, most of them preferring this method. The teachers prefer the monthly method and will continue to be paid this way.

The celebration of July 4th began promptly at 12 a. m. Monday and there was little sleep after that until daylight. Fire crackers, firecrackers and bell ringing ushered in the day. Lanes about the city bore evidence to the fact that the boys had been out all night. Signs were taken from their proper places and placed in ludicrous positions; old family mansions were announced to be for sale for the first time in their history. Lawn chairs and settees put where their owners least wanted them. But, it was a glorious Fourth and everyone took it goodnaturedly although real estate men had a busy time looking up their signs.

The first death at the Newton Hospital occurred on Tuesday night; John Lamb of Tremont st., Boston, died of injuries received while trying to board a train at Chestnut Hill in the morning. He was dragged several feet and received internal injuries. He was attended by Dr. Sylvester of Newton Centre and then taken to the hospital.

The old grist mill at Bullough's Pond was burned shortly after 2 a. m. of July 4th; being set afire by boys. This malicious destroying of property ought to be stopped. The burning of the old mill removes one of the old landmarks of the city. It was over 100 years old and once owned by General Hull. Its last occupant was John Lord who ran it 13 years ago.

If the law against leading or driving cattle on sidewalks were put in force, it would relieve Newton Highlands pedestrians of great inconveniences.

Powers' Paragraphs

We have called attention a number of times during the past few years to the need of motorcycle policemen on Washington st. during both day and night hours. We repeat the fact that for a number of years there were eight Newton policemen assigned to motorcycles during the months of the year when motor vehicle traffic is heavy. Four of those traffic officers were on duty during daylight hours. The other four were on duty nights. Several years ago the motorcycle squad was practically abolished and for most of the time since, only two members of the Newton police force have been operating motorcycles; both during the daytime.

Police departments exist to protect life and property. Life is more important than property, or should be. If a murder is committed there is great ado and policemen snap into unusual activity. Murders in Newton have been very few. But, in Newton, as elsewhere, there has been an increasing number of deaths caused by automobile accidents. A man killed by an automobile is just as dead as though killed by a bullet. And he is just as great a loss to those dependent on him. Washington st. between Newton Corner and West Newton has been a speedway since the street was improved. A number of pedestrians have been killed on this street in recent years by automobiles. Within a few months two men have been killed at almost the same spot near the Harvard street bridge at Newtonville. How many more persons will be killed on Washington st., the Worcester turnpike and other streets in Newton before more policemen are assigned to motorcycles in this city? Mayor Childs should give more attention to this side of Newton's police problems. If more men are needed on the police force to provide motorcycle patrolmen, the Mayor should recommend an appropriation for such additional policemen and the Aldermen should accept his recommendation. Nine persons have died in Newton so far this year because of automobile accidents. This city spends plenty of money for less essential purposes than saving further deaths of men, women and children, victims of speeding and reckless operation of motor vehicles. Pedestrians crossing Washington st. do so at the peril of their lives.

For the first time in years that annual baseball classic, the game between the stars of the National and American Leagues, was played on Tuesday at the National League grounds in Boston. And instead of the capacity attendance of 45,000 which was expected in what was formerly the outstanding baseball city of this country, only 25,000 persons paid to see the game. The clean sport of professional baseball, heretofore known as the national game, has lost prestige because of the introduction of legalized gambling. The present generation instead of spending 50c or $1 to see a good baseball game is giving its time and money to attend horse races and dog races, with gambling as the lure. This change does not augur well for the future of the U. S. A.

The financial advantage of multiple births as exemplified by the Dionne quintuplets is having peculiar results. Two men in Florida claim to be the father of triplets born to a young woman in that State and one has taken legal action to prove his claim. Heretofore the males of the specie would try to avoid such a responsibility or culpability.

On the afternoon of July 4th we drove to Prospect Hill in Harvard to enjoy the panorama across the Nashua River valley as seen from that height. Returning through Roxborough shortly before 6 o'clock we heard the ringing of a bell. At first we thought the bell was being rung at some farm house as a supper-time call. Then we passed a little Colonial church set back from the road. No one was in sight, but some patriot was tolling the old bell in honor of Independence Day, just as it had been tolled for the past century and a half in that newly-settled old Middlesex County town with a population of 312. And we could not help but think of the difference in the observance of July 4th in Roxborough and the hectic, nerve-racking manner in which Independence Day is celebrated in more populous communities. Roxborough, which has receded since the time of the Revolution, which like many other New England towns has less population than when it furnished its quota at the first battle for American liberty in Concord, still pursues its peaceful, quiet life. It does not suffer by comparison, however, in the old-fashioned way in which it honors July 4th.

The Almighty is doing a much more thorough job in restricting the foot crops of the country than did President Roosevelt and his brain trust through the A. A. A. and other agencies. If those large areas in the West, which have been rendered barren by long droughts the past few years, will become desert wastes as Secretary of Agriculture Wallace fears, perhaps the thousands of deserted New England farms which have reverted to woodland will again be cleared and tilled.

When one has lived a half century and has had plenty of opportunities to observe various types of men and women, one wonders how a person of better than ordinary intelligence will give more consideration to sycophants than he gives to sincere, faithful subordinates. It would seem that a man who really possessed executive ability could not be hoodwinked by persons with a proclivity for commendation of others and self-laudation. Individuals with a propensity for carrying tales intended to discredit fellow workers.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

NEWTON ENTRY LEADS TWIN-COUNTY LEAGUE

L. P. "Jeff" Jones, Newton High baseball coach and manager of the Newton Independents, was elected president and treasurer of the Twin-County League when the league managers met last week to reorganize for the second half of the current season. Charles DeFazio of the Needham A. A. was made vice-president and secretary in the same election.

Plans were made to bring the regular league schedule to a close during the third week in August, after which the winner of the second and first halves of the schedule will play a series to determine the league champion. A resolution was passed providing for two umpires for every game, and another designated the Iver-Johnson ball as the league's official horseshoe.

Independents First Half Winners
The Independents made virtually a clean sweep of the first half of the league schedule when they defeated the Needham A. A. 3-1 Tuesday evening. This game brought total to twelve victories and one defeat for a percentage of .833. The Independents were trailing by a single run going into the sixth inning.

Bert Marazzo singled, advanced on Ryan's sacrifice fly, and raced home on Bill Mullen's clean hit to center field. That run tied the score at 1-1, and another pair in the seventh settled the issue. Phil Andres walked, but was cut off at home plate trying to score on Morrison's two-bagger. Jones put Bill McAdams out to run for Morrison, and he crossed the plate when Bev Wilson, pinch-hitting in place of Marazzo, came through with a hit. Wilson got to second on the throw home, and was able to score when Bun Ryan singled. Ryan was the winning pitcher.

Colored Giants Win 7-3
The Independents were upset 7-3 by the West Newton Colored Giants Wednesday night at the high school field in a Newton-Twi-League scrap that was played before the first substantial crowd of the season. The Giants reversed a previous no-hit, no-run decision they lost to the Jones team two weeks ago. They scored four runs in the second inning, working on errors, walks and a timely triple, then added three more in the third. The Independents made theirs one at a time, scoring in the third, fourth and seventh innings on singles by Pete Morrison, Walter Cook and player-manager Jeff Jones, respectively. Several passed balls by the Giants catcher contributed to these tallies, but the burden of the loose playing lay with the losers.

The Independents play tonight at Cabot Park, Newtonville, against Our Lady Alumni Club, the team that nosed them out 2-1 a few weeks ago, and this meeting is expected to provide the tightest action the Newton-Twi-League has yet produced. The Independents play at home in the first game of the second half of Twin-County League next Thursday at the high school field when they take on the Needham A. A.

NEWTON TWI LEAGUE

The Giants climaxing a series of victories strode over the favored Independents, Wednesday night, at High School Field to take undisputed possession of second place. In the box for West Newton "Woody" Hutton was invincible and deserved to win while Cook who started for the Independents had nothing and was poorly supported. The Independents, fresh from winning the first half championship of the Twin County League, showed a complete reversal of form and for the first time this season failed to show to advantage.

Cabot continues to dominate the Junior Circuit and with the season half over has only a single defeat. Garden City has advanced to a tie with Nonantum Pals for second place, both passing Janse's Centre A. C. which is now in fourth place. The Ramblers continue to lose and appear to have lost courage having dropped behind Boy's Club into last place.

SCHEDULE FOR WEEK OF JULY 13, 1936

Tuesday
Y. M. C. A. vs Our Lady's Alumni at Cabot.
Cubs vs West Newton Giants at John W. Weeks (West Newton).

Wednesday
Independents vs Y. M. C. A. at High School.

Thursday
West Newton Giants vs Auburndale B. C. at John W. Weeks (W. N.).

Friday
Auburndale B. C. vs Independents at Auburndale.

WHITTENS IS NATIONAL A.A.U. HURDLES WINNER

Newton High's latest and greatest track luminary, Warren Whittens, culminated a remarkable season on the cinders by winning the national A. A. U. junior low hurdles championship last Friday at Palmer Stadium, Princeton, N. J. He followed up this performance by placing fourth in the senior A. A. U. 200-metre lows on Saturday. Competing with club and college stars who had been attracted to the meet as a setting-up exercise for the Olympic team trials, the Newton schoolboy turned in a magnificent pair of races.

Whittens was not sent to the meet by the New England A. A. U. despite the fact that he broke the New England record in the 200-metre low hurdles three weeks ago. He traveled to Princeton by automobile with Paul Forte, Newton High's captain-elect of track and state sprint champion. Both entered the junior championships, for which all are eligible who have not won a national or a major sectional title.

Late Entry in Senior Meet
Whittens ran the final of the junior 200-metre lows in 24.2 s, defeating Al Hakanson of Northeastern University, Gilder Farrow of Asbury Park, N. J., and Jack Kramp of the New York A. C. Forte was out of the running in the 100-metre dash, finding the field too fast for his liking. Both Forte and Whittens travelled to Philadelphia after the meet to stay with Forte's relatives in that city. Meanwhile, Lawson Robertson, University of Pennsylvania and U. S. Olympic head track coach, who is to guide the Whittens track career for the next four years, made the Newton High had a post entry in the senior championships of Saturday. It was only when the boys returned to watch the senior meet the next day that Whittens learned he was entered in the senior 200-metre hurdles.

Milt Green in Two Events
Milton Green, another former Newton High captain and leader of the Harvard track team, won the first hurdles heat in 24.9 s, leading Hamilton Hucker, I. C. 4A champion. J. K. Lattimer of the New York A. C. ran the second heat in 24.5 s, trailed by Whittens and F. X. Cretzmeyer, Jr., of Iowa. In the final, Hucker won in 23.8 s, with Milt Green second, Lattimer third, Whittens fourth and Cretzmeyer fifth. Cretzmeyer, incidentally, was runner-up to Jesse Owens at this distance in the Big Ten conference meeting this year.

Don Enoch, Newton High track coach, was delighted at the showing made by his protege at Princeton, and saw in the result another added proof that Whittens should have got credit for a world record of 13.7 seconds in the 120-yard lows in the state meet. This remarkable time, as well as Forte's 9.9 seconds in the century, was discounted by the referee as made with a following breeze. "They believe that if a boy runs a race in world record time that it just can't be so, but Whittens has proved conclusively week after week that it was so." Except for the Worcester Interscholastics, every meet on Newton High's schedule was the scene of a record breaking feat by Whittens. Coach Enoch shares the general opinion that catch-as-catch-can officiating has been a hindrance to Newton track meets.

Milt Green, who passed up the Olympic trials in favor of the A. A. U. championships, placed third in the broad jump with a mark of 24 ft. 9 5/8 in. Jesse Owens went 26 ft. 3 in. and Kermit King of Kansas S. T. C. was second at 25 ft. 5 in. Green's decision to forego the Olympic games is a keen disappointment to his friends, for the great Harvard captain was almost a certain bet for the Olympic team.

Newton Highlights

Don Enoch has high hopes for Paul Forte, Newton High captain-elect of outdoor track and New England A. A. U. 100-metre king. The Waban boy won both state meet sprints in his first year of track, hit an even ten-second gait at least twice and made 9.9s. in winning the state meet title. He has yet to be defeated in a 100-yard dash final in high school competition.

Forte was unable to place in the Harvard Stadium at the Eastern Olympic trials or at the nationals at Princeton, but he was in those meets largely for experience. Says Coach Enoch, "I have never seen a boy improve so fast in one year. Paul is a ten-second man now, and next year he may be about the same, but after that he will improve fast for two more years."

NEWTON ARCHERS HOLD HOLIDAY SHOOT

On Saturday, July 4th, the Waltham Archers held their championship tournament. Several members of the Newton Archers took part and won prizes. Many archers in this vicinity belong to both the Waltham and Newton Archers.

In the men's division Chester Barnes of Newton Club won third honors for visitors and B. M. Harrison, President of the Newton Archers, placed fourth in the day's total scores. A. A. Gray, W. Chester Shedd, Dr. C. P. Moulton, Parker W. Felt and Alfred Bell, Jr., all members of both clubs, finished 3rd, 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th. Mrs. B. M. Harrison of Newton Club won first honors for Lady Visitors in the day's totals. Mrs. J. C. Wingett finished third in the Columbia round in the afternoon. Mrs. Rose Gronlund finished sixth. Mrs. Teresa C. Goldish, secretary of the Newton Archers, and a member of both clubs, finished fifth for members in the day's total scoring.

The Newton Archers fared best in the junior division. Bob Goldish won the Waltham Archers Junior Championship and came within two points of beating the national record for a Junior American Round. Hugh Van Roosen finished second and while shooting at 30 yards made a "perfect end," namely, six golds out of six arrows shot, which makes him a member of the select "Six Golds Club" of which there are only a hundred members. Newton is fortunate in that it has five members in the Six Golds Club. Mrs. Dorothy Smith Cummings, Hugh Van Roosen and Robert Goldish, who is the youngest one ever to be admitted to the Six Golds Club, made a perfect end when he was just 12 years old.

Mrs. Teresa Goldish was awarded a beautiful silver vase to be held one year for getting the most measured golds for members. Medals were awarded for all those finishing the first five places, morning and afternoon and the day's total scores.

rating being created at that time. Four of the present sergeants of the Newton police department, who have always been engaged in street duty, are Cullen's seniors both as regards length of service in the department and as sergeants. They are—Bernard A. Meehan, appointed to the department on June 1, 1913, and made a sergeant on February 28, 1922; Andrew E. Moran, appointed Feb. 1, 1911, and promoted to sergeant on April 11, 1922; Thomas F. Leehan, appointed March 1, 1911, and made sergeant on May 5, 1922; Richard L. Bannon, appointed Jan. 1, 1912, and promoted to sergeant on Jan. 28, 1923. Cullen is last on the present list of sergeants who are eligible for promotion to lieutenants. This list in order of rating is—Sergeants Bannon, Leehan, King, Burke, Sheridan, Meehan, Moran and Cullen.

In the communication which the Mayor sent to the Aldermen he said that in the Newton fire department the man in charge of the motor equipment has the pay and rating of a captain, and that the rank of lieutenant in the police department corresponds with that of captain in the fire department. He claimed that the man in charge of the police department's motor vehicles should also have charge of the purchasing of supplies for them.

Hearing on Buswell Property

asked $5000 for the strip of land which would be taken from him, and had stirred up neighbors against the petition. Blakemore explained that Cetrone is willing to pay a fair price for land taken from Murray and will also properly grade Murray's property adjoining the proposed street. He said that Cetrone intends to build 8 or 10 small, attractive houses which are badly needed in Newton. The construction of these houses would give work to Newton men and add to the tax revenues.

Blakemore commented that if his client were an aristocrat from West Newton Hill or Chestnut Hill the petition would be deemed a good thing, but because Cetrone is an Italian, objections are being raised. He said that when most of the Northern world was under civilized government of Italians, his Anglo-Saxon ancestors were living in huts. Mr. Blakemore read a letter from Carlos Pierce which stated that he would have the exclusive right to sell the houses which Mr. Cetrone might build and that sales would be restricted to desirable purchasers. He asked the Board to make a speedy decision on the matter so that his client can take proper steps in case of adverse action by the Aldermen.

Alderman Melcher asked Mr. Blakemore why Mr. Buswell bought the back land over 40 years ago when he had a good frontage on Franklin st. Blakemore answered that the land was bought at that time because of the proposal to build two-family houses on the land.

Richard W. Hale of Dover appeared as counsel for Thomas F. Murray and objected to Cetrone's petition. He said he would be sorry to believe that in Newton it makes any difference what a man's race or religion is. He said that his client is a Scotchman, but when he came to Newton he was told he was an Irishman and that he was not wanted. Mr. Hale challenged Mr. Blakemore to read two letters which had passed between him and Mr. Murray. He said the Buswell property has a frontage of 107 feet on Franklin st., with 67 feet open space on the right, the same space that would be left for Mr. Murray's frontage if land is taken from him to build a 40 foot street. He said the Buswell family could use this 67 feet if they had desired to develop the back land. Mr. Hale was in error as regards the width of the open space. Measurements taken by the City Engineer show that the widest space between the Buswell house and the next property line is 32 feet, that there is but 25 feet between the Buswell house and the next house on one side; and 45 feet between it and the next house on the other side.

Mr. Hale said that the old statute Mr. Blakemore had stirred up was enacted to provide access to wood lots in rural regions, but was not intended for use in urban communities. He said the deed of sale from the Buswells to Cetrone showed that the latter might expect trouble in obtaining entrance and egress for the land he purchased and that the zoning law might create difficulties. Hale said the strip of land is not a street as defined by the zoning law. He said some beautiful trees would have to be cut down if the proposed street is laid out, and litigation might result if these trees are destroyed without the consent of all three owners of abutting properties. Mr. Hale argued that it would be violating the Constitutional rights of Mr. Murray and Mr. Warren (the other abuttor) to construct the street against their protests.

Walter D. Warren of 594 Centre st. said the line of a 40 foot street would come within 7 feet of his piazza. He criticized the bringing in of a race issue. John Finelli of Ashmont ave., Newtonville, a lawyer who was present at City Hall appearing for a client in connection with zoning changes in Nonantum, then arose and read a letter he received about a month ago from David Cornell who is serving a 15 to 18 years term in the Norfolk Prison Colony. The letter had no connection with the matter before the Board, but Finelli was allowed to read it. It concerned a murderous assault made on Finelli by Cornell three years ago and for which he is serving the long prison term. The letter asked Finelli's forgiveness and assistance in obtaining freedom for Cornell.

The petition of Cetrone was referred to the Committee on Claims and Rules.

Parker Not To Run For Senator

Former Representative Bartol Parker of Framingham has announced his withdrawal as a candidate for the State Senate in the First Middlesex District in the coming Republican primaries. The seat is now held by Senator Arthur W. Hollis of Newton who is a candidate for renomination. Mr. Parker's statement follows:

"Appreciating that this year is one in which even minor contests become important, where they involve complication in the consideration of the issues presented by the election this fall, and realizing the feelings such a contest might engender in the district, with the approval of those friends and associates who have so generously and loyally backed my candidacy for the State Senate, and after full and careful consideration, for the sake of party harmony I hereby withdraw my name as a candidate.

"My best efforts will be at the disposal of the party, but not as a candidate for any public office."

Fined $50 For Reckless Driving

Murray Huntley of Trapelo road, Lincoln, was fined $50 in the Newton court on last Friday for driving a car so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. On the night of May 22nd a car driven by Huntley collided with a car driven by Thomas Lanigan of Dartmouth street, Waltham, at Walnut street, and Lowell avenue, Newtonville. Huntley's car was tipped over in the crash and several persons received injuries. Lanigan also charged with reckless driving, was found not guilty. Patrolman McGrath told the judge that he had asked only for a complaint against Huntley, but that Clerk of Court Gallagher had issued complaints against both drivers, so as to show no discrimination.

Serious Fire In Newtonville Home

A fire in the house at 16 Highland park, Newtonville, occupied by Mrs. Mary L. Hymers, on Saturday afternoon at 3:45 caused damage estimated at several thousand dollars to the building. The fire was caused by a defective oil line on a kitchen range burner. It ignited adjoining woodwork and got quite a start before Mrs. Hymers, who was upstairs, was alarmed by smoke spreading through the house. The tank attached to the burner exploded, causing the flames to spread rapidly. The building is owned by Newton South Cooperative Bank.

Entertainment—Mr. John Fitzgerald, chairman; Mr. Ed Herlihy, Miss Helen Garry, Miss Helen Cahill, Miss Mary Iacomo, Mr. Ed Hanlon. Under the direction of the chairman, Mr. Fitzgerald an excellent program of entertainment for young and old has been secured.

It is to be especially noted that this Moonlight Sail is a Parish affair and the pastor, Rev. Fr. Sheridan invites ALL of the Parish and their friends to come and enjoy this sail, conducted under the auspices of the Alumni Association.

Should the weather be inclement, the sail will be conducted on the next favorable evening and Radio Announcement will be made.

Due to the fact that a recent amendment to the Constitution of the Alumni Association permits any person who ever attended the Grammar or High Schools to become members of the Alumni Association, a check-up of all possible members is being made during the summer months of those eligible. To assist this Registration Committee it is requested that all of those past attendants at the School who have not been contacted by the committee, will kindly forward their names, addresses, and Class Year to the Secretary, Miss Helen Garry, 132 Jowett street, Newton, or to the Parish Rectory, so that the records may be made complete by the opening of the Fall session in September.

There will be a General Meeting of the Alumni Association on Monday evening, July 20th, for the purpose of checking up on the Moonlight Sail Plans and also reports from the Committee Supervising the Reception to the 1936 Graduation Class.

Two Found Guilty Of Topsy Driving

Two men appeared in the Newton court last Friday charged with similar offenses—drunkenness and driving while under the influence of liquor. Both had operated cars which had collided with other automobiles. One was arraigned before Judge Weston and sentenced to serve 30 days in Middlesex County prison. The other appeared before Judge Lynch of Milford and was fined $25.

Edmund McDonald of 311 California st., Nonantum, was arrested on July 1 by Patrolman James Jenkins after the car he was driving had hit another car at the corner of Pearl and Thornton sts., Newton. He was found guilty of driving while under the influence of liquor by Judge Weston and given the prison sentence.

James F. Fay of 23 Chapin rd., Newton Centre, was arraigned before Judge Lynch on a number of charges. These included drunkenness, driving while under the influence of liquor, and driving so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. The complainant against Fay was Mrs. Sylvia Alberts of Newton Centre, driver of the car with which Fay's car collided on the night of June 13 on Commonwealth ave. Patrolmen Joe Smith and Turner testified that following the accident they went to Fay's home and found him drunk. They testified he fell down a flight of stairs while going out to his garage. Fay's attorney produced witnesses who testified that Fay was not drunk at the time of the accident. Judge Lynch found Fay guilty of driving while under the influence of liquor, and not guilty of drunkenness and driving so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. Fay's attorney accepted the finding on the day of the trial but later took an appeal.

Says Motorcycle Ran Away

Richard Byrne, 19, of 25 Day st., West Newton, was arraigned in the Newton court on Monday on several charges as a result of a collision between a motorcycle he was riding and an automobile. He was charged with operating an uninsured and unregistered motorcycle, and leaving the scene of an accident without making himself known. Byrne offered a unique defence. He claimed that the motorcycle was parked on Watertown st., West Newton, on June 26 with its motor running as he reached the scene. He sat on the seat of the motorcycle, someone pushed it off its stand, and down the street he went. Byrne testified that not knowing how to operate the motorcycle, he could not stop it and it hit a coupe operated by Kenneth Lord of Melrose. Byrne said he was injured in the collision and was taken home by a friend. Two occupants of the coupe claimed to have received injuries. The case was continued until July 17.

Traffic Lights At Adams Street

The long needed traffic lights to protect pedestrians crossing Washington st. at Adams st. and Lewis ter., Newton, were put into operation yesterday. The lights are controlled by a small lever placed on a pole in front of Our Lady's Church. When any pedestrian desires to cross Washington st., by pushing the small lever red lights show on the signals and halt automobile traffic for 18 seconds. An interval of 45 seconds elapses before the STOP signal will show again, even though pushed at the end of the 18 second interval. Flashing green lights show on Washington st. when the pedestrian signal is not set, and a flashing red light shows on Lewis ter.

Rev. John Sheridan of Our Lady's Church will have the children attending the parish school instructed not to unnecessarily operate the light. It is expected the public school officials will take similar action.

Seek To Improve Charles River

At a meeting of the Directors of the Charles River Waterway Association, Inc., held at Nebra Centre last Friday evening, James Gordon Lovell was appointed to head the Membership Drive Committee for 500 new members in the Newton-Waltham district.

Mr. Lovell with the aid of his committee will solicit membership in the Associate class in the Auburndale district of Newton.

The Charles River Waterway Association, Inc., was organized in May for the purpose of carrying through several civic projects, the first of which was the investigation of the delay in the purchase of the water rights by the State at the Moody street Dam.

Next in line for the Newton-Waltham district is an effort to obtain mosquito control to be followed by a project calling for a new bridge at Riverside avenue, both of which programs will be undertaken as soon as sufficient additional membership is acquired to finance the administration expense.

Fined $50 For Drunken Driving

James J. Lally of 80 Waltham st., West Newton, was found guilty by Judge Allen in the Newton court on Tuesday of driving a car while under the influence of liquor and fined $50. He was also fined $5 for drunkenness. Lally was arrested on June 29 at 1:20 a. m. by Patrolmen Cunningham and Joe Smith when they observed him driving zig-zag on Commonwealth ave. near Centre st. Lally's lawyer asked Judge Allen to find the defendant not guilty because he is going to take the bar examination. The judge suggested that Lally could appeal the finding and then have his case postponed in the Superior court until February which will be after the bar examination will have been held. An appeal was taken.

Gives Window To Our Lady's Church

A stained glass window has been placed in Our Lady's Church, Newton. It is the gift of Mrs. Katherine C. Pitman of Jameson rd., Newton, and is a memorial to her husband, the late Francis C. Pitman. The window was fabricated by Vaughan & O'Neil of Boston.

The work of installing electric lights in the upper auditorium of Our Lady's Church was started this week by Anthony Vahey of West Newton. This improvement is the latest in a number made in the parish buildings by Rev. John A. Sheridan since assuming the pastorate.

Bull Runs Wild Through Newton

A yearling Holstein bull caused more excitement in Newton early Thursday morning than this city has seen for many months. The bull escaped from a sales stable on Kenrick st., Brighton about 2:30 in the morning, and headed toward Chestnut Hill. The animal ambling along streets and through yards caused telephone calls to be sent to police headquarters. Patrolmen Charlton and J. P. Murphy went on the trail and cornered the bull on Ward st. They had to jump aside quickly as the angry bovine charged them and the bull vanished in the direction of Newton. He was seen later on Farlow Hill, Newton by Patrolmen McHugh and Carroll. They chased the animal along Waverley ave., through Newton Corner and down to the Watertown line.

About 6 o'clock the bull reappeared, this time in the Nonantum business district on Watertown st., whence he had been pursued by Watertown police. A fusillade of revolver shots aroused Nonantum people as the Watertown and Newton police fired at the rampaging bull. None of the bullets hit the bull, but one went through a large plate glass window in Gibson's Market. The bull headed for Newtonville with Patrolmen McHugh and Carroll in pursuit. The doors of the Newtonville railroad station were open. In one door went the bull, through the depot and out the other door. Into an alley off Bowers st. he went and after him went Peter Marchant of Watertown st., Nonantum, an employee of the Newton Street Department. With a skill and recklessness that would do credit to a rodeo star, Marchant tackled the bull and got a vise like grip on the animal's nose. Patrolmen McHugh and Carroll came to Marchant's assistance, the bull quit, and 10 minutes later he had been secured by a long rope and was taken to the city stable on Craft st.

Ask PWA Aid For Street Repairs

Street Commissioner Mahoney has applied to the State Emergency Finance Board for approval of two street repair projects for which PWA aid is sought by the city. These are the resurfacing of Chestnut st. between Boylston st., Upper Falls and Moffat road, Waban; and Jackson rd., Newton, from Washington street to the Watertown line. Newton's share of the cost of this work would be financed by $55,000 in bonds, a balance remaining from an issue of $165,000 authorized several months ago for street repairs. The work will be done by contractors.

Newton Boy Saves Drowning Woman

Eugene Phillips, 16, of 49 Walker street, Newtonville, saved Mrs. David Ashton, 40, of Somerville, from drowning in Lake Quacumquasit, Brookfield, on Monday after heroic efforts. While climbing a raft the woman became entangled in a rope holding the raft anchor, and was carried to the bottom. Young Phillips dove to the surface and brought Mrs. Ashton to the surface but her struggles carried the pair down again. Phillips managed again to reach the surface with the woman, who by that time had lost consciousness, and swim with her to the raft where others in the party revived her.

Russell-Winslow Want Democratic Nomination

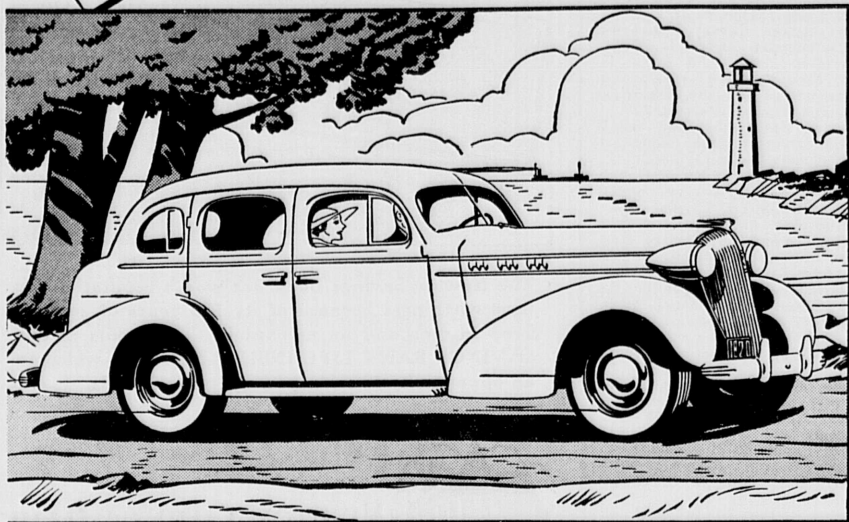

Congressman Richard M. Russell of Cambridge has formally announced that he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the 9th District, which includes Newton. Mr. Russell, in his announcement, refers to the fact that both his grandfather and father gave honorable service in public life to the people of Massachusetts, and he is endeavoring to emulate their records.

Earle M. Winslow of 77 Martin st., Cambridge, has also announced that he is candidate for the Democratic nomination as Congressman from the 9th District. Mr. Winslow was formerly professor of economics at Tufts College and resigned early this year rather than take the teacher's oath. He served as tariff advisor to Senator David I. Walsh in 1929, and was awarded the Ford Hall Forum medal in 1936 for pre-eminent service to human welfare. Professor Winslow promises to be conservative enough to be safe, and liberal enough to be progressive.

The regular meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club was held Tuesday, July 14, 1936, at the Charles River Country Club, with President J. Ernest Gibson presiding.

In honor of the election of James P. Gallagher of the Newton Club to the Kiwanis International Board of Trustees, the Newton Club's Inter-Club Relations Committee, under the able direction of Chairman Archie Bellinger, is planning a series of meetings during the summer and fall, at which meetings the Newton Club will be host to other clubs throughout the district. The first of these meetings will be held July 22, 1936 when the Kiwanis clubs of Brookline and Quincy will come to Newton as guests.

The speaker of the day was Mr. Judd B. Dewey, Deputy Commissioner, Savings Bank Life Insurance, Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Mr. Dewey explained in a vitally interesting manner the function of life insurance and particularly the part played in the program by the Savings Bank Life Insurance. Mr. Dewey clearly brought out that the basic premiums in all insurance companies, including the Savings Bank Life Insurance, are the same, and that the net amount paid by the assured varies only to the extent with which the company with whom he has a contract is able to efficiently operate as to save a part of the premium which is subsequently returned to the assured. Savings Bank Life Insurance pays for little advertising and employs no salesmen; likewise, it pays no large salaries and has but few employees—hence, the net premium on this type of insurance is considerably under the premium paid in most other companies. Mr. Dewey convinced the members and guests that Massachusetts Savings Bank Life Insurance is efficiently and economically operated.

Mr. Dewey devoted the latter part of his talk to a vivid revelation of the operation of the so-called industrial policies—policies on which working people pay weekly or monthly premiums. He frankly stated that the business of writing this form of insurance is in the class with racketeering. The ignorance of the people to whom this insurance is sold is the only reason that it can be sold, for as Mr. Dewey pointed out, the type person who buys the regular life insurance would never accept such a contract as sold under the industrial heading. Furthermore, he or she would never pay the exorbitant premiums charged for this insurance. If more people were informed of the advantages of Savings Bank Life Insurance, which is operated on a truly rational basis, much money would be saved and a great deal of benefit derived by the people of Massachusetts.

Girl Scouts

The new venture of Newton Girl Scouts, a day camp called Cedar Brook, had a very happy opening recently.

Using the fine site of the former Junior State Camp at Cedar Hill and with a carefully chosen group of counselors headed by Miss Eloise Barber, Newton Field Captain, the 28 Newton girls arriving by bus started immediately to get acquainted with the eighteen Arlington and three Weston girls present.

At their "good-night" circle at four o'clock, the 10 girls of 14 years or over told in pantomime that their unit, entitled "Indian Glen" are to be pioneers. Anna MacPhee, teacher at the Bigelow School is their leader, assisted by Diana Cumner of Newton Centre. Miss Cumner is food lieutenant of the camp. Miss MacPhee also heads the swimming staff of three life savers having had experience at the Girl Scout Camp at Stamford, Conn. and at the Nashua, N. H. camp of the Y. W. C. A.

The "Oak" unit under Edith Brown, a Golden Eaglet from Cambridge, reported a busy day. They are from twelve to fourteen years old and appeared to especially relish the half hour in the pool. Miss Gertrude Harris from Watertown, an assistant director of Sheltering Arms Camp at Bantam Lake, Conn., will aid Miss Brown.

The "Young Adventurers," ten to twelve years of age, were the largest group, under the leadership of Barbara Towne and assistants, Miss Towne is a naturalist from Medford, and will interest the girls in this important side of camping.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

INDEPENDENTS STILL TOP TWIN CO. LEAGUE

Jeff Jones piloted his Newton Independents to a twelve-inning 8-8 tie with the Needham A. A. last Sunday at Needham, keeping the Newton club on top in the Twin County League standing. The teams were deadlocked with eight runs each at the end of the ninth inning, and the game was called at 6 p. m. to conform to the Sunday sports law. Howard Ferguson had a rare afternoon at bat, making three singles, a double and a triple in six trips to the plate.

It was a free-hitting contest, and not the tightest the two teams have played this year, but it provided a good beginning for the second half of the league schedule. The Newton Independents made one run in the second inning, three in the third, one in the fourth and three in the sixth. In the second inning Manager Jones drew a walk, advanced on Ferguson's first hit of the day, and scored on a fielder's choice.

The Independents got three runs on four hits in the third. Phil Greene doubled, scored on Herb Berry's single, and Berry went to second on the throw-in. Ferguson singled to bring Berry in, then scored himself as Phil Greene hit a three-bagger. Joe Greene's double and a single by Bert Magrazzo brought in the only run in the fourth, and the same combination figured in the three-run rally in the sixth inning. John Marrazzo singled, advanced when Joe Greene got a base on balls, and was caught off second. Bert Marrazzo redeemed the family name with a ringing double, Greene scoring. Berry singled, got to second on the throw to the plate as Marrazzo tallied, then rambled home with the eighth run on Jeff Jones' single.

Y. M. C. A.

All members of the party enjoyed every moment of the day as the weather was perfect, the sea calm, and a trip by bus through the town was arranged after the group had visited the monument.

The following were in the group: Harvey Ames, Albert Art, Robert Becker, Marion Boemester, James Burrows, Willard Coffin, James Delaney, Francis and Howard Donalds, Carl Eschellbach, Richard Farrar, Walter Farrell, Robert Green, Norman Hamlet, Parker Hirtle, Warren Hitchin, Dourial MacNeil, John Magee, Charles and Harold McKusick, Robert Perry, Richard Searle, Francis Squires, Edward and Warren Strange, Benjamin Thomas and William Wiles. The party was in charge of Mr. Andrew, Associate Director of Boy's Work, assisted by Whitney Davis and Joseph Gallant.

The Smithy of 1936

By William R. Ferry

At the rush of Newton Corner
A Village Smithy stands;
His anvil sounds like ancient days;
A hammer in his hand.

Metals pounded into shape
Made cherry red by heat
Makes locks and latches, hinges, catches,
All so very neat.

The sound of anvil rings and rings,
From early morn till dawn,
Heating and hammering many things
With muscle, strength like brawn.

The Smithy's name, Avakian.
He comes from o'er the seas;
Where locks and latches,
wrought iron catches,
Are forged for you's and me's.

His glowing forge like he himself
As bright as new born day;
He is just a part of every spark
That makes the metal say,

I must be strong and well made, too,
To satisfy the trade,
For hinges, latches, handles,
catches,
They, too, must be well made.

This Smithy's name is Leon, sir,
And Leon, sir, we say;
May anvil ring and hammer sing
Go on from day to day.

As your forebears plied their trade of old,
May you their footsteps tread;
Whether locks or latches, hooks or catches,
Well-made, your clients said.

NEWTON TWI LEAGUE

One of the most improved teams on the Senior Circuit is the Cubs. With Herrick and Bullet Byrnes for a battery they are hard to beat. During the past week the combination defeated Auburndale and the second place Giants, the latter team by a score of 7-4. However Herrick attempting to pitch the following night against Our Lady's Alumni found the task too much and the Cubs went down to defeat.

Auburndale continues to lose by close scores and does not appear to be getting the breaks. With a fixed infield from week to week they should be heard from later.

The schedule for the coming week finds the three leaders each playing the other. These three games may result in a change among the leaders.

Ramblers have withdrawn from the Junior Circuit and Waban A. C. will complete their schedule. Cabot has finally gone in reverse losing successive games to Nonantum Pals and Centre A. C. Garden City continues in second place leading Pals and Centre A. C. by half a game.

There will be a meeting of Newton Twilight League managers at the Newton Centre Recreation Building, Tuesday, July 21st, at 8:30 p. m.

Lists of players for the final three weeks of the season should be prepared and this new list will become effective on Monday, July 27th. Consideration should be given to the making of these final lists as no changes will be allowed after the lists become effective.

How Soon Could You Raise $1,000

IT'S often said the man with money makes money.

Who hasn't heard of some business that could be bought "dirt cheap" for "spot cash." Or a piece of property for sale "for a song." Not to mention that good second hand car that's a bargain at the price.

You can take advantage of such opportunities if you prepare yourself by saving for them! Are you?

From Horseless Carriages To Nash Cars

The writer is not an expert on automobiles. But he has had some experience with them. More properly we should say some experiences. It is 37 years since the writer, who once assisted in making horseless carriages. And 37 years ago automobiles were few in number, of crude construction and very uncertain in performance. In fact, about the only reliable horseless buggy in those days was the Stanley Steam Carriage which was manufactured in a small factory on Maple st., Newton by the Stanley brothers of this city. The Stanley Steam Carriage was so superior to the horseless buggies of the late 90s, which were propelled by internal combustion motors of one or two cylinders, that it won national fame and in 1898 the Locomobile Company of America purchased the right to manufacture these carriages from the Stanley brothers. We went to work in the factory on Maple st. several months later and continued there until the Locomobile Company moved the business the following year to Bridgeport.

We distinctly recall the "one lung" horseless wagons which noisily chugged along rough gravel roads. If one traveled 25 miles without motor or the trouble 35 years ago, one bragged about it. We remember the friction drive automobiles made by Metz in Waltham which would have revolutionized motor car manufacturing except that the disc wheels which contacted with the drive wheel became glazed. We rode in the chain driven vehicles which were most numerous among automobiles at the beginning of this century and we operated cars with planetary type transmission before gear-shift automobiles proved their superiority. A score of years ago we got thrills and injuries by riding and being hurled off a motorcycle. In recent years we have driven modern automobiles scores of thousands of miles. So, while we admit we are no expert as regards automobiles, our experiences with them have been long and varied.

Recently we rode in an ultra-modern automobile—the NASH AMBASSADOR and its performance was so amazing that we could not help but realize what progress has been made in motor cars even during the past few years. We were given a demonstration in the NASH by Douglas Graves of the August Osterlund Company of 724 Beacon st., Newton Centre. He drove the car over rough, gravel roads and streets which badly need resurfacing to prove that the car takes bumps and hollows without jouncing its passengers in the least. Around curves at high speed the Nash went without the least side sway. The motor accelerated quickly and without the slightest effort and when a speed of 45 miles was reached a simple shift into an automatic cruising gear reduced the engine revolutions to such a degree that the car just rolled along at medium speed smoothness, and with resultant economy in gasoline consumption.

Not only in mechanical performance was this NASH outstanding. With a wheelbase of 125 inches and an overall length of 207 inches, exceptionally wide front and rear seats, each seating three comfortably, one rode with the luxurious ease you would expect only in a Pullman. The car gave the impression of possessing power, stability, economy in operation. It surely merits the slogan "Luxury at No Extra Cost." It is delivered fully equipped in Newton for $1062. If you want our honest opinion, one gets a marvelous value in the 1936 NASH.

therine and Margaret Conroy of Newtonville and Mrs. Mary Finn of Allston; a son, Joseph Conroy of Newtonville; and three sisters, Misses Catherine and Margaret Doyle and Mrs. Martin Higgins, all of Newtonville. Driver of Car In Fatal Accident Fined $50

Arnold B. Davis, 21, of 35 Pulsifer st., Newtonville, was fined $50 by Judge Allen in the Newton court on Tuesday for driving an automobile so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. Davis was the driver of the car which hit and fatally injured James A. Robblee of 288 Newtonville ave., as the latter was walking across Washington st., opposite Harvard st., on the night of July 3rd. William Leonard, assistant city engineer testified that the street was well lighted at that location and that tire marks showed that the car had traveled 94 feet after the brakes had been applied.

Davis testified that the car was going between 30 and 35 miles per hour when the accident occurred and that he did not see Robblee until the car was almost on top of him. Davis said that he detected an odor of liquor from Robblee when he assisted in taking the injured man from the scene of the crash to Newton Hospital. A young woman testifying in Davis' behalf said she saw the victim stagger across Washington st. before Davis' car hit him. Judge Allen in finding Davis guilty commented that we can't have persons driving cars through Newton taking their eyes off the road and killing people. A charge of manslaughter against Davis was dismissed.

Prevent Bad Fire In Newton Garage

The detection of a fire in the garage of Frank Battles at 27 Bacon st., Newton by Clyde Holmes at 10:08 last Friday night, probably prevented the destruction of a large number of automobiles. Holmes, who is stage manager at the Paramount Theatre, observed smoke issuing from the garage building across the street. He telephoned fire alarm headquarters and Engine 1 responded. The firemen forced an entrance into the garage and found a blazing automobile. They extinguished the fire before it spread to 23 other automobiles which were in the building. The fire was supposed to have been caused by a carelessly thrown cigarette earlier in the evening.

Brighton Youths Get Jail Terms

John McEachern, 18, of Dunboy st., Brighton, was arraigned in the Newton court last Friday charged with breaking into an A. & P. grocery store on Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill on June 14. McEachern was arrested in Burlington, Vermont last week for drunkenness. He blabbed to the Vermont police that he was wanted in Newton for burglary. The Newton police were notified and Inspectors Crowley and King went to Burlington and brought McEachern to Newton. Judge Allen found McEachern guilty and sentenced him to 2 years in Middlesex County prison. The sentence was suspended and McEachern was returned to Shirley Reform School from which he was on parole.

As a result of information given to Newton police by McEachern, James Larkin, 19, of 47 Turner st., Brighton was arrested and arraigned in the Newton court on Saturday, charged with having participated in the burglary. He was also sentenced to serve 2 years in prison but the sentence was suspended on condition that he make restitution. A carton of cigarettes and $11 in cash was stolen.

Fire In Waban Market $3000 Loss

A fire in the Waban Fruit Market at 4 Windsor rd., Waban, had gotten such headway before it was discovered by Patrolmen McCormack and Murphy at 12:04 a. m. that it caused $3000 damage to the building and stock in the store. The building is owned by the Strong estate and the market by Stavrus Pachus. The policemen noticed heavy smoke issuing from the store and pulled Box 52. When the firemen arrived the cellar was a mass of flames. A short circuit in the motor of the refrigerating apparatus in the cellar is supposed to have caused the fire.

Second Annual Folk Festival At Auburndale

On the campus at Lasell Junior College, Auburndale, students at the fifty-third annual session of The American Institute of Normal Methods will present a folk festival at 4 p. m. Saturday, July 25th. The festival this year includes a Greek wedding procession and an Italian Vendemmia, or Grape Harvest. Stella Marek Cushing, nationally known authority on folk music and customs, will supervise the production with the details under the direction of Miss Sally Root of New York and Miss Andronike Mekelatos of Lowell. Fifty members of the cast who participated in the festival at the Lowell Centennial in May are coming from Lowell for the Greek scene, while more than one hundred students of The Institute will comprise the cast for the Italian festival.

The purpose of these festivals is to train teachers of music to organize school and community activities which will enlist the cooperation of groups of citizens of foreign birth or extraction in preserving folk music and customs. The movement is gaining headway in many communities, so that greater cooperation is being developed between the school and community life. The great success of the festival last year which brought spectators from all over New England encouraged the management of The Institute to continue the program.

Big Truck Tips Over at Oak Hill

A big Mack truck went out of control while turning from Dedham st. onto Parker st. at Oak Hill last Friday afternoon at 2:50, crashed through a hedge on the property of Arthur L. Lewis opposite 537 Parker st., grazed a tree and overturned. The driver, Ernest Hickey of Taylor st., Neponset jumped as the truck started to tip over. He received an injury to his right ankle and was taken to the Newton Hospital by Patrolmen Monroe and Tante. Hickey reported that the brakes on the truck, which was owned by J. P. O'Connell of Roxbury, went wrong as he was going down the grade from Dedham st. toward Parker st. and in order to avoid hitting some parked cars he swerved sharply to the right.

Auburndale Man Fined for Speeding

Herbert Jones of 69 West Pine st., Auburndale, was fined $10 in the Newton court on Monday by Judge Weston for speeding. A charge of failing to stop when signalled to do so by an officer, was placed on Jones. Patrolman Dalton testified that as Jones was speeding by him, he not only blew his whistle, but also raised his hand. Jones stated that he supposed the policeman was only signalling him to drive slower.

T. B. Tendencies In School Pupils Less This Year

Fewer children in Newton schools showed a tendency toward T. B. according to the tuberculosis clinics held the past year by physicians from Middlesex County Sanatorium. Of 1867 children who took tests this year, 121 percent showed positive reactions. Last year the percentage was 15.4. Only one child had an active case of tuberculosis. Tests were given to 64.2 percent of the 2908 pupils in the 7th, 8th, and 9th grades. Of the 226 who showed positive reactions, 224 were x-rayed. Following the x-ray test, 37 children were given further physical examinations and 32 were listed for further examinations. In addition to the child having an active case of T. B., another child was found to have tuberculosis of the glands.

Hold Hobby Day At Playground

A hobby day was held at the Horace Mann playground, Newtonville on Tuesday afternoon. It was participated in by about 400 children from the Horace Mann, Hawthorn, Stearns, Victory and Boyd playgrounds. The feature of the day was an exhibition of pets, 110 being shown. New Buildings At Andover Newton

Two new buildings to cost $100,000 will be erected this year at Andover Newton Theological School, Newton Centre. Funds to defray the cost of the buildings have been raised, the Earhart Foundation providing the money for one of the buildings. A campaign to raise $25,000 for furnishing the two structures will soon be started. One of the buildings will be for administrative purposes. The other will contain an assembly hall seating 400, and students quarters.

Fahey To Run For Alderman

Edward A. Fahey of 60 Allison st., Nonantum, has announced that he will be a candidate for Ward Alderman from Ward 1 at the city election next December. He is a lifelong resident of that district, a graduate of Newton schools and of the Northeastern University School of Law. He is a member of the Massachusetts bar and a lawyer by profession.

Nonantum Baby Badly Scalded

Lorraine Mazzola, 20 months old, of 236 Adams st., Nonantum, was badly scalded last Friday at her home when some hot water which her mother was carrying in a pan was spilled on to her arm. The child was treated by Dr. Herman Shrier and then taken to the Newton Hospital in a police car.

Earl Carpenter, extension service secretary, has announced. Mr. Jenness will address vegetable growers at their meeting on Wednesday, July 29, on the subject of trellis tomatoes. Farm and Home Week is an annual event for homemakers and farmers of the state. Talks, demonstrations, exhibitions, and discussions are scheduled for fruit growers, dairymen, vegetable growers, poultrymen, beekeepers, homemakers, nurserymen, and those interested in flower gardens, forestry, agricultural conservation, lawns and farm crops. Special meetings will be held for Grange members, Farm Bureau women, members of Parent-Teacher associations, and Massachusetts milk inspectors.

Speaks At Onset On Prohibition

Mrs. Mabelle M. Groves of Parker st. was the speaker at a summer vacation gathering of women in Onset Tuesday. The rooms were well filled and much interest was shown in her subject, "Changing Conditions and the New Sentiment Against the Liquor Traffic, Gambling and Race-Tracks." The speaker, secretary of the Woman's Union for Political Action, and National vice-president of the same, gave a report of a survey made recently throughout the nation by the National Council for Temperance revealing the existence of great activity in the Dry forces, making it seem very obvious that less encouragement is given to the Liquor traffic where the welfare of the common people is most studied and showing that humanity must free itself from the trammels of the drink evil if social well-being is to be attained.

Drunken Driving Charged With

DOES HISTORY REPEAT ITSELF?

Although many Newton residents become well-known in their various fields of endeavor it is seldom that a local person is elected to a high state political office. Speaker Leverett Saltonstall of Chestnut Hill will unquestionably be the Republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor. At the pre-primary convention at Springfield in June he was a candidate for the endorsement as the gubernatorial candidate. He came within a few votes of receiving endorsement on the first ballot although two votes behind John W. Haigis who captured the prize on the second ballot. Mr. Saltonstall's subsequent graceful action, characteristic of his sportsmanship, resulted in his receiving second place on the ticket by acclamation. The resulting opinion of political observers has since been that the Speaker of the House made an indelible impression upon the convention that made him an even stronger candidate than ever. His action spelled harmony for the top of the ticket.

With the Democratic party engaged in a more or less uncertain squabble for various places on the ticket and more particularly that of Lieutenant Governor the chances of the popular Republican legislative leader from Chestnut Hill grow better and better as time goes on. Characterized for his fairness, as well as his ability and other attributes, he will receive many Democratic votes. With this probability it would not be surprising if he polled the most votes of any of the seven statewide Republican nominees.

History shows that more than thirty years ago, in 1900, to be exact, John L. Bates of Newton became Lieutenant Governor. He then acceded to the Governorship in 1903 and served until 1905. Thirty-four years prior to these dates William Claflin of Newtonville was Lieutenant Governor in 1866 and he became governor in 1869. Will history repeat itself in the next few years with the election of Speaker Saltonstall to the Lieutenant Governorship and later to the office of Governor?

GUESSWORK AND IMAGINATION

Newspaper reports of the past few days relate, with considerable innuendo and guesswork, of the formation of a group of civic-minded Newton citizens into an organization with the aim of maintaining good government in the city of Newton. Having known of the proposed movement for two weeks we have refrained from making comment upon it until such time as the charter was granted and official announcement and explanation was made of its aims and purposes.

The recent stories state that the organization will attempt to prevent the re-election of some of the present official family of the city. From this angle the association becomes cloaked with the designation as an "anti" organization. We are confident that such is not the case and we do not believe it to be too remote a possibility to find that some of those who could be considered as potential targets under such unreliable assumptions may turn out to be enthusiastic supporters of the movement. Those interested in the formation of the association are apparently building slowly and are deliberating carefully with the intention of taking no step which could be misunderstood. Thus it is to be regretted that a false impression may grow out of the recent news stories. When the full facts of the organization and its aims and purposes become known there will be occasion for comment or criticism. Until then there can only be guesswork and imagination.

UNION SERVICES FOR SIX CHURCHES

Rev. Dr. Harry P. Dewey, summer minister, and formerly of Minneapolis, will take "The Unseen Companion," as his subject for the union service of six Newtonville and West Newton Churches, to be held at Second Church, West Newton, Sunday, July 26, at 11 o'clock. The music program is as follows: Prelude, "Benediction," Rowley; anthem, "Still, Still with Thee," Foote; offertory, "Beside Still Waters," Hamblen.

The entry of Robert Goldich, 13, one of the most remarkable archery shots in Massachusetts or the east for the invitation archery tournament to be held next Saturday in Brookline has caused much interest among those who follow this oldest and least known of sports. Young Goldich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Goldich of Newton Centre. Mrs. Goldich, herself an archer of note, is secretary-treasurer of the Newton Archers Club.

Young Goldich holds the eastern junior record of 630, just two points short of the national record and he hopes to better this score on Saturday in preparation for the national tournament to be held at Battle Creek, Mich., August 3-7.

The tournament Saturday to which all interested in the sport are invited, no tickets being needed, will be held on the spacious grounds of Longwood Towers, 20 Chapel st., Brookline. The full American Round will be shot. There are twenty crack archers picked from an active list of 3,000 Massachusetts archers. The tournament begins at 2:30 o'clock.

The eleven day gathering of the Northfield Conference of Religious Education drawing to a close this week at East Northfield has been attended by four hundred delegates from hundreds of churches in New England, New York and New Jersey. Among the delegates, some of whom are eligible for diplomas are Bessie L. Doherty of 33 Charlesbank rd., Charles Conway of 269 Church st., and Betty Tobey of 194 Bellevue st., Newton; Harriet Center of 22 Glenwood ave., and Rev. James P. Berkeley, Professor at Andover Newton Seminary, 82 Oxford rd., Newton Centre.

More than one hundred children from the Abundant and West Newton schools are attending special music classes at the Williams School on Hancock st. The instruction is provided through the co-operation of Superintendent Julius Warren and the faculty of the American Institute of Normal Methods which is holding its fifty-third annual session at Lasell Junior College. Classes are offered in singing, listening, dancing, creative music, piano, and woodwind and brass instruments.

Parents and friends are invited to visit classes on Saturday morning, July 25, from 9 to 11:00. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon, on the campus at Lasell, the children will take part in a Folk Festival program with the students of the Institute. To this program also, parents and the interested public of Abundant and vicinity are cordially invited. The festival includes a Greek wedding procession directed by Miss Andronike Mekelatos of Lowell and an Italian Harvest scene directed by Miss Sally Root and Miss Mekelatos. In the former scene, many of the participants come specially from Lowell where they represented their program in May as part of the Lowell centennial. Students of the Institute, both senior and junior divisions, will comprise the cast of the Italian Festival.

After the festival, children who have been in regular attendance at the Williams School will be given an ice cream party on the lawn at Lasell.

Dr. James L. Mursell, Professor of Education at Teachers College, Columbia University, will address The American Institute of Normal Methods on July 24th and 25th. The first of his lectures on music education will be held Friday at 8 p. m., and the second on Saturday at 11 a. m., both in Bragdon Hall, Lasell Junior College, Abundant.

Letters To The Editor

MOSQUITO NUISANCE

To the Editor:

My home is in Waban on Quinbequin rd. This is near the Charles River. As all the residents along the Charles River, in whatever town they live, will testify the mosquito nuisance is intolerable. A move is underway to abate this nuisance. The State through its Reclamation Division is willing to attempt through supervision of drainage projects to mitigate this nuisance. Works Progress Administration has made allotments of some money to some cities and towns.

It is desirable that Newton take this up and push it along as some of the other towns are doing. It is to be hoped that the Newton Board of Health, the Mayor, the Metropolitan District Commission and other agencies, and the people in general, co-operate in getting the Charles River marshes, flood plains and other breeding places drained, and signify their wishes to the State Reclamation Division whose Chairman, Mr. Edward Wright, is interested in this endeavor.

The Mason and Dixon Line is the boundary line dividing Virginia and Maryland from Pennsylvania.

60 YEARS AGO

Newton Republican, July 24, 1874
Editor Republican:

We would like to say a word on the matter of Sunday trains. Several citizens of Newton petitioned last year for Sunday trains to and from Boston. The railroad company so far acceded to this request as to stop their New York trains twice a day (once each way). This arrangement has continued and has given general satisfaction to those who wished these trains to be run. Now these trains are troubled in number, and the din and bustle of six additional trains is added to break the Sabbath stillness. We expect these through trains will run, although it would better meet our views to give the railroad men the day for rest, and we do not think there is a demand for these additional trains. Over 200 passengers were carried each way last Sunday, or an aggregate of about 450. This will hardly prove a paying business for the railroad company, although the Sunday tariff is higher than the week day.

Every lover of the Sabbath as a day of rest, deplores the growing tendency to disregard the proper duties of the day, and to make it rather a holiday and day for recreation. The objection that the rough element of Boston is brought out on such days found ample verification last Sunday. The gross sense of the communities on the B. & A. railroad revolts at this innovation, and the desecration of the Sabbath for pleasure travel. Other objections to these trains being run might be stated, but our only object now is to call attention to the growing disregard for the Sabbath and its hallowed influences, that the young men and women now growing up may be made better and live better, rather than be encouraged to disregard those things which are the foundation of our prosperity as a nation and State.

Powers' Paragraphs

A few weeks ago a retired army general residing in Washington, wrote to the postoffice at Newton for information regarding the monument in the old Newton cemetery on Centre st., erected as a memorial to the early settlers of this community. The names of several of his wife's ancestors are inscribed on the monument and the former army officer desires a photograph of the memorial. His request was referred to us and the other day we went to the old cemetery to take the photograph. We observed that the old burying ground has not been receiving the care it deserves as the resting place of those who were the first citizens of Newtowne. Many of the old graves need grading and a number of the old slate and marble headstones are partly toppled over or have fallen to the ground. The slabs which are in danger of falling down and breaking, should be attended to at once, and those slabs which lie broken on the ground should be replaced. The sturdy men and women who settled Newton deserve this respect to their memories. And some of the many men on WPA projects in such areas as Cabot Park or Cold Spring area might well be sent to the old cemetery to fill in the sunken graves and otherwise improve the resting place of the first Newtonians.

The other afternoon we received telephone calls from residents of Oak Hill regarding an accident involving a large truck. In turning from Dedham st. onto Parker st., the big truck went out of control, crashed through shrubbery and tipped over on an adjoining lawn. The ladies who called us on the telephone assert that large trucks hauling gravel and crushed stone have been speeding along Dedham and Parker sts. at high speeds. They state that these rapidly moving trucks not only constitute a menace to people using the streets, but are especially dangerous to the many children living in the rapidly growing Oak Hill section. Our informants also say that the noise and vibrations caused by rapidly moving, heavily loaded trucks cause a serious nuisance to residents along the streets affected. They expressed the hope that the police department will stop the speeding of the trucks.

A young Wellesley man, who had a long and honorable record in the United States Army, was fatally injured several days ago when the car he was driving on the Worcester turnpike at Framingham was hit by a truck. The truck was being operated at a high rate of speed on the South roadway of the turnpike by a youth who lost control of the vehicle. The truck hurled the granite curbed reservation on the turnpike and crashed into the small car which was going the opposite direction, fatally injuring Sergeant Weeks. The 21-year-old driver of the truck was found guilty of reckless driving and sentenced to serve 30 days in jail. A day or two later another 21-year-old truck driver on the Providence turnpike at Sharon hit a car traveling the opposite direction and then smashed into a small sedan. Four occupants of the sedan were killed; the fifth, a 2-year-old child, was critically injured. Her father, mother and grandmother were killed in the collision.

It is said that the table presided over by Mrs. C. P. Harkins, Miss Stuart and Mrs. FitzPatrick at the fair of the Church of Our Lady, was the banner table, its receipts were nearly $1500. The total realized by the fair was $10,182.

While workmen were digging a new driveway at Dr. J. W. Bartlett's estate on Hunnewell ave., the other day, one of them found an Indian pestle in a good state of preservation. Indian relics used to be very common on Brighton Hill.

25 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, July 21, 1911
Mayor Hatfield is enjoying a 10 days' vacation at his camp on Lake Winnepesaukee, New Hampshire.

A very enjoyable phonograph party was given at the residence of Mr. George Breeden, 75 Walker st., on Wednesday evening. As C. Jewett, Eminent Commander elect of Gethsemane Commandery was at the throttle of the machine. Ice cream and cake were served on the piazza which was beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns.

Policeman Enegeess had a rather trying experience on Wednesday evening. While patrolling his route he noticed that a window was unlocked in the house of W. F. Gregory, Walnut st., Newtonville. He entered the house through the window and locked it. While leaving the house by the front door, the spring lock of the inner door closed behind him, and as the outer door only could be opened with a key, the officer was shut in the vestibule as closely as if in a cell. It was sometime before his rapping on the front door brought assistance. He was confined for about an hour and a half.

The building boom in Newton continues, with few Newton contractors engaged in the construction of the houses, and few Newton workmen employed on them.

Some weeks ago a move was started in the Board of Aldermen to stop ice cream trucks from parking for hours on streets in residential sections to peddle the frozen stuff. Apparently no progress was made. The trucks are still doing business in the residence zones.

The death at Glendale, Calif., on Tuesday of Earle Ovington, formerly of Newton Centre, brings to mind the phenomenal progress of aviation. Twenty-five years ago airplanes were crude, unsafe and a novelty. Experienced fliers were few in number. Mr. Ovington was one of the pioneer aviators. He had gone to Blériot's school at Pau, France, and learned to fly. At one of the early aviation meets in this country, at Squantum, on Sept. 5, 1911, Ovington won $10,000 offered by the Boston Globe for what was at that time a very long flight. The course was from Boston to Nashua, Worcester, Providence and back to Squantum. He also conceived the idea of air mail and innovated this modern postal service by carrying a pouch of mail a short distance over Long Island, New York.

The weather has been so hot and we have listened to and read so much additional hot air from politicians, would-be politicians, political commentators and alleged political commentators, that we will not burden our readers with our views on the political situation until the torrid spell is over. This is the vacation season and most folks are endeavoring to enjoy recreation in some form or other. Nearly four months are yet available to discuss politics. We will venture to suggest, however, that aspirants to public offices, especially young men who have more ambition than experience, will gain more votes by attempting to tell of their own qualifications, rather than by trying to indulge in detraction of their prospective opponents. Usually, any candidate for political office who resorts to adverse criticism of his opponents does so because he has nothing (or little) to tell favorable to himself.

Several years ago a drinking fountain at Watertown and Chapel sts., Nonantum, was removed because it was a nuisance. Now, another drinking fountain is being installed at the corner of Watertown and Chapel sts. because the children of that district have made themselves a nuisance going into stores asking for a drink of water. This same condition exists in other villages of this city. Drinking fountains were removed in past years and children are continually hounding persons operating stores with requests (and demands) for a drink of water. Some of the children are really thirsty, and are not near their homes when they seek a drink of water. With other children such requests are just a habit, and some of them, going into stores for a drink of water, could walk a short distance and get a drink at their own homes. We believe there should be a drinking fountain in each business centre, not only to provide water for children but also for adults. Parents and teachers should warn the children not to use the fountains for playthings.

Boys are unnecessarily operating the newly installed pedestrian traffic signal on Washington st., near Adams st. This practice is dangerous and is causing needless bother to many hundreds of automobile operators. The police should bring some of the boys fooling with the signal to headquarters and warn them, and should the boys not heed the warning, a trip to the juvenile court might have the desired effect.

When one considers what the people of Germany and Italy have been through, and the internal strife in France and Spain today, one realizes that conditions in this country are wonderful in comparison, except for the fact that 36,000 persons were killed and 900,000 injured last year because of automobile accidents. The total number of casualties in all European countries because of wars and revolutions is small when compared with the number of deaths and injuries resulting from reckless operation of motor vehicles in the U. S. A.

IMMENSITY OF THE AMAZON

The area drained by the Amazon and its tributaries totals more than 2,970,000 square miles, largely untamed tropical forests, and the volume of water discharged into the sea annually is probably five times as much as that of the Mississippi—our "Old Man River". Vessels of small draught can ascend the Amazon proper more than 3,600 miles.

Kiwanis Club

At the weekly meeting of the New-ton Kiwanis Club on Tuesday, July 21, 1936, at the Charles River Country Club, President J. Ernest Gibson and Mr. James B. Riggs discussed the coming inter-club meeting to be given in honor of James P. Gallagher's election to the International Board of Trustees, one of the highest and most distinguished positions in Kiwanis. This meeting will be held on Wednes-day, July 29, 1936, at the Woodland Golf Club.

The speaker of the day was Mr. Joel W. Eastman of the American Constitutionalists, and his subject was, "What the Constitution has Done for Me."

In a most effective and interesting manner, Mr. Eastman traced the salient features of law and order from the early ages. Man first communicated his views by means of sounds; these sounds later became languages, and around the family was built up the first semblance of law. Down through the time of the Babylonians, the wisdom of Athens, and the night of Rome, the idea of law continued to grow until the Colonists landed in America with a royal charter from the King. This charter was the first written law of Government.

Then came the Revolution, and after that, the forming of the Constitution of the United States, considered by Gladstone and others as the greatest document ever evolved by the mind of man. The Constitution delegated to the Federal Government certain powers, and all authority not so specifically delegated to the Federal Government, was given to the separate States, and under the terms of this great document, every citizen was guaranteed certain inalienable rights of which no person or body could deprive him.

Mr. Eastman left with the members, "The Key to the Constitution of the United States" by Francis Clay Har-ley. Copies of this interesting and highly instructive book relating to the Constitution and our form of Govern-ment will be sent to all interested parties by the American Constitution-alists.

Newton Women At Fernside Vacation House

Mrs. Joseph Lovell, of West Newton, is acting as house mother at the Fernside Vacation House, on the slope of Mt. Wachusett, this summer. Fernside is an endowed vacation house for business women and girls, situated in the beautiful countryside of Prince-ton.

Other Newton women who will serve as Fernside hostesses this summer are Miss Helen E. Nowell, of Newton Highlands, a teacher in the Newton primary school; Mrs. Franklin Field, and Miss Helen Rose, a member of the Newton board of directors. The hostesses, each of whom will spend two weeks at Fernside, will supervise the sports, which include lawn tennis, mountain climbing, and trips to the nearby lake for boating and swimming, and the dramatic, musical, and social programs.

For 47 years, since it was started by a group of public-spirited Boston women, Fernside has provided a pleasant, restful vacation in the country for business women and girls who could not otherwise afford it. Over 200 Greater Boston girls and women went there last year for rest, relaxation, and sports. In the comfortable old farmhouse, the girls stage amateur theatricals. Well-known speakers are also features of evenings at Fernside.

Registration for any one or two-week period can be made Tuesday or Friday from 5:30 to 6:30 p. m. at the Women's Educational and Industrial Union, 264 Boylston st., Boston.

DEAD SEA FRUIT

The apples of Sodom, which grow on the banks of the Dead Sea, are not apples, but a seeming fruit with a beautiful outside covering and ashes within. Figuratively, Dead Sea fruit applied to the disappointment found in sin.

Hunting Dogs Were Used Long Ago by Egyptians

The history of the hunting dog is clouded in antiquity. Ancient rock carvings tell us hunting dogs were known in Egypt thousands of years ago, but the story of the first domestication of the dog and its development into a hunting companion for man is lost to us for always. Possibly somewhere back in the dim ages, when man himself had just risen above the brute and lived in terror of monster carnivorous creatures which then roamed the earth, a caveman captured his first wild dog puppy and brought it back to his home among the ledges where, in his loneliness, he fed and nurtured the animal until he won its affection. Later, probably, he taught the dog to assist him in the chase.

This, of course, is purely conjecture, writes Donald Stillman in the New York Herald-Tribune. But in the United States, where more pure breeds are recognized than in any other country, the hunting dog is employed for a variety of purposes ranging from pointing and retrieving on upland game birds and waterfowl to big game hunting for panther and bear.

Most stories or accounts of hunting dogs are concerned largely with the efficiency of a well-trained animal or, otherwise, the serious side of the hunt-ing dog question.

"Forgotten Men" Date to Ancient British History

During the reign of Charles II, a garrison at Algiers, in North Africa, was forgotten for six years. Faithful to their charge, the soldiers might have spent the rest of their lives waiting but for a party of sailors who discovered them by accident. Of the original 15 officers, only one was alive. The soldiers were in rags and almost starving.

Even more unbelievable, observes a writer in the Washington Post, is the case of the H. M. S. Falmouth, a first-class British warship sent to Batavia in 1776, and forgotten for more than ten years by the British admiralty!

Captain Wallis, commanding the sloop Dolphin, discovered the warship when he called at Batavia and heard the boom of a big gun at sunset. Investigating, he found the Falmouth rotting in the mud offshore. There was not a patch of paint on her, and her sails and rigging were rotting on the masts. The sailors were in rags—gaunt, hungry wretches who clustered around him like scarecrows. All the officers were dead and the last surviving petty officer was a raving maniac.

The crew begged to be taken off, but Captain Wallis couldn't do it without permission from the admiralty. So despite their suffering, the men had to stay on until he returned to England and explained their plight.

Age of Presidents

The youngest chief executive at the time of his death was James K. Polk, who was fifty-three. Fourteen Presidents completed the Biblical span of threescore and ten; four of them reached eighty, and John Adams was ninety when he died. Among the Vice Presidents only three failed to attain the age of sixty; 16 reached seventy; five were more than eighty years old at the time of their deaths, and Levi P. Morton, who was Benjamin Harrison's running mate, lived to be ninety-six.

White Horse an Emblem

The standard of the ancient Saxons was a white horse, and thus became the emblem of the County of Kent, states a writer in Answers Magazine. A galloping white horse is the device of the House of Hanover. There is a third "white horse"—a rampant animal, the device of the House of Saxon, descended from the Saxon horse. It is from the second of these that the popular inn sign, the White Horse, is obtained, and usually the animal is depicted as galloping, according to the capacity of the artist.

Bushmaster Snakes

Bushmasters are rare in menageries, not so much on account of their scarcity in their native countries as because they seldom survive in captivity. They are highly strung snakes, and the rough treatment they receive during capture, for they are too dreaded to be treated gently, usually causes a hunger strike that only ends with their deaths. They are the largest and most deadly of the South American snakes.

Rest for Captain Kidd

In 1696, Captain Kidd was the owner, by purchase, of a lot of ground in a part of New York city then just being sold off in building lots. The lot was in Tienhoven street, now Liberty street, near Nassau street. There, according to accounts of the times, says the New York Sun, he erected a mansion expecting doubtless "to pass the evening of his days in the city of his adoption."

Greatest Tight-Rope Walker

Blondin (1824-1897) was the greatest tight-rope walker in history. Of all his famous tricks, many of which were performed over Niagara falls, one of his most startling was performed during an engagement at the Crystal Palace in London in 1861, where he turned somersaults on stilts on a rope suspended 170 feet from the ground.—Collier's Weekly.

Under the leadership of W. R. Speirs, International Scout and Director of Scoutcraft at Quinapoxet this summer, a selected group of campers went to bed at three o'clock yesterday afternoon and were awakened at 9:30 when Taps were sounding for the remainder of the campers. The first item on the program was a hot breakfast (called supper to people in the city when served at this hour). After each had eaten his fill, the party slung packs and started down the Sawdust Trail for Mt. Monadnock and what was for many the first view of a mountain sunrise.

"Lunch" was partaken at about 2:30 a. m. at the Flagpole, famous starting place for most of the trips up the mountain. Then started the climb so familiar to all during the daylight hours but so different by flashlight. The last part of the trip was done in the slowly increasing light as dawn approached.

Many Visitors at Camp Over Week-end

On Monday evening, Russell E. Wood, Chairman of the Cambridge School Committee, and Mrs. Wood made their first visit to Quinapoxet, bringing Raymond Fitzgerald, nephew of Benedict Fitzgerald, Supervisor of Music in the Schools, to camp for the remainder of the summer.

Sunday proved to be the largest visitors' day in recent years, there being over 100 guests present to view the interesting watercraft exhibition. Lunch was served the visitors on the porch of Rotary Lodge and members of the Camp Staff held open house in Amy Lodge.

Guests included Miss Ida Callum of Cambridge; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harnish of Magazine st., Cambridge; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bernard of Somerville; Mr. and Mrs. George T. Nelson of Cliff rd., West Newton; Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse L. Madden of Quinapoxet rd., Waban; Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Robey of 25 Westminister rd., Newtonville; Dr. and Mrs. Bradford Thompson of Walnut st., Newton Highlands; Mr. and Mrs. George Graf of Newton Upper Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ross of Newton Highlands; Miss Ann Schipper of Newtonville; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Van Roosen of Centre st., Newton Centre; Mr. William Kenney of Pilgrim st., Cambridge; Mr. Henry D. White of Wellesley; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Garland of Ellery st., Cambridge.

Many Scouts Win Honors

The camp mystery, which was brought to the attention of the scouts last week, caused many new shivers, had many climaxes and still remains unsolved. Earl Barrett, Ranger on Mt. Monadnock, called upon the campers to help solve the mystery of the mountain. The mystery escaped from the mountain and made its headquarters right in the vicinity of Quinapoxet before the week ended.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

INDEPENDENTS PLAY TUESDAY AT FENWAY

The Newton Independents, who shuttle back and forth between the Newton Twilight League and the Newton County League, and do fairly well in both circuits, have been selected as one of the twelve teams in Massachusetts to take part in the national semi-professional baseball tournament. Manager Jeff Jones has been notified that the Independents will play their first round game against the Smart Oil nine of Waltham at Fenway Park Tuesday afternoon at 4:30. The winner of the state tournament will be sent to Kansas for the national finals.

The Independents won the first half honors in the Twin-County League, and it was largely due to their strong showing that they were selected for the sectional playoffs. Jeff Jones is not over-optimistic about the chances of his club in the state tourney, but thinks that they will be strong enough to play a significant role. Unlike several other clubs, who are going after retired professionals and other outsiders to bolster their pitching strength, the Independents intend to keep their own roster intact as they go into the Fenway game.

Needham Loses 13-4
On Sunday at Needham, the Independents and the Needham A. A. re-played their game of a week earlier, which had to be called a no-decision 8-8 tie after twelve innings. In the second game, the Independents broke a 3-3 deadlock in the fourth inning by a six-run rally, then added another tally in the seventh and three more in the ninth for a decisive 13-4 victory.

The Independents put across a run in the first inning and three in the third, but Needham kept the pace to equal the score in both instances. Opening the big fourth, John Marrazzo singled, advanced on brother Bert's sacrifice fly, and scored on Joe Greene's two-base hit. Phil "Mucker" Greene walked, and Bill MacAdams singled, scoring Joe Greene. Manager Jeff Jones poked out a three-bagger, pushing across two more runs, and came home in a walk as Phil Andres also hit a triple. Howard Ferguson's sacrifice fly brought Andres in with the sixth and final run of the inning. Phil "Mucker" Greene was the winning pitcher, and Phil Andres got three out of five at the plate. It was the first win of the second half for the Newton team, since they dropped the opener to Natick 5-4 last week.

In the Newton Twilight League, the Independents are forced to do without their dynamic first sacker, Herb Berry, who lives in Watertown. This is sufficient handicap, but Wednesday night they ran into another snag that forced them out of a three-way tie for the league lead. Coming to the field short-handed, the Independents drafted Hal Morrison, who has been listed with the team, but is not eligible to play for it until Monday, according to a league rule. Consequently they forfeited the game to Our Lady's Alumni, and that team took the lead with 11 games won and one lost. West Newton Colored Giants, with 10 won and 3 lost, and the Independents, with 9 and 4, follow close behind.

CITY CHAMPIONSHIP TENNIS TOURNAMENT OPENS

The City of Newton Men's Singles Championship will get under way this week. The draw will be made Wednesday, July 29th, and the first round must be completed by the following Wednesday. Any male resident of Newton 16 years or over may register at any playground or at Playground Department at City Hall for this tournament.

HORSE SHOE GAME AT NEWTON SUNDAY

The Charlesbank Horse Shoe Club of Newton will play the strong Quincy Point Club on Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the Charlesbank Road yard. Both clubs are tied for first place in the South Shore League. Jimmy O'Shea, New England champion, plays on the Quincy team. He averages 60% ringers. William Wiles, star of the Charlesbank team, averages 46% ringers. All followers of the game in Newton are invited to attend.

THE ALEXANDRINE AGE

The years between 323 and 640 A.D., when Alexandria, Egypt, was the seat of the highest culture, constitute the Alexandrine Age. The great library was burned long before this time.

St. Thomas More
St. Thomas More lived some 200 years after St. Ives, rising to prominence in legal and royal court circles in England during the reign of King Henry VIII as Sir Thomas More. St. Thomas began his career as a lawyer and was elected a member of parliament. He was made privy counselor, knighted by the king and subsequently made lord chancellor. He held the latter office only three years, resigning after a clash with the king. When he refused to take the oath of supremacy in 1534 he was imprisoned in the Tower of London. Charged with high treason he was sentenced to death and on July 6 of the same year beheaded on Tower hill.

NEWTON TWI LEAGUE

A meeting of managers of Newton Twilight League was held Wednesday evening, July 22nd, at Newton Centre Recreation Building. Lists of players eligible for the final three weeks and for the playoffs were accepted to be effective Monday, July 27th.

The matter of having an All-Star game was discussed and it was decided to have two teams, one selected from the Senior Circuit and one from the Junior Circuit, play a preliminary game. From these two teams a group of players will be selected to represent the Newton Twilight League in competition with a special attraction from outside the city.

The annual banquet will be held late in August so that members of the Boston Red Sox may be present. Manager Barwise of the Y. M. C. A., who so successfully handled the banquet last year, has been delegated to secure accommodations for this year's banquet.

The strain of playing four or five games a week in two leagues is beginning to tell on the Independents and as a result of this reaction Independents were forced to forfeit to Our Lady's Wednesday evening because of lack of regular players on the field. The game was played with Harold Morrison filling in behind the bat for the Independents. Final score Independents 7, Our Lady's 6.

Standings in the Junior Circuit have been revised so that only games played in the Junior Circuit are counted. All games played against Senior teams have been thrown out. At the close of the regular season a series between the three leading teams of the Junior Circuit will be arranged.

TEMPLE BAR

Temple Bar, London, was a stone house above which the heads of traitors used to be exposed. It was torn down in 1878.

Meaning of Holy, Sacred

Sacred is applied to that which is to be regarded as inviolable on any account, and so is not restricted to divine things; therefore in its lower applications it is less than holy, says Literary Digest. That which is sacred may be made so by institution, decree, or association; that which is holy is so by its own nature, possessing intrinsic moral purity, and, in the highest sense, absolute moral perfection. God is holy; his commands are sacred. Holy may be applied also to that which is hallowed; as, "the place whereon thou standest is holy ground," Ex. 3, 5. In such use holy is more than sacred, as if the very qualities of a spiritual or divine presence were imparted to the place or object.

Desert in Maine

The Maine desert lies within the village of Freeport. This desert is of comparatively recent formation and covers about 800 acres. The land was formerly green fields and pastures. The soil was shallow and the sand immediately beneath. The cause of the present condition is not definitely known—some say that grazing sheep cropped the grass to the roots and destroyed the turf; others attribute it to fire. A second desert lies in the vicinity of Waterville, Maine. This is much smaller.

Jamestown Saved
An American convert to Christianity saved Jamestown, first permanent English settlement in America, from being wiped out in 1622. He gave residents there warning as tribesmen attacked every settlement in Virginia and killed 347 of the total white population of 1240. The convert thereby played an important part in our history. For had Jamestown suffered the fate of the other settlements, English colonization of the new world might have ended. A chain of mishaps doused colonial enthusiasm in England.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Truth" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 26.

The Golden Text is: "God shall send forth his mercy and his truth" (Psalms 57:3).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven. Yea, the Lord shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase" (Psalms 85:11, 12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Truth brings the elements of liberty. On its banner is the Soul-inspired motto, 'Slavery is abolished.' The power of God brings deliverance to the captive. No power can withstand divine Love. . . . Whatever enslaves man is opposed to the divine government. Truth makes man free" (p. 224).

Glove Makers Shave Hides
Milady's gloves must be delicate, thin and flexible. Mere man can stand heavier materials and is not so particular about whether the fit is skin tight or not. But nature does not make animals' hides of uniform thickness, and it is necessary for glove manufacturers to "shave" the tanned hides to uniform thickness. This operation, says the Scientific American, "consists of passing the hide under a rapidly revolving abrasive roll which grinds off the surface and reduces the thickness to the desired degree. Ordinary grinding is one thing, but hide finishing is another, and extreme accuracy is required. The least wobble in the roll would ruin a hide. This might not seem to be such a problem until one realizes the size of a hide. A machine meets these requirements without any difficulty.

"The Shy Little Violet"
Of all the wild flowers that are known to mankind, probably none is so well loved as the violet, observes a writer in the Montreal Herald. "The shy little violet," it has been called, because it seems to hide in shady places among the grass and other plants. Shy or not, it is very widespread and wherever it is found, it is usually very prolific, making up in numbers what it lacks in size. Possibly most people do not know that there are many different kinds of violets to be found on this continent. It is not known just how many, but some claim there are nearly 30 varieties that are distinct and separate.

Bird, Imitator of Sound
The Australian lyrebird is believed to be the best imitator of sound in the animal kingdom. With incredible fidelity it can mimic, for example, the bark of the dog, the crow of the cock, the cry of a child, the hum of a saw and the whistle of a locomotive.—Allen Fiske, Chicago, Ill., in Collier's Weekly.

"By Jiminy" Expression
The constellation Gemini is an interesting group of stars, and one which, strangely enough, was not known to the Chaldeans and other early eastern peoples as the twin brothers we know today, but rather as the two kids. The two bright stars in Gemini, Castor and Pollux, were believed by the ancients to be harbingers of fair weather when they appeared in the sky. The two gods, the twins Castor and Pollux, heroes of the Argonautic expedition, immortalized in the twin stars in the sky, were greatly revered by the Roman legions, whose soldiers swore a favorite oath, "by Gemini." That ancient oath has come down to us as the expression "By Jiminy."—Hayden Planetarium Bulletin.

SIX CUNARDERS BUILT ON THE CLYDE

The Cunard White Star superliner Queen Mary was not the only ship of the great British company built on the River Clyde, Scotland, although she is the most outstanding product of Clydebank. The Carmania and Caronia, in their time sister queens of the sea, were built there. Later the Aquitania took form at Clydebank and became the wonder ship of her age, still being one of the half dozen great ships in the world. The Franconia and Alania were also Clyde-built. Employment thus given to Scotsmen has been deeply appreciated by the people of Scotland, who point with pride to the result of their labors, the world's latest queen of the seas, the Queen Mary. They are also showing great favor to the new Cunard White Star service to Glasgow, with sailings to and from New York every fortnight.

Gods Depicted on Coins

From 112 B. C. on, various gods and goddesses are depicted on coins. The quinaris, about 101 B. C., bear the heads of Jupiter or Apollo, and all have Victory crowing a trophy, except in the case of a coin of M. Porcius Cato, which shows Victory seated. After this period there is an occasional head of Roma on the obverse of denarii, but a multitude of other gods and goddesses, such as Juno, Diana, Saturn, Bacchus and Apollo appear. The reverse are various types and almost defy classification and cover a maze of subjects, ranging from religion to architecture.

QUEEN MARY TO CARRY LARGEST LIFEBOT FLEET

When the new Cunard White Star liner "Queen Mary" left Southampton on her maiden voyage to New York she was equipped with the greatest fleet of lifeboats ever carried by an Atlantic liner. This fleet comprised twenty-four massive all-steel boats. Twenty-two of the boats measure 36 feet long, 12 feet wide and 5 feet deep, the remaining two being 30 feet long, 9 feet wide and 4 feet deep. Each boat is large enough to accommodate 145 people—a greater number than the entire complement of 115 passengers carried by the first Cunard steamship "Britannia," in 1840. All of these lifeboats are driven by powerful diesel engines, the first complete installation of diesel-driven motor life boats.

Where Armadillos Live

Armadillos are found in South and Central America. The name is a diminutive of the Spanish word, "armada," meaning "armed" and referring to the bony shell protecting this animal. They are timid, nocturnal creatures, living on insects, roots, worms, cacti, etc. When pursued they run rapidly and burrow into the ground. Most species are considered good eating by the natives. There are some species of armadillo that range as far north as Texas.

NEW HOOK-UP FOR CHINA NAVIGATION COMPANY

Adding another romantic link to its world-wide services, Cunard White Star now represents the China Navigation Company as General Agents in the United States and Canada.

The China Navigation Company operates regular services along the China Coast from Tientsin, Newchuan and Haikien in the north to Shanghai, Hong Kong, and thence to Bangkok in Siam and Singapore.

Picturesque and out-of-the-way ports called at include Foochow, Amoy, Swatow, Canton, Pakhoi and Hainan.

Three and one-half day round trips from Shanghai make it possible to see Nanking and to spend two days ashore at Hankow.

Animals Require Sunshine

Sunshine is valuable for animals. If they do not get enough they may suffer from rickets, just as children. In zoo parlance rickets is "cage paralysis," which affects mammals and birds alike. When outdoor sunshine is unavailable zoos provide artificial sunbaths. The medical equipment of most zoos includes ultra-violet ray lamps and the winter routine includes sunlight treatments. Like model babies, lions and giraffes, hippopotami and monkeys get their share of irradiated foods and cod liver oil is part of their winter diet.

Highest Falls

The Grand falls, in Labrador, are said to be 2,000 feet high. Sutherland falls, New Zealand, are 1,904 feet high. The upper Yosemite fall is 1,436 feet, the middle one 626 feet and the lower 400 feet. The falls of Gavarnie in France are 1,385 feet, the Takkakaw in British Columbia, 1,200 feet. Victoria and Niagara, the two most magnificent falls, are respectively 400 and 164 feet high.

Twice Gave Up His Sword

When Lord Cornwallis surrendered Yorktown, ending the Revolutionary war, the general himself pleaded illness and had his second-in-command, Brigadier General O'Hara, lead out the garrison and yield his sword. This General O'Hara, unique in British annals, 12 years later, commanding the British defending Toulon, had, again, to give up his sword, this time to a colonel named Napoleon Bonaparte.

Newfoundland Dog Useful

Although not a common dog, the Newfoundland is admired and used for various purposes in many parts of North America as well as in foreign countries. To see this breed at work is enough to make one appreciate its qualities and the way it can be adapted to many tasks. It truly is a working breed in every sense of the word. It can be used as a sled dog. In some parts of the north country may be seen the Newfoundland carrying small packs on his back—like a miniature pack horse. Then this breed often is asked to haul a cart, much like the St. Bernard is used by the Swiss farmers to haul milk carts to town.

Pigeon Roost Settlement Wiped Out by Marauders

What was known as the Pigeon Roost settlement in Indiana consisted of several families that made a little community in what is now Scott county, says a writer in the Indianapolis News. This settlement, founded in 1809, was separated from any other by several miles, and was confined to about a square mile of territory. On September 3, 1812, it was attacked by a band of about twelve marauders, said to have been Shawnees who, scouring the locality, going from cabin to cabin, murdered within an hour twenty-two persons—sixteen of them children and five women. Prior to this general killing two men were shot in the woods. Most of the cabin homes were burned. A spirited fight in the house of William Collings, in which three Indians were killed, probably prevented a greater slaughter, as the check to the savages enabled the rest of the settlement to escape to the blockhouses that stood within a few miles. Several spectacular escapes have been recorded. The news of the massacres was carried to Charlestown, Clark county, and by 2 p. m. the next day, 200 armed men reached the scene, where only one house remained standing. They took up the trail of the savages, but never caught up with them. Two children were carried away by the Indians, Ginsey McCoy, age three, and a boy, Peter Huffman. They were later returned to their people, but went back to the Indians afterward. In 1903 an appropriation was made by legislature for a monument of Bedford limestone, 44 feet high, which was dedicated October 1, 1904, at the spot where the massacre victims were buried.

Water Power Was Used in Mills of Ancient Romans

The origin of water mills is buried in the depths of antiquity, for they are mentioned by Pliny, and are said to have been introduced into England by the Romans, writes R. Angus Downie in the Edinburgh Scotsman. Yet they remained unknown in Scotland prior to the Twelfth century, and did not become anything like common throughout the country for a hundred years. Before their introduction wheat was ground by bruising in a quern, a method followed in the Bronze age, and depicted upon the rock tombs of predynastic Egypt. When St. Columba studied under Finian he bruised wheat with a quern each evening, and at last caused his disciples so to grind their daily meals.

Up to the middle of the Eighteenth century water power was only applied to the grinding of oats. The other processes of production were carried on by the labor of human hands. After the harvest was cut the grain was separated by the use of the flail. In 1710 James Meikle introduced the use of farmers to remove the loose chaff, but his invention was opposed by religious farmers, who regarded the raising of wind as interfering with the dispensation of Providence, and it only came gradually into general use. Barley was ground by bruising in a mortar or "knocking stone," until about 1750, when these humble, crude, and wasteful methods were replaced by mills for grinding barley.

No Envelopes With Letters

Prior to 1845, although postage stamps had been under discussion for several years in this country, their use on letters was not practical on account of the many and varying postal rates then in effect. The old rates were a relic of Colonial times and were based on two factors, distance and the number of sheets of paper a letter contained. Six cents was the rate for a single-sheet letter for a distance not exceeding 30 miles; 10 cents up to 80 miles; 12½ cents, 150 miles; 18½ cents, 400 miles, and for distances over 400 the rate was 25 cents. A letter of two sheets of paper took double these rates, three sheets treble and so on.

In order to secure the minimum rate a letter was written on one side of a sheet of paper, the sheet folded to letter size with the correspondence inside and the outside blank to receive the address. The folded letter was sealed at the post office after the clerk had checked the contents. Prepared envelopes were considered an extra sheet of paper and as such subject to additional postage, which accounts for their almost total absence from mail matter before the rates came to be based on weight.

Lapps Most Primitive

The Lapps are the most primitive people of Europe—nomads, depending almost solely upon their reindeer for food, clothing, home, and household utensils. They are a peace-loving and good-natured race. Though they live like animals, anger is unknown to them. The government of Sweden makes every effort to spread the rudiments of education, and especially hygiene, among the Lapps; though they have accepted Christianity and made it a dominating part of their lives, the practices of civilization make not the slightest impression upon them.

Discovery of Baffin Bay

Baffin bay was discovered by an Englishman, named Baffin, in 1615. Baffin land is separated from Greenland by Baffin bay where the surface of the sea is covered during the greater part of the year with ice, which extends from shore to shore in winter, possessing a slow southward movement. In spring and summer the ice begins to move less slowly southward, leaving navigable passages between the coasts.

Ancient Cities in China Compare With Great Wall

The city of Peiping has a fascinating history beginning about 2,000 years before Christ. Peking, officially called Peiping, has seen the reign of over forty Mongol, Ming and Manchu rulers. In reality the city comprises four different sections, each surrounded by imposing fortified walls.

The heart of Peiping is the "Forbidden City" with its yellow tile roofs, marble courtyards and pink walls. Prior to 1912 this was the abode of the Imperial family and their retinue. Surrounding this is the "Imperial City" in which are to be found the lakes called "seas" and the winter palace. Encircling this latter city is the "Tartar City" in which are located the Lama temple, Hall of Classics, Bell and Drum towers, legation quarters, and the observatory which is the oldest in the world. Passing through the south gate of the "Tartar City" one enters the Chinese city where is situated the Temple of Heaven and the Temple of Agriculture.

Forty-five miles north of Peiping is the Great Wall which ranks with the Pyramids of Egypt as one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. For 2,500 miles this great stone structure marks the border of Inner China. Not far away are the 13 Ming tombs with their Holy Way paved in marble and lined by huge mythological animals and figures. To the west lies the celebrated summer palace built by the late empress dowager, with its large lake, dragon island, rookeries and famous Marble Boat.

Women's Necklaces Are Traced Back to 600 B. C.

In the tombs of Egyptian and Grecian women of rank, necklaces made of exquisitely fashioned gold beads, interspersed with colored glass ones, as amber, cornelian, garnet, and crystal have been found, and in 600 B. C. necklaces were shipped from Egypt by the Phoenicians to Greece.

Gold and amber beads of the Bronze Age are found in Southern England and Ireland.

In the Neolithic and later periods the wearing of beads appears to have been universal in all parts of the world, and such trouble was taken to make many of them that they were probably used more as luck charms than as ornaments. In Egypt the word for them was "Shasha," the syllable "Sha" being the Egyptian word for luck.

Since the Middle Ages the manufacture of beads for sale or barter has been carried on in Europe, and explorers have at all times found them invaluable when dealing with natives. Many of the early trade beads are still greatly prized in the countries where they have been sold.

Flexibility of the Hands

It is a generally accepted principle that the fingering of a piano or organ keyboard will vary and be governed by the size and formation of the hand, and the webbing between the fingers, according to a musician in the Montreal Herald. Hands are not all the same in size and pliability, and rules which suited one kind of hand were unsuited to others. The lateral stretch between the thumb and the hand and between the fingers varies very much, and it is not always the largest hands which have the most flexible action. Some large hands are tightly webbed, and some small ones are very flexible and in the playing of arpeggios, the smaller hand will play the greater stretch more easily than the large hand.

James I of England

When Queen Elizabeth, the last of the Tudors, died in 1603, she named James VI of Scotland her successor. James VI had been proclaimed king of Scotland in 1567 when only one year old, but a regency was established. By 1578 he had nominally assumed direction of affairs. When James VI became king of England and the first of the Stuart dynasty he assumed the title of James I of England. During his reign the population of England was somewhat less than 5,000,000.

Clay Pipes Made by Hand

Hundreds of fortunes have been lost trying to make clay pipes by machinery but the handcrafters have retained their supremacy. Over 2,000 different shapes are made yearly by one factory alone. The color and design of the pipes are the only changes in the industry during more than 130 years. A majority of designs have decorated bowls in the cast of Robert Burns, while others flaunt Shakespeare at the end of a curly stem.

Weasel Not Always Ermine

A weasel is always a weasel but is not always an ermine—that is a matter of locality, season and weather. The term was originally applied in English to the British stoat, but now it means a weasel of any kind when in the white winter coat, or the coat itself after it has been stripped from the little animal and prepared for furriers' use and my lady's wear.

Strange Street Names

Rothenburg obler Tauher, famous German city, where every year on Whit Monday the Melster Trunk festival is held, has street and tower names as quaint as its festivals. A few of them are Little Dimppling street, Vinegar Jug, Cheese Chamber, the Dog Tower, and the street of the Little Minister.

Two Little Sisters Drown At Newton Upper Falls

Phyllis Horrigan, 9, and Alice Horrigan, 5, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis J. Horrigan of 1304 Boylston st., Newton Upper Falls, were drowned in the Charles River at Echo Bridge, Upper Falls, on Wednesday afternoon. The children had gone to their home, put on their bathing suits and told their mother that they were going to a neighbor's yard to get sprayed with a hose. Shortly afterward Natalie Cronin, 6, of 3 Ellis st., ran to her home and told her mother that the two Horrigan girls had sunk in the river. The Charles at Echo Bridge runs through a deep gorge. The banks slope sharply and the current is swift. The younger Horrigan child stamped into a hole and was carried under. Her sister in attempting to rescue her also went under.

Mrs. Cronin shouted to Leroy Armstrong of Needham who was driving by in an auto and he and several men from a tavern nearby went to the rescue. Armstrong with Frank Coakley of High st., Richard Regan of Ellis st., and James Motherway, of Margaret rd., dived into the river and in about 20 minutes recovered the bodies in 8 feet of water. Mrs. Cronin had telephoned her husband who is a Metropolitan policeman at Riverside. He notified Newton police and fire department headquarters and police and firemen were soon at the scene with inhalators. For more than an hour under the direction of Dr. Charles Thompson of Newton Highlands they attempted vainly to resuscitate the two little girls. The children are survived by their parents, seven brothers, and two sisters.

Cars Collide At Newton Highlands

The dangerous intersection at Centre and Walnut sts., Newton Highlands, was the scene of another automobile collision on Sunday afternoon. Robert Yorsten of Summer st., Boston, was driving his car into a gasoline station at the corner of the two streets when it was hit by a car driven by Lillian O'Connor of Taunton, who had only received a driving license recently. Yorsten claimed his left shoulder was injured.

Aldermen Favor New Schools

At a secret meeting held by the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night the members expressed themselves as in favor of asking Mayor Childs to recommend appropriations for new schools at West Newton and Newton and a branch library building at Newtonville. One of the new school buildings would replace the old Franklin School on River st., West Newton. The other proposed new school would replace the 82 year old Lincoln School at the corner of Thornton and Pearl sts., Newton, and the Eliot School on Pearl st., which is over 50 years old. The library building to be built at the corner of Walnut st. and Highland ave. will require an appropriation of $55,000 by the city, according to estimates. This will be in addition to a fund of $25,000 which Newtonville residents are endeavoring to raise. The site of the proposed library is the former location of the old Newton Club, adjacent to the business district along Walnut street.

He had been studying voice under Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lamson of Boston with the intention of following a grand opera career. He had been at Lake Placid to attend the Lamson's summer studio there. Says City Should Not Build Street For Speculators

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night a hearing was held on the petition of The New England Homes, Inc., of Boston, for the improving and acceptance of Paulson rd., Waban. This is a new street in the low area between Chestnut and Beacon sts., and at the rear of Cotter rd. About half a dozen new houses have recently been constructed, or are under construction on the street.

Thomas L. Ryan, an attorney of 246 Walnut st., Newtonville, objected to the petition in behalf of his father, Peter Ryan of Harvard st., Newtonville. Mr. Ryan said that his father owns four acres of land with a frontage of 300 feet on Paulson rd. and would be assessed $2300 for betterments if the city improved the street under the Betterment Act. He said there is no public necessity for this improvement, that the land abutting the street is largely barren, and that the ownership of the houses which have been under construction on Paulson rd. has changed several times since building operations were started. He said that fly-by-night real estate speculators who are not residents of Newton want the city to hold the bag, develop streets for them, extend payments over 10 years, and let future purchasers or owners of other abutting properties pay the cost. He argued that these outside speculators should be made to do what Newton realtors do when they develop new streets. This is to build the streets themselves under the specifications required by the city.

Jumps From Car Following Spat

Charles W. Holmes of 218 Calvary st., Waltham, received a severe head injury when he jumped out of a car on Lexington st., near Stanford st., Auburndale, about 2 o'clock Sunday morning. His wife, Mary Holmes, reported to the police that Holmes jumped from the automobile following an argument. He was picked up by Ralph Goulding of Chaaske ave., who took him to the home of Lester Robora at 244 Lexington st. Holmes was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. He received a concussion of the brain and a possible skull fracture.

Aldermen Prefer Cesspool To Sewer

The petition of Mrs. Howard O'Grady and Domenic Lanno for a drain and sewer in Broadway ter., Newtonville, was refused consideration by the Board of Aldermen at its meeting on Monday night. Lanno, who owns a two-family house on Broadway ter., petitioned last year for the sewer. He told the Aldermen at that time that sanitary conditions at his home were terrible, his children had become sick because of sewage backing into the house and his tenants would not remain. The Newton Board of Health reported that a sewer was needed because the cesspool on Lanno's property was overflowing. William Doherty of Broadway, who owns land abutting Broadway ter., objected to the petition because he would be assessed. The 1935 Board turned down Lanno's petition.

A few months ago Lanno again petitioned for the sewer. Again Doherty objected and again the Aldermen turned down Lanno's petition, despite the fact that the Newton Health Department had again stated the sewer is necessary. Monday night another petition was received for the sewer. This time the petition came from Mrs. Martha O'Grady, who also owns land abutting Broadway ter. The Public Works Committee refused to consider the petition on the contention that it was for the same thing which Lanno's petition had been presented earlier this year, and, according to the rules of the Board, only one petition can be presented on any matter during a year, unless the Board gives special consent.

Alderman Guzzi objected to the action taken on the petition. Guzzi had previously criticized Doherty for blocking Lanno's petition and had stated that the objector was receiving $350 yearly as one of the Board of Registrars of Voters of Newton and should not block the needed improvement. Guzzi stated that the reason the petition had been refused is because of Doherty's political influence with members of the Board of Aldermen. President Floyd of the Board took exception to Guzzi's statement. Floyd said he was not actuated by political influence and that a new cesspool would care for sewage disposed from Lanno's house. Alderman Hutchinson said he wished to be placed on record as not opposing the petition for the sewer because of political motives. He said a new cesspool should be built in Lanno's yard and that the Health Officer had not stated that such a cesspool will not care adequately for the purpose. Hutchinson said that by building a cesspool all the expense will be borne by Lanno, who will benefit instead of by abutments who will not benefit. Guzzi replied that in other cases where sewers have been recommended by the Health Department, the Aldermen have voted to have the sewers built, even though other abutments must share in the cost. Guzzi said that if Lanno has to build another cesspool, the plumbing in his home will have to be changed at large expense.

Lanno has taken an appeal to the State Board of Health and to the city commissioners. The cost of the sewer to the abutments, according to estimates of the City Engineer's department, would be—Lanno, $257; Doherty, $167; O'Grady, $32. This cost would be spread over a period of 10 years, should any of the abutments desire, making the yearly cost small.

New Ordinance Restricts Pedlers And Hawkers

Hereafter pedlers and hawkers will have fewer opportunities to use Newton highways for the purpose of advertising and selling their wares. As a result of protests from Newton business men against unfair competition by outsiders who have been coming into this city in increasing numbers and selling merchandise of various kinds, mostly food articles, the Board of Aldermen amended Section 265 of the city ordinances to place a curb on the use of streets by hawkers and peddlers. The new ordinance also cared for protests from citizens regarding the sounding of gongs or other noise making by hawkers which has become somewhat of a nuisance. The things which precipitated the new ordinance is the advent in Newton this year of a number of small, decorated trucks operated by a concern which sells a form of ice cream. These trucks have been parking for hours at a time in certain locations; one of which is opposite the Newton Hospital on Washington st.

The ordinance is as follows:—
Section 265 of Chapter XXVI of the Revised Ordinances of 1929 is hereby amended by striking out the same and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 265. No person so exposing for sale or selling said articles shall use a gong, bell, horn or other audible signal for the purpose of attracting customers, or shall cry his wares to the disturbance of the peace and comfort of the inhabitants of the city.

Chapter XXVI of the Revised Ordinances of 1929 is hereby further amended by striking out Section 265A, and inserting in place thereof four new sections respectively 265-A, 265-B, 265-C and 265-D to read as follows:

Section 265-A. No licensed or unlicensed hawk or peddler shall sell, or offer for sale, any goods, wares or merchandise on any street of the City of Newton within 500 feet of any public or private educational institution or the grounds thereof between the hours of 8:00 A. M. and 4:00 P. M. on days when the said educational institutions are in session; nor any day within 500 feet of any playgrounds of the City between the hours of 12:00 noon and 9:00 P. M.

Section 265-B. No licensed or unlicensed hawk or peddler shall sell, or offer for sale, any goods, wares or merchandise on any street of the City of Newton within the areas defined as business districts in accordance with the zoning plans and zoning ordinances established by Chapter 32 of the Revised Ordinances of 1929, as amended, between the hours of 10:00 A. M. and 6:00 P. M. on any day except Saturdays and on Saturdays between the hours of 10:00 A. M. and 10:00 P. M.

Section 265-C. No licensed or unlicensed hawk or peddler shall sell, or offer for sale, any goods, wares or merchandise on any street of the City of Newton within the areas defined as business districts in accordance with the zoning plans and zoning ordinances established by Chapter 32 of the Revised Ordinances of 1929, as amended, between the hours of 10:00 A. M. and 6:00 P. M. on any day except Saturdays and on Saturdays between the hours of 10:00 A. M. and 10:00 P. M.

Section 265-D. As used in this Chapter the word "street" shall mean street as defined in Subdivision 11 of Chapter XXXIII of the Ordinances.

Aldermen Meet

A regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held on Monday night. The meeting started at 8 o'clock and continued until 8:52 when a recess was taken which lasted for three hours. The meeting was resumed a few minutes before midnight and finally adjourned at 12:40 a. m., Tuesday. The reasons for the delay in the meeting were a secret session of the Board as a committee of the whole, and meetings of several of the committees of the Board.

Included in the hearings on petitions which came before the Board was that of the Walker Missionary Home, Auburndale, for a permit to erect a 3-car garage in addition to a garage now on the property of the home. It was explained that the added garage accommodations are needed for missionaries who are quartered at the home from time to time. Peter Capparelli of Watertown asked that the city improve and accept Paulson d., Waban. Several houses have been built on this street and cannot be sold because of its condition. Attorney Thomas Ryan of Newtonville opposed the petition in behalf of his father, Peter Ryan, who owns 300 feet of frontage on the street. Raymond Wragg, speaking for the Germania Bank of Boston, asked that Duxbury rd., Newton Centre, be improved.

Considerable time was consumed on a hearing on the petition for a sewer in West Pine st., Auburndale, from Staniford st. to a point 470 feet northwesterly and thence across private land to the end of the present sewer at Auburndale Park. Robert Bonner for the General Property Trust favored the petition. Wilfred Swain of 47 West Pine st. told of bad conditions on that street because of lack of a drain. He said he had to bale his cellar out five times last winter and spring, and unless the city constructs a drain, he will have to build a dike across the street to keep the surface water from entering his home. John W. Guzzi of the plan of the proposed sewer. He advocated that the sewer be built from West Pine easterly toward the main sewer rather than in the direction of Chaaske ave. Other residents of West Pine st. also favored this plan. City Engineer Harvey said it would cost over $100,000 to do this, as such a sewer would have to follow along the Charles River for a long distance and then be continued into West Newton. The proposed sewer, planned, would cost about $9000. Alderman Brocklesby said he had promised to try and have something done to improve conditions on West Pine street, and that the Street Department had dumped a number of loads of gravel on it.

The Board authorized a street bond issue of $100,000 for resurfacing Watertown st. from Faxon st. to Walnut st., and resurfacing North and other streets. It also authorized a water bond issue of $50,000. The following appropriations were made: Planning Board expenses, $50; Welfare Department, maintenance of automobiles, $300; office expenses, $250; sewer connection at Oak Hill School, $900; reconstruction of Grove st., Auburndale and placing drain in street, $21,963; drain in Church st., $1870; sewers in College rd., $688; in Mayflower rd., $1260; resurfacing Watertown st. from Faxon to Walnut sts., $39,650; Water Department for new mains and maintenance of service in various streets, $15,525.

The Cousens Fund trustees were authorized to make loans of $4000 and $4050 on real estate. The petition of Daniel Cetrone to have a street laid out from Centre st. into his land south of Franklin st., was refused. A petition was received from Michael Collins to have Jewett st. improved and accepted from Rockland st. to Boyd st. Petitions were received to have a new street, Burrage rd., laid out from Cotton st. to Glendale rd., and Scarsdale rd. accepted from Beaumont ave., Newtonville. A petition was received from Almarin Trowbridge asking that no parking be allowed on Centre and Sargent sts. bordering his property for distances of 220 feet.

Newton Highlands Man Killed In Airplane Crash

Edwin T. Ramsdell Dies After Rescue In Mid-Ocean

Edwin T. Ramsdell, 46, of 64 Cook st., Newton Highlands, lost his life on Sunday evening when a large airplane in which he was a passenger crashed into the Atlantic ocean five miles east of Nantucket lights. Injuries received by Mr. Ramsdell when the plane struck water and was shattered caused him to slip twice off a pontoon into the water. The injuries and immersion caused him to die shortly after he and seven other men who had been riding in the airplane were rescued and taken aboard the S. S. Exermont of the American Export Lines. The airplane, a huge 11 passenger Bellanca monoplane, was owned by the La Touraine Coffee Company of Boston. Ariel Bird, president of the company, was a passenger on the Queen Mary of the Cunard White Star Line, and the plane, piloted by the veteran aviator, William Wincapaw, had gone out to Nantucket lights to greet Bird. Riding in the airplane were several Boston newspaper photographers and reporters, and prominent Boston business men, including William Reuter, treasurer of the coffee company, and Ezra Eaton of Thompson's Spa.

The plane was circling at a low altitude over the huge steamship when it was caught in a down draft caused by the Queen Mary travelling at a 35 mile speed. The airplane plummeted into the ocean and the force of the impact broke it into several parts. The nine occupants of the plane managed to escape from the cabin and crawl onto the two pontoons. Wincapaw and Ramsdell got onto one pontoon. The other seven passengers crawled onto the other pontoon. Ramsdell fell off the pontoon twice and was dragged back each time by Wincapaw. The Exermont, which happened to be in the vicinity when the plane crashed, at once launched a boat, but it was half an hour before the rescue craft reached the wreckage of the plane. Ramsdell was unconscious when rescued and died about an hour later on the Exermont. The rescue ship reached New York on Monday.

Ramsdell was born in Union, Maine, 46 years ago and came to Newton with his family when a boy. As a youth he entered newspaper work with the Newton Town Crier and later became a reporter for the Boston Post in the Newton district. He enlisted in the 26th Division and served in France with the 101st Supply Train. Following the war he became engaged in newspaper photography, and after serving as a photographer for the Post he engaged in aerial photography. He was in charge of aerial photography in New England for the Curtis-Wright Company, and became associated with the Fairchild Surveys, taking aerial photographs for maps and city surveys.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Laura Ramsdell; a daughter, Shirley Ramsdell; and a sister, Mrs. Robert Keene of Tremont st., Newton. His funeral service was held on Wednesday at 1137 Boylston st., Newton Upper Falls, at the home of his wife's parents. (Continued on Page 8)

Drunken Driver's Fine Suspended

Thomas J. Clausen, 34, of 3 Strathmore rd., Brookline, was arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday charged with drunkenness and with driving a car while under the influence of liquor. Clausen was arrested on the night of July 23 by Patrolmen Manton and J. P. Murphy who testified that they arrested him when he was driving an automobile while drunk. Judge Allen fined Clausen $50 and then suspended the fine. He placed the drunkenness charge on file.

Mrs. Marie Hiltz of 1375 Commonwealth ave., Brighton, was arrested at Newton Corner on Tuesday night by Patrolmen Foley and Whelan on charges of drunkenness and driving a car while under the influence of liquor. She attracted their attention by unnecessarily blowing the horn on her car. Her case will be tried on August 12.

The meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night was typical of what many such meetings have been in recent years. The meeting started at 8 o'clock and lasted until 8:52 during which public hearings were held. Then a recess was taken to allow the Board to sit as a committee of the whole in secret session. Following the committee of the whole session, meetings of committees were held. After 3 hours the Board resumed its open meeting a few minutes before midnight. Then the other routine business of the Board was taken up and the meeting adjourned at 12:45.

Before the meeting ended, Alderman Temperley made a motion that any time the Board of Aldermen convene in secret as a committee of the whole it do so after the regular meeting has adjourned. He contended that if any citizens desire to attend meetings of the Board and observe its deliberations and actions, they should have the opportunity to do so without being kept waiting 2 or 3 hours during recesses. President Floyd said that the only times the Board meets in secret as a committee of the whole is when it is absolutely necessary to do so, and when matters of great importance are being discussed. Alderman Bowen said Temperley's motion was not necessary as the President of the Board has the power to call a meeting of the committee of the whole when he sees fit. Temperley's motion did not prevail.

The rules of the Newton Board of Aldermen specify that no committee shall meet after 6 o'clock on the day of a meeting except by specially granted privilege. The rules also specify that the Board shall not make any appropriation of money except when each member has received notice of such intended appropriation at least one day before the meeting, and the item shall be printed on the docket for that meeting. It is obvious that these rules were made to enable members of the Board to have knowledge of what they are considering and of what they appropriate money for. These rules have been ignored for years, and increasingly so. The rules were made years ago when Newton Boards of Aldermen were composed of men prominent in business life in Boston and this city; men whose business experience made them realize the need of deliberate consideration and proper knowledge of matters which would come before them as members of the city government. It is about time that the Newton Board of Aldermen honored these rules; that committees of the Board hold their meetings on nights prior to the regular meeting night, as committees in former years did, and as the Licenses and Claims and Rules Committees of the Board now do. It is about time that the rule regarding prior knowledge of appropriations be adhered to. It is also about time that the Board realize that the citizens of Newton have the right to know the details of important matters which come before the Board, as well as unimportant matters, and that secret sessions as a committee of the whole be made more infrequent. The writer was a member of the Board for several years. He participated in a number of such "committee of the whole" meetings. At none of such meetings was anything discussed which could not have been, and should not have been, discussed in an open meeting.

Monday night members of the Board of Aldermen took the attitude that a petition for a sewer in Broadway Terrace, Newtonville, should not be given favorable consideration and that the petitioner should instead build a cesspool because by so doing he would stand all the expense of sewage disposal from his home, and that abutters not benefitting should not have to share the cost of a sewer. Had this same attitude been taken by former Boards of Aldermen, many streets in Newton would yet be without sewers, and residents on other streets in the city would long have suffered the health menace occasioned by the use of cesspools, and the nuisance created when any cesspool in a neighborhood is emptied.

If Governor Curley is sincerely anxious to have the condition of patients in the Mattapan and other State hospitals bettered, why does he not co-operate by cutting down on the expenses of his executive department?

Governor Curley deserves commendation for his repeated refusals to commute sentences of persons who committed murder after fiendish deliberation and for selfish or other base motives.

Allure of Gaspé Peninsula

This article, written by a Newton Centre resident, vividly describes the alluring beauty of the Gaspé Peninsula. Many Newton residents have already made this delightful trip and for those who desire travel in all its phases, the Gaspé Peninsula trip is one to be highly recommended.—Editor's Note.

This article is written by one who early this summer made the complete Gaspé Peninsula trip, starting out with the misrepresentation that it was a wild hazardous place with poor roads, no places to stay and most difficult.

I first became interested in reading a book, written by a wife who was a writer, and which had illustrations by the husband who was an artist.

I then read an article in the August number 1935, of the National Geographic magazine both of which whetted my appetite to know it for myself.

We made up a party of four. Myself and wife and two other ladies and left home in Newton Centre, one beautiful Tuesday morning with the trunk of the car filled to overflowing (much unnecessary) and started north via the accustomed highways to the Profile Notch. After viewing the marvels of the Notch again we waved farewell to the Old Man of the Mountain, received an answering echo from Echo Lake and moved on down the Hill through Bethlehem and on to St. Johnsbury, Vt., staying at St. Johnsbury Hotel, which is clean, well run and fine food. All an autoist needs. After a refreshing night and fine breakfast we left St. Johnsbury and crossed over Vermont through the most lovely country, on fine roads behind Mt. Mansfield and out to Burlington. We drove down to the ferry—crossing Lake Champlain to Port Kent.

A fine restful change from driving. Landing at Port Kent, we drove to Anse-au-Loup and again see its marvels of nature and then took to the road and headed up and through Plattsburgh and on to Montreal, where we spent the second night. The Hotel Windsor is fine for those seeking the best. The Ford Hotel is less expensive and equally nice and well run. You are compelled to place your car in a parking space or seek shelter in a garage as you wish.

After a refreshing sleep we engaged a guide, familiar with the city, at $1.25 per hour and I drove and he guided us all over the city, showing us the most one could wish for.

On return to hotel we dropped our guide and started for Quebec over potholed roads and through Three Rivers. The country changes fast. Provincial stone homes soon appear with steep roofs and quaint doors. The day is full of interest and you arrive at Quebec ready for supper.

The well-known Chateau Frontenac stands to meet those who wish for the best and who have full pocket-books. Other hotels, less well known, are aplenty. One of outstanding fineness is the St. Louis—directly behind the Chateau and at much less cost, while in no way does it cut any corners. In giving neatness, service and good food to those who use it. It has a fine garage as a part of the hotel and is reasonable and courteous in service.

After a bath and fine dinner, we strolled out on Dufferin Terrace, overlooking the river in front of the Chateau and admired the view.

It was soon bedtime for tired autoists, and soon we were all in deep slumber.

Up to this time, we had just been traveling on so-called well-known ground, but the next morning, our great adventure started. We left the hotel around 8 a. m., and drove down to the river to the ferry for Lévis.

Crossing, we at once turned the car northwards for our real objective—Gaspé Peninsula. We were now in a different land. Patois French everywhere and at once we noted signs (école (school). This was the beginning of what turned out to be over 300 schools in the Peninsula. We passed through village after village with its poorly built houses filled with simple folk and children galore.

In nearly every village of any size, you would see the finely built granite or stone Catholic Church with its fine Parochial residence and school. A fine tribute to the country.

We drove along at a fair speed on excellent roads and at noon stopped at a small wayside tavern at St. Jean-Port-Joli for a delightful, clean lunch at a total cost for four of $1.55, but all that was needed for a mid-day meal after a hearty breakfast. Little time was taken and on we went through town after town—always in sight or on the edge of the St. Lawrence river and finally came to the town known as Metis Beach, 200 miles from Quebec City and on the left directly on the river bank, the most delightful well-run resort known as Brille Rock Hotel. We had delightful rooms with bath overlooking the rocks and water. There is a fine swimming pool and many other interesting things such as golf, fishing, hunting, etc. Here, we ran the car out on the grass at side of hotel and here we spent a most delightful evening and night. A fine early breakfast and off we went, again northwards—always by the river—past town after town, many shrines and things of interest, and always the gorgeous St. Lawrence on our left and the marvelous hills and cliffs on our right. Words fail me to express the marvels and grandeur of this day's drive. As we progressed it grew more and more simple and native. Outdoor bread ovens, dogs pulling carts—yes and cows and oxen—all being driven by children or grown-ups. All the way the roads good, well cared for gravel roads round along the shore, the only possible place it could be. Sometimes fence protected but mostly not. On the left always the St. Lawrence, on our right at times cliffs, a thousand or more feet high—down which dashed brooks—falling from above as high as one could see in misty spray, right to side of road—to disappear under road and run off down the beach into the ocean. To drive 250 miles at a stretch, and never leave this beach edge, and to see ahead cliffs and mountains and valleys filled with fresh green foliage, is non-tiring to all. Hills—yes, tremendous hills, very steep and winding, but you have started for your adventure and as this is the only road, you look at the hill, step on the gas and do your best to make it on high, then second and finally low, but make it you must, only to reach the top, draw your breath, admire the view and then put your car in second or low and start again, for who goes up must come down and if you would do it safely follow the clear road directions and go into compression, thus saving your brakes and also to prevent excessive speed for the hill roads are gravelly and the wheel trip poor, and if you attempt to slow up too suddenly, you surely will skid, and be in danger. On you go over hill and dale along endless beaches and shore and by tremendous, glorious cliffs 2000 or 3000 feet high and at last you reach Gaspé town, the heart of fishing and the key to the inner part of the Peninsula.

Here we saw, at our hotel, parties of fisherfolk who had that day landed 9 salmon, one a 25 pounder, the walls of the hotel were covered with moose and deer heads, birds of all types, fish, etc.

I will not mention the name of our hotel for to us it was not what we at all were used to, but as we arrived in heavy rain and thunder and lightning we could not look around for better as I have since heard there are fine accommodations to be had at Gaspé. We spent the night and had a good breakfast, and started off for the best part—the high point in our entire trip, Percé; 50 or so miles away between Gaspé and Percé are some of the toughest hills of the whole trip. Good roads, hard and firm, but winding, steep and full of hairpin turns and these could only be driven over, on low gear, and very hard at that.

The views on these hills over the valleys and hills and sea are beyond description but never to be forgotten. The final hill to climb, before you see the first glimpse of Percé, is the hardest one to make, of the entire trip. Sharp drops, to very acute hairpin turns and then up you go to an incline, most difficult, only to run into more acute hairpin turns, which causes you to lose all speed and when around same the grade is very excessive and you may have to go into low gear to make it, but make it you must, but the greatest make is needed in driving and plenty of gas is consumed.

Arriving at the top you immediately begin a drop down toward Percé and it is on this road that your first glimpse of the Rock and Bonaventure Island, the famous bird sanctuary, are had.

At the foot of the hill, a sharp turn left, you enter the picturesque town of Percé filled with fine homes, hotels, etc. We passed through the town and up a new road to the top of the high hill behind the town, the hill being called Three Sisters, bold and high, on the top of which is the newly built log hotel and recreation and dining hall, and many log cabins, with 2 double beds and complete bath room for $5 per day. They are to be opened about July 1st and their location is superb. Cars having children in them should be most careful to watch the children for the grass fields run out to the edge of the cliffs with a sheer vertical drop of many hundred feet, direct to the ocean below.

One could spend days in Percé, visiting the Bird Sanctuary, the Rock and adventuring under the Cliffs but our time was limited so with a nice lunch at Three Sisters Inn, we started out again over miles and miles of gravel road, very dusty and always in full view of the glorious Atlantic. Through village after village, following the road as it made its way around deep inlets over river after river, with its covered bridges, and at last, to our bad luck, running the gauntlet of the fiercest rain and thunder storm I ever experienced in driving, we reached Campbellton, N. B., by crossing by ferry at Pointe-a-la-Croix, the Bale des Chaleurs where the famous Matapédia and Restigouche rivers enter same.

Our hotel, the Chateau Restigouche, is a fine, modern building directly opposite the Railroad Station and you are well cared for and fed. Your car can be parked in the street in front of the hotel.

After a night's rest, we left early and over very dusty, gravel roads, reached Fredericton, N. B., by evening and put up at the famous Queen Hotel, excellent in every way.

The quiet of the town, its quaint atmosphere, its lovely cathedral, which you should see, all are things to be remembered.

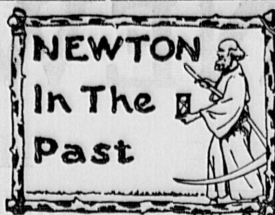

Leaving Fredericton next morning we easily reached Bangor from there down the regular route through Augusta, Lewiston, Portland and back to home.

In closing and for the interest of the driver of a car I have an 8-cylinder car. Good, yes, the best tires should be on all wheels. Oil must be carefully watched as well as your battery. I had 3 flats on my trip due to stone bruises, so carry, if possible, 2 spares.

No food, blankets or other equipment are needed, unless camping is to be done. If you are hardy, the bathing suit can be used any time if you enjoy cold water.

On my entire trip, as above outlined, the car consumed 125 gals. of Ethyl gas and 10 quarts of oil at a total cost of $41.

It was cool most of the way. Rain is likely to be encountered and provision for same made. There are many places all along the route to get the best gas, but never allow yourself to get low on gas. Fill early, for it might be a long way from pump to pump and if you did give out, you would sure be up against it.

Fences along the Boston & Albany railroad are being moved back on both sides of the tracks.

The 32nd Regiment (Mass. Civil War Veterans) will hold their annual reunion this coming Thursday, Aug. 6th, at Fresh Pond Grove, Cambridge. All members of the regiment with their families are requested to be present with one day's rations. Trains leave Fitchburg depot, Boston, at 8:30 a. m., 12 and 3 p. m. Horse cars every 15 minutes from Bowdoin Square.

The street sprinkler is a very welcome visitor along our dusty streets.

No arrests and 5 lockers at the police station for the week ending last Monday.

The new stable of C. B. Frost is nearly completed. It will be one of the complete structures for a livery stable in this vicinity. Ample storage in the cellar provides in addition to storage room, stalls for 12 horses. The whole first floor is used for carriages. On the second floor there are 40 stalls. The floor is water tight and everything arranged for comfort and convenience. The upper loft will be used for storage. A windmill will furnish ample quantity of water to make up for deficiency from the roof. It will draw from a large cistern in the cellar. Mr. George Buch can congratulate himself on the occupancy of a well appointed stable for his growing business.

A shocking accident occurred Tuesday morning at Dalby's Mills, North Village. George Tomblin, 13, son of Alfred Tomblin, an operative at the mills, has been in the habit of winding yarn at the mill for his father. Tuesday morning he left his work to sharpen his knife at the grindstone. The belt being off, he attempted to put it on, when he was caught in the machinery and had both arms torn completely off; one at the shoulder, the other below the elbow. Dr. Stone was immediately sent for but his services were of no avail and the boy died within an hour. He was a member of Miss Spence's class at the North Church Sunday School. As he was picked up he called for his father and said, "Oh, God have mercy on me," which were his last words.

We had just taken our seat in the 7:20 train to Boston on Thursday morning when two young ladies came in and seeking there was no vacant seat where they could sit together, one of them with more cheek than politeness, said to a gentleman much older than herself, "Will you please take this back seat and let us sit together?" He arose and left his seat and they never as much as said "Thank you." Can anyone tell us if these were Newton young ladies?

The recent opposition to the steam whistles on the B. & A. engines by Newton Centre people who live near the railroad is quite interesting to those who hope that this nuisance will soon be history.

The Foresters' picnic at Lake Walden on Thursday drew a large crowd from Newton. St. Bernard's Court of West Newton and Middlesex Court of Newton were largely represented. Those attending took the train from Watertown at 9:10 and Waltham at 9:25. Dunbar's band furnished music.

The rumor that the tax rate has been fixed at $17 is without foundation, as the assessors do not expect to have it out before Aug. 7. It will surprise most people if the rate is over $14.50.

A Newton man walked to Westboro the other day to do a day's work. He arrived there about 3 p. m.

The Newton police court pays better, in proportion to its expenses than any court in Middlesex County, with the exception of the one at Lowell.

The auction sale of building lots on Harvard, Clarendon and Cabot sts., and Norwood ave., Newtonville, at 3 p. m. tomorrow, will draw a large attendance. Atwood & Wells have charge of the sale and parties looking for a desirable place for a home would do well to attend.

There were about 75 arrests in Newton during June; more than double the average number. During July

You can speed at the proper times, but slow up at all curves and be careful. Keep on your side of the road all ways and play safe, especially on the hills.

And, one thing more. To make this trip the safest and easiest, go around the Peninsula from Quebec end up, in that way you are always on the inside of the road, that is, you are on the cliff side and not water side, which is very little protected, few fences or very little protection below. Play safe and go from Quebec end up the river in Lp 17(bw) shrdlu shrdl shrdlu and around to Gaspé, etc.

May all who take this trip enjoy it and have as good luck as we did.

Powers' Paragraphs

Most folks have for years enjoyed half holidays on Saturdays. Others, in addition to their annual vacations of one, two or three weeks. Owners of retail stores and their employees have to work on Saturday afternoons and evenings, except larger stores in big cities which close on Saturdays during summer months. In Newton for many years retail stores (except drug stores) have closed on Wednesday afternoons during summer months to permit those who work in these stores to have a few opportunities for recreation. Most of the markets and other stores in Newton are co-operating in the Wednesday afternoon closing. A few are not. You too can co-operate in this commendable movement by purchasing your food supplies on Tuesday or on Wednesday mornings. Show your appreciation for the stores which close on Wednesday afternoons and which are considerate to their employees.

Washington street between Newton and Newtonville is not one of the snow places of this city. But, as one gazes westerly from Newton Corner and sees the slopes of Mount Ida and West Newton Hill well covered with trees, the view is really attractive. It is in happy contrast with the vista which one observes from the main streets of most suburbs of Boston.

Some of our readers do not like our attitude regarding the League of Nations, our opposition to the U. S. A. entering into any alliance with European nations. Present conditions in Europe and the outlook for the future in that troubled continent seem to justify our views. Spain at one extreme of Europe is going communistic, even as Russia at the other end of Europe went nearly a score of years ago. France seems heading that way. Italy and Germany are in the grip of Fascists. England's position is perilous. Involved as she is in complications with her near neighbors. Wouldn't it be nice for the U. S. A. to be entangled in the social and political maelstrom that is Europe; to have us sucked into the vortex which is threatening the white civilization across the Atlantic?

Isn't it interesting how rapidly this enlightened country is progressing. Just 17 years ago it was so provincial, so swayed by taboos and inhibitions that the prohibition law was put into force; gambling was illegal, men had to wear shirts while bathing at public beaches—and so did women. Now we have men drinking beer habitually and getting fat, women drinking highballs and cocktails and getting blase; men and women going daily to horse races, and nightly to dog races and getting felled through the medium of legalized gambling. We see beano parlors multiplying along city streets to take the money of the easy marks. No longer are the people stiffened by Puritanical repression or Victorian smugness. The ladies are enhancing their natural charms not only by rouging their cheeks and smearing their lips with carmine, but by tinting their fingernails and toenails, and the dear young men are having their hair curled and getting complexion treatment. The older men are wearing elastic garments to lessen the convex effect of their abdominal region. Folks in general are getting more particular about their appearance; a sure sign of increasing refinement. Prudishness is rapidly vanishing. A large percentage of men and women don't wear shirts while bathing at public or private beaches. And many of these modern bathers wear trunks which are cut so sharp and so that the charms of the wearers are further displayed. Youths are walking along our streets an natural from the waist up, and young ladies of "sweet sixteen" and over saunter around in backless and otherwise abbreviated garments. Any one who wants to be unrestrained and happy today has ample opportunities to enjoy this blissful condition. It's all a matter of psychology—or something.

police court business has been very light.

There was an enjoyable band concert by the Waltham Watch Factory Band on the lawn in front of the Woodland Park Hotel last Saturday evening. The guests at the hotel and a large number of prominent people from all parts of Newton were present at the invitation of Landlord Lee.

The parliamentary fund for Home Rule for Ireland has received donations so far of $359.50 from Newton people, according to the report of T. B. FitzPatrick, treasurer. By this generous response, Newton people have indicated their sympathy for Ireland's just cause as championed by Mr. Gladstone, Mr. Parnell and nearly one-half of the British Parliament at its last session.

Mr. Hermon E. Hibbard and Mr. John S. Sumner are entitled to the thanks of Newton residents for removing the obnoxious billboards from their land at Nonantum Square, Newton. It is too bad that the full effect of Mr. Sumner's act is offset by owners of land in the rear, allowing the billboards to be erected again on their property.

Bicycling is fine exercise, but it is generous with our highways used by thousands of rapidly moving automobiles. Walking is also a fine exercise and very popular in England, Germany and other European countries. Eventually, hiking may become popular in this country. Years ago we enjoyed it. If and when we get a bad metatarsal arch in our right foot fixed up, we may do some more hiking. Like most persons who have become too dependent on automobiles, we could well stand this exercise.

We have received from the Boston Auto Club an article advocating that a raised grass plot be built along the Boston to Providence pike on Route 1 similar to that on the Worcester turnpike to prevent the horrible automobile collisions which have become frequent on that big highway. It is also suggested that a similar dividing reservation be built along the Newburyport turnpike. We agree with these suggestions. Divided highways certainly lessen collisions between motor vehicles traveling in opposite directions. But, they do not stop all such accidents. We have had several instances of cars being driven too fast jumping the reservation on the turnpike in Newton, even though it has granite curbing along its sides. A young Wellesley man was killed a couple of weeks ago in Framingham when a recklessly driven truck hurled the dividing reservation and crashed into his car.

The young people of today do not realize what advantages have been made for them during the past 25 years by the creation of public parks and playgrounds. As we drive along the Charles River between Newton and Faneuil and observe the well graded and landscaped reservation with its beautiful trees and shrubs, the bathing beaches and bath houses on both the Faneuil and Watertown shores, we recall conditions along the river at this stretch when we were a boy. From the foot of Charlesbank rd. to Faneuil was a marshy marsh where boys contracted malaria. When the tide was high we had to wade across water filled gutties to reach the swimming hole. When the tide was out the river was mostly foul smelling mud flats.

Fixing cases for drunken drivers, reckless drivers, speeders and other violators of automobile laws has become so advanced in technique that not only do policemen in this great U. S. A., including Massachusetts, fail to get complete justice for public life by such operation of motor vehicles as here mentioned, not only do district attorney's offices fail to properly prosecute offenders convicted in lower courts who have taken appeals, not only do juries return verdicts of not guilty, but cases are postponed so that certain obliging justices will officiate at trials and find defendants not guilty. It's a great racket.

REPUBLICAN RALLY, LITTLETON, AUG. 8

Middlesex County Republicans today announced an "All Voters" rally to be held in Littleton, on Saturday, August 8, from 4 o'clock in the afternoon to 8 o'clock in the evening at which all of the candidates on the state ticket will speak.

Although the rally will be conducted under the auspices of the Groton and Lowell Women's Republican Clubs, voters of all other parties are invited to attend and hear John W. Haigis, candidate for governor; Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., candidate for United States Senator; and Leverett Saltonstall, candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

The gathering will take place at the Frederick G. Woodworth farm, but if weather prevents the open-air meeting, it will be held in the Littleton Town Hall.

Music will be furnished by a brass band and a picnic supper will be served. All voters of Middlesex county are invited. Other speakers listed include Atty. Felix Forte, candidate for Attorney General, William E. Hurley, former Boston Postmaster who is the candidate for State Treasurer, Oscar U. Dionne, candidate for State Auditor, and Frederic W. Cook, Secretary of State.

Motorists going to the "All Voters" rally are directed to take the road to Groton from Littleton Centre and turn off at the first road on the right. The Woodworth farmhouse, a large white building, is about a half mile along that road on the left. The way will be posted with direction signs.

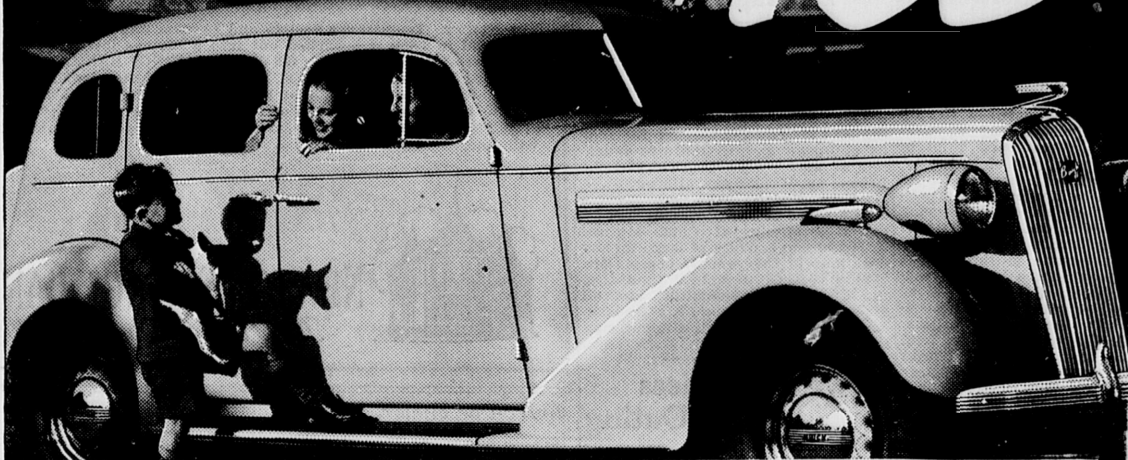

Garden Field Day At Waltham Aug. 5

Gardeners of Massachusetts are again invited to the Field Station of the Massachusetts State College at Cedar Hill, Waltham, for the Annual Field Day on Wednesday, August 5. Everyone interested in the growing of plants will find something of value among the many experiments and trials being conducted.

The great increase in the number of visitors and requests for help are evidences that the Field Station and its staff are filling a definite place in the horticultural industry of New England. If you are not yet acquainted with this institution and its work, you will find it worthwhile to spend this day in looking over the station. The variety trials of popular vegetables and flowers should be at their best about this time. The demonstrations will be plainly labelled, and personally conducted tours of the station grounds will be made during the day.

FOUR BIG HIT FILMS AT THE PARAMOUNT NEEDHAM THIS WEEK

An Arthur Somers Roche novel, which first appeared in Collier's Weekly is the basis of the powerful film drama of a woman's battle for her life and son, "The Case Against Mrs.
Ames" coming to the Paramount Theatre Needham for four days starting Sunday, August 2, through Wednesday, August 4. Madeleine Carroll and George Brent are starred in the production, supported by a strong cast of featured players. The co-feature for the first half of the week is a typically hilarious Henry Armetta picture, "Let's Sing Again." Bobby Breen is the star of this picture, and proves himself to be even better on the screen than on the radio.
Bobby Breen is the boy wonder tenor known to millions of other fans via his appearance on Eddie Cantor's weekly Sunday Night programs.

On Wednesday and for four days
August 5 to 8 the Paramount offers for your entertainment two outstanding film productions the first, "Private Number" starring two of Hollywood's most popular young stars,
Robert Taylor and Loretta Young.
"Private Number" is a youthful love story concerning a boy with too many millions and his secret sweetheart.
The picture is heralded as the year's greatest romantic hit. For the co-feature is "Gentle Julia" starring Jane Withers and Tom Brown. It is a story of young folks in trouble in the touching, happy, uproariously funny style that only Booth Tarkington possesses. The story takes place in the early 1900's. It is of a little hellion who played cupid in her off moments.

Get the Paramount habit, look for our ad in this paper and attend a performance for reel relaxation and true enjoyment. Our aim is to please all by a careful selection of pictures to suit your entertainment needs.

COOLIDGE CORNER THEATRE, BROOKLINE

Jessie Matthews in "It's Love Again"
Also "Little Miss Nobody" with Jane Withers

Jessie Matthews, the dancing divinity, is the star of the dancing, romancing musical film, "It's Love Again" which opens a week's run at the Coolidge Corner Theatre, Brookline, on Friday, July 31st.

In her third picture Miss Matthews clinches the claim made for her that among the dancing actresses of the screen she holds top place comparable to that secured by Fred Astaire among the male contingent of the nimble-footed of movieland. The slim, sleek-haired, brown-eyed princess of rhythm comes to town now in a story that crowds peppy songs, dazzling dance numbers and amusing situations into a generous hour of fast-moving entertainment. Masculine talents abound in the supporting cast with Robert Young supplying the chief romantic interest. Sonnie Hale, internationally famous comedian, has another important role. Cyril Wells appears as the actress' dancing partner and Robb Wilton, popular radio personality, is also featured promi-nently. A story which gives Miss Matthews full scope for show-stepping dancing and numerous song numbers, is built around the romance of a jobless chorus girl and a gossip columnist. The latter has invented, for the want of more accurate news,
the existence of a strange, fascinating, mysterious woman of the East whose penchant for Maharajahs, Temple Dances and exotic food supplies chatter for the gossip-loving public for weeks. When the lady suddenly comes to life, her creator is panic-stricken but entirely unaware that she is actually the little dancer whom he has secretly fallen for. How the aspiring chorine gets everything she wants including fame, stardom and a husband develops through a series of speedy and laugh provoking incidents guaranteed to delight fans of all types.
You will like "It's Love Again."

Just a little girl who's always in bad. That's the type of role that mischievous Jane Withers has in her new heart-warming hit, "Little Miss Nobody" the co-feature on this same program. Jane is one of the children in the Sunshine Orphanage presided over by two kindly matrons, and her pranks continually have her in hot water. When Jane Withers steals a grocery wagon from the back of a complete dinner from the children will not go hungry on Thanksgiving Day, she is arrested and brought before the juvenile court. The judge, however, decides that Jane's act was unselfish rather than malicious and paroles her in the matron's custody.
She goes on her good behavior for a while, but when she tries to do her bosom pal, Betty Jean Hainey, a good turn, she is discovered and the matrons, misconstruing her act, regretfully decide that she must be sent to the reformatory. But "Little Miss Nobody" has ideas of her own. When the opportunity presents itself, she escapes and finds refuge in the pet shop of Harry Carey, an escaped convict. How Jane Withers finally proves her own identity and wins a home for herself and happiness for those who aided her make this her finest and most entertaining film to date.
Included in the cast are Jane Darwell,
Ralph Morgan, Sara Haden, Jed Pru-
ty and Harry Carey.

And then to further balance this excellent program there is a new silly symphony cartoon in color called,
"Three Orphan Kittens," a new "Going Places" travelogue, and of course the latest Coolidge Corner Theatre Newsreel.

The mammoth cooling plant is now in operation, and you can be assured of seeing a good show in cool comfort. Every evening during intermission the management is serving gratis Iced Salada Tea, Drake Cakes and Old Gold Cigarettes. Meet your friends on the mezzanine.

Another big show is promised for the entire week of Friday, August 7th, watch this paper for announcement of same.

JONES TEAM BEATEN 12-5 BY MILLER OIL

Twin County League Standing

Bemis Cards	W	L	T
Newton Independents	2	0	1
Needham A. A.	2	2	0
Natick Allstars	1	2	0
Wellesley Town	0	3	1

Jeff Jones' Newton Independents made their bid in the national semi-pro baseball tourney Tuesday afternoon at Fenway Park, losing 12-5 to the Miller Oil nine of Waltham. Although they played heady baseball most of the game, and kept the Oilers on the short end of the score until the seventh inning, the Independents were unable to produce a relief pitcher to spell the flagging Joe Greene. This weakness meant defeat, as Green's twirling lost its effectiveness in the late innings, when the Waltham batters got to him for eight runs.

The Millers shelled Porky Murphy from the box in the first inning, getting two runs on a base on balls and four straight hits. Joe Greene went to the mound and cut off the procession at two runs. In the Newton inning, Mucker Greene singled, stole second, got to third on Ferguson's hit, and scored on Jones' infield out. Two more runs came across in the second, which put the Independents in the lead. Bert Marrazzo walked and Joe Greene ran out a perfect ball. Phil Greene laid a long two-bagger on the left field wall, but was caught at third, and sprained his ankle in the play. Although Jones singled and Phil Greene hit to the fence in right field, Herb Berry hit into an infield play for the third out.

The Independents made their last stand in the fourth inning, when they went ahead 5-3. Pete Morrison hit safely, but was forced out at second by McAdams. Bert Marrazzo singled, and both runners scored as DePoli muffed Burns' Texas leaguer to center field. But DePoli cleared himself in the ninth, lofting a ball out of the park for a three-run homer to add the finishing touch.

Tie and Win League Games
Last Thursday the Independents tied the Wellesley Town team 6-6 at Welsley, with three-baggers by Herb Berry in the first inning and Howard Ferguson in the fourth largely responsible for the Newton runs. Monday night at Natick in another Twin-County engagement, the local nine defeated the Natick All-Stars 5-4. Jeff Jones made a three-run home run in the first, Hal Morrison knocked in another run in the second, and Pete Morrison scored Andres with a double in the fifth.

The Independents meet the Newton Cubs tonight at Newtonville in the Newton Twi League, having won from the Cubs Wednesday 10-6. Next Wednesday Auburndale comes to the high school field, and Thursday finds the Independents at home for their regular Twin-County date, this week with the league-leading Bemis Cardinals.

MARTIN, DECKER STAR IN TEDESCO TENNIS

Don Martin, former B. U. tennis star, and Newton playgrounds champion for several years, reached the semi-final round in the annual North Shore championship tournament at the Tedesco Country Club, Swampscott, this week. He was defeated yesterday by Ed Fuller, seeded No. 2, in straight sets 6-0, 6-1, 7-5. At the same time Robert Decker, Newton junior high champion of two years ago, was put out by Paul Guibord, top seeded and ranked No. 1 in New England. The score was 6-3, 6-3, 6-4. Robert Decker, top-ranking junior in the New England section, and a former Waban boy, was seeded seventh in the tournament, and won 6-3, 6-4 from E. A. Monier in the first round and downed Henry Kulik 6-3, 11-9 in the second. He scored a surprise victory in the fourth round, where he met and defeated Casper C. Nannes of Chicago and Newport 6-3, 7-5. Nannes was fourth seeded.

Martin reached the singles semi-final by defeating the eighth-seeded Vaughn Pipes of Longwood and the Hunnewell Club of Newton by the score of 6-1, 6-2. Previously he had won matches from Ed Sureau 6-2, 6-1 in the first round and from James Leighton 6-3, 6-4 in the second. He put out Dan Murphy in love sets in the third round.

Elena Ciccone of Newton Centre, top ranking girl junior in New England, breezed through the preliminary rounds of the women's singles rather effortlessly than otherwise, defeating Mrs. W. L. Pierce in love sets in the first round, and giving only two games in fourteen to Ethelyn Whitney in the second round. She is paired with Wallace McIntyre in the mixed doubles, and got to the semi-finals by a 6-2, 6-3 victory over Ted Fitzpatrick and Janet Pierce yesterday.

Among the other Newtonians at Tedesco were Gordon Kitchin and Harry Sylvester, who met in the first round with Kitchin winning 4-6, 6-2, 6-2. Kitchin was later put out by Ed Fuller of Salem, second seeded player, by the score of 6-1, 6-3. Basil Ridgway defeated Sam Rockwell 6-3, 5-7, 6-3 in his first match, but was in turn put out by Albert Stitt of Brookline 7-5, 6-4. Chase Kepner defeated Wm. Mundell in love sets in the first round, then was put out by Herbert Fuller of Salem. Victor Haven and Jack Morris were first-round casualties, Haven losing to R. G. Wigglesworth 6-2, 6-2 and Morris to Tom Wigglesworth 6-0, 6-1. Tom Slattery, Newton High team member last season combined with Robert Strain to form a strong doubles team, losing only in the quarter-final, and then to the state championship team of Lockwood Tower and George Abbott. The score was 6-2, 7-5.

NEWTON TWI LEAGUE

NEWTON TWILIGHT LEAGUE

With but two weeks of the regular season remaining three teams in the Junior circuit appear to be in the running for a play-off berth. Cabot has but four remaining scheduled games and the replay of a tie game with Boys' Club. Garden City has scheduled games and Boys' Club had to play eight games during the same period. Cabot should have easy going but has been in a decided slump the past two weeks and has lost four of the last five games played.

Our Lady's continues to hold the edge in the Senior circuit and with a well balanced team and plenty of hitting power is able to win without good pitching. Charlie Gallagher, the Providence College outfielder, is the latest to turn his hand to pitching, defeating Auburndale, with their star John Sutherland in the box, by a score of 3-2, Wednesday at Cabot Park.

The game played between the Giants and the Independents at West Newton Common developed a lot of hard feeling on the part of both players and spectators. Since the league is maintained to develop good sportsmanship as well as develop young ball players it is felt that the purposes of the league will be better served if this game is thrown out and not counted in the league standing. This game will be replayed at the close of the season if it is needed to determine the play-off position.

A meeting of managers was held last Tuesday night at Newton Centre Recreation Building. The All-Star game between the Junior Circuit team, managed by John "Gyp" Lawless and the Senior Circuit team managed by Charlie "Steve" Bridey, will be played at Cabot Park, Sunday, August 9th. All supporters of the league should attend this game and purchase booster tags which may be had for ten cents. The following managers have been appointed on the Banquet Committee—John Barwise, chairman; Joseph MacDonald, Del Ryan, "Cookie" Barry and Davis Perlmutter.

"Feather in Your Cap"
The phrase, "feather in your cap," means that something is an honor to you. The allusion is to the very general custom in Asia and among the American Indians of adding a feather to the headdress for every enemy slain. The ancient Lydians, and many others had a similar custom, and it is still usual for the English sportsman who kills the first woodcock to pick up a feather and stick it in his cap. The custom in one form or another seems to be almost universal. In Hungary at one time none might wear a feather but he who had slain a Turk, and it will be remembered that when Gordon quelled the Taiping rebellion he was honored by the Chinese government with the "yellow jacket and peacock's feather."

The History of Beginnings

The Newton Temperance Society and Lyceum was first organized in 1827 and in 1829 it branched out into a savings institution which two years later became the NEWTON SAVINGS BANK. The first treasurer was Deacon Elijah F. Woodward and the second, Luther Paul. From the beginning of its history the NEWTON SAVINGS BANK has stood for soundness and complete reliability. Your grandparents entrusted their savings to us and your grandchildren will, too.

CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Aug. 2.

The Golden Text is: "He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love" (1 John 4:8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known thee, and thou hast sent me. And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them" (John 17:25, 26).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The reputation of Jesus was the very opposite of his character. Why? Because the divine Principle and practice of Jesus were misunderstood. Through the magnitude of his human life, he demonstrated the divine Life. Out of the amplitude of his pure affection, he defined Truth. With the affluence of Truth, he vanquished error. The world acknowledged not his righteousness, seeing it not; but earth received the harmony his glorified example introduced" (pp. 53, 54).

JO H. Chamberlin recently revealed, in Collier's, that women buy three out of every four pairs of men's socks.

If you were surprised, we weren't. For women do have a way of taking care of us! For instance, over 80% of all savings deposited in banks like the Newton Centre Savings Bank are put there by the fair sex for their accounts or some member of their families. May the percentage grow even larger, ladies!

The French dogs crossed the Atlantic in 1783, in the care of John Quincy Adams, who later became President of the United States. Like his predecessors and successors, Adams, too, was a dog enthusiast.

Traffic Signals At West Newton

Work is underway on the system of traffic signals at West Newton square. These signals will control traffic at the junctions of Washington st. with Chestnut, Waltham and Watertown sts., and will be the most complicated and costly yet erected in Newton. In conjunction with the signals a safety island has been built at the junction of Washington and Watertown sts. The signals will all be electromechanically controlled and in addition on most of them there will be lever controls to be operated by pedestrians. Pads, or steel bars, placed in the surfaces of the several streets will be pressed down by automobiles passing over and will throw the red lights in the signals. One of these pads will be on the east side of Chestnut st. for traffic going toward Washington st. There will be a signal opposite Chestnut st. on Washington st.

On Washington st., east of Chestnut st. there will be two pads in the two North lanes of the roadway. These will be operated by traffic traveling west. On Washington st. west of Waltham st. will be two pads in the two South roadways. These will be operated by automobiles going easterly. There will be one pad on Watertown st. to be operated by motor vehicles about to enter Washington st. Another pad will be in Waltham st. for traffic approaching Washington st. There will be a signal on Washington st. east of Chestnut st., and another signal on Washington st. opposite Waltham st. Another signal will be at the northeast corner of Watertown st. where it joins Washington st.

IN MEMORY OF DR. E. HEATH CLARK

He has not gone, he's just away,
Passed through the gates to an endless day,
Sweet memories are always here, I feel his presence ever near,
May we think of him each day, not gone but just away.
God bless the memories of that life, who lived for others through much strife,
To him it is eternal day, not gone
but just away,
When passing to our heavenly home,
each one of us must go alone,
But when I've reached the perfect height
Where there is no pain or strife
I hope to meet those dear to me in life, not gone, but just away.
HELEN H. KELLEY.

To all who were privileged to know him, his passing is a great loss.
A thoughtful, generous, gracious gentleman, who loved nature and was ever seeking beauty. Of himself he gave unostentatiously, that others might find comfort and relief. As John Bannister Tabb expressed it:

"Out of the dusk a shadow,
Then, a spark;
Out of the cloud a silence,
Then, a lark;
Out of the heart a rapture,
Then, a pain;
Out of the dead, cold ashes,
Life again."

Pony Express Forerunner

Although history has never made it quite clear, the Lyon collection of Pony Express stamps and "franked" envelopes reveals that there were really two pony expresses, although the first was not officially known as such. This original organization was a Wells Fargo service that came into being in 1855 and undoubtedly paved the way for the official Pony Express, which made its debut April 3, 1860, financed by Senator Gwin and Alexander Majors, a pioneer freighter of the plains.

Boiler Explodes In Waban House

A hot water boiler exploded in the home of Henry C. Wayne, 855 Chestnut street, Waban on Sunday evening at 6 p. m., wrecked the house and shook residences in the vicinity. No one was in the house when the explosion occurred. The Wayne family had left their home Sunday morning and the heater had been on all day. The hot water boiler was hurled partly through the second floor. Two rooms in the house were wrecked, the second floor was raised, and damage occurred because of water leaking from broken pipes. The damage from the explosion will probably amount to about $3000. The fact that the house is of brick construction saved the side walls from being blown outward. Charles Cashman of 863 Chestnut st. pulled an alarm from Box 663 immediately after the explosion. No fire resulted from the blast. Firemen shut off the gas from the service entrance to the house and cleaned up the litter of debris. Employees of the Water Department shut off the water.

Origin of Corn Unknown; Indians First Growers

The origin of corn is unknown. No plant of it has ever been found in the wilds, declares a writer in the Los Angeles Times. When the first white men set foot in the New world corn was cultivated by the North American Indians on the Atlantic coast. It was their main reliance on hunting trips or in warfare against rival tribes. They carried it as parched corn in buckskin pouches. Often it was their only food for it was adequate. The squaws grew it in small fields, sufficient for each tribe. They were the first American farmers.
Corn's origin is no nearer solution today than it was then. Plant explorers have searched every bit of the available wilds of the western hemisphere without finding a trace or a clue. The average garden enthusiast's guess is as good as that of the most noted scientist. The first explorers found corn cultivated on down to Peru and Chile. It is not native to the United States, for it is easily harmed by frosts and cannot be planted early in the corn-growing states, for cold wet spring weather rots the seeds and fields must be replanted. It was, therefore, of more tropical origin.

Quakers Purchase From Indians

Original land purchases from the Indians on behalf of English settlers were made in the fall of 1677 by commissioners acting for two groups of Quakers, respectively from Yorkshire and London. Title to the lands between Big Timber and Oldman's creeks, covering the present Gloucester county, says the Philadelphia Bulletin, was granted by Chief Mekochee on September 27, 1677, with three Swedish colonists—Peter Rambo, Lacey Cock and Israel Helmes—acting as interpreters. The consideration stated in the deed is typical of such early transactions with the aborigines, including 30 matchcoats, 20 guns, 30 kettles and one great one, 30 pairs of hose, 20 fathoms of duffels (a popular cloth of the day), 30 petticoats, 30 narrow hoes, 30 bars of lead, 15 small barrels of powder, 70 knives, 30 Indian axes, 70 combs, 60 pairs of tobacco tongs, 60 scissors, 60 tinshaw looking-glasses, 120 awl blades, 120 fish-hooks, 2 grasps of red paint, 120 needles, 60 tobacco boxes, 120 pipes, 200 bells, 100 Jewsburps and 6 anchors of rum.

"Old Ironsides"

The name "Old Ironsides" was an affectionate one conferred on the stanch frigate after her great exploits during the War of 1812. Her first great triumph in that war was her victory over and capture of the British Guerriere on August 19, 1812. Later she fought and took another British frigate, the Java, off the coast of South America. Before the war was over she had beaten and taken two other frigates in battle, the Cyane and the Levant.
